Religion And Political Culture In Kano:

Religion and Political Culture in Kano John N. Paden, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1973 Ethnic Enterprise in America Ivan Hubert Light, John N. Paden, 1973-01-01 Muslims Talking Politics Brandon Kendhammer, 2016-06-22 Sharia implementation and democratic discourse in Northern Nigeria What we talk about when we talk about Islam and democracy Envisioning sharia imagining the past Democracy federalism and the sharia question Sharia in a time of transition Framing sharia and democracy Muslims talking politics All sharia is local islamic law and democracy in practice Political Conflict and Economic Change in Nigeria Henry Bienen, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1985 In the early morning hours of 31 December 1984 the Nigerian military once again removed an elected head of state A coup carried out by senior military officers ended the Second Republic which had been ushered in by elections at the end of 1979 Political Conflict and Economic Change in Nigeria is based on articles and essays written between 1978 and 1983 Displacement and the Politics of Violence in Nigeria Paul Lovejoy, Tokunbo Williams, 2021-11-01 This volume examines the political stalemate that has engulfed Nigeria in the 1990s The annulment of the 1993 elections stopped the transition to civilian rule which had begun in 1987 In re establishing its rule the military relied increasingly on repressive measures As rival elites have struggled to control the economy the level of violence and general insecurity has increased Often contending forces are perceived in religious terms with the result that secular strife has become pronounced The military government has thereby been able to manipulate the complexities of religious class and ethnic factors for its own purposes with the result that increasing numbers of Nigerians have left the country Muslim Modernity in Postcolonial Nigeria Ousmane Kane, 2003-01-01 This book deals with Muslim modernity in a country with the largest single Muslim population in Sub Saharan Africa It provides much needed new grounds for comparative study Until now virtually all socio anthropological works about any specific African country are either authored by nationals of that country or by Western scholars This book is an exception because its author is an Islamicist and a social scientist from Senegal trained in the French social science tradition Therefore his work does offer an original perspective in the study of Nigeria In addition the study of Islam south of the Sahara has so far focused on Sufi orders which form the mainstream of Islam but which by no means covers the whole Islamic field so called Islamic fundamentalist movements are also part of the religious landscape This book is devoted to the study of the largest single Muslim fundamentalist organization in postcolonial Sub Saharan Africa the Society for the Removal of Innovation and Reinstatement of Tradition Islamic Reform and Political Change in Northern Nigeria Roman Loimeier, 2011-08-31 The 1970s and 1980s were times of political and religious turmoil in Nigeria characterized by governmental upheaval and aggressive confrontations between the Sufi brotherhoods and the Izala movement In Islamic Reform and Political Change in Northern Nigeria Roman Loimeier explores the intermeshing of religion in the struggle for political influence and preservation of the interests of Nigerian Muslims Loimeier's careful scholarship combines astute readings of the work of previous scholars both published and unpublished with archival material and the findings of his own fieldwork in Nigeria His work fills a substantial gap in contemporary Nigerian studies This book provides invaluable and essential reading for serious students of Nigerian politics and of Islamic movements in Africa

Farmers and the State in Colonial Kano Steven Pierce, 2005-10-26 In Farmers and the State in Colonial Kano Steven Pierce examines issues surrounding the colonial state and the distribution of state power in northern Nigeria Here Pierce deconstructs the colonial state and offers a unique reading of land tenure that challenges earlier views of the role of indirect rule According to Pierce land tenure was the means the colonial government used to rule the local population and extract taxes from them but it was also a political logic with a fundamental flaw and a Western bias In Pierce's view colonial representations of land tenure claimed to reflect precolonial systems of rule but instead fundamentally misrepresented farmers' experience He maintains that this misrepresentation created a paradox at the core of the colonial state which persists into the present and helps to explain contemporary problems in African states In this sweeping and eloquent account of African history readers will find an extended genealogy of land law and taxation as well as rich material on the power of indigenous knowledge and the persistence of colonial systems of rule

The Advance of African Capital Tom G. Forrest, 1994 Combining ethnographic and historical perspectives Tom Forrest examines the strategies and patterns of development employed by business people from the colonial period to the present Through a series of highly readable case studies he provides a broad picture of the various forms of capital accumulation and sectoral advances in trade transport manufacture agriculture finance and other services These are set within the context of changing economic opportunities shifts in power and policy relations with foreign capital and attitudes towards private business and the state

Islam and the Political Economy of Meaning (RLE Economy of Middle East) William Roff, 2015-05-08 To be a Muslim is to be a part of a culture with distinct beliefs ideas institutional forms and prescriptive roles Yet there is a complex inter relationship between a system of knowledge and belief such as Islam and the immediate political economic and social context of its adherents This book aims to improve understanding of Muslim social and political action by examining a broad spectrum of Muslim discourse both written and spoken to see how meaning is formed by context It is a broad comparative study and examines discourses produced in opposition to government as well as those produced in Iran or Pakistan for example under an authoritarian Islamic state Through cogent analyses of socio historical contexts and textual materials from East Java Nigeria Iran Pakistan Indonesia Malaysia the Maghreb and Egypt this book shows how to read a familiar Islamic movement period of change or textual source in a newer and better light First published in 1987

Moral Economies of Corruption Steven Pierce, 2016-02-26 In Moral Economies of Corruption Steven Pierce provides a cultural history of the last 150 years of corruption in Nigeria as a case study for considering corruption's dynamic nature finding it to be a culturally contingent set of political discourses and historically embedded practices

The Infinite Longing for Home David C.L. Lim, 2005-01-01 The Infinite Longing for Home is a groundbreaking study of Ben Okri's and K S Maniam's literary problematization of home in relation to subjectivity and the nation within and beyond the context of Nigeria and Malaysia Drawing on Lacan, Iek Laclau and Mouffe and weaving through history politics philosophy and literature this book critically examines the motives and means by which peoples forced to live together in a country love and hate each other and overlook the truths about themselves their actions and beliefs It looks into why some embrace heterogeneity and open endedness while others are internally compelled to over identify passionately with their religion and race and to posit theirs as irreducibly distinct from and superior to others The Infinite Longing for Home also traces through Okri's and Maniam's writings a way out of today's political aporia a path to the re creation of a new society humbled and unified by the recognition of its participation in flawed humanity

Violence in Nigeria Toyin Falola, 1998 A comprehensive study of religious violence and aggression in Nigeria notably its causes consequences and the options for conflict resolution Violence in Nigeria is the most comprehensive study of religious violence and aggression in Nigeria notably its causes consequences and the options for conflict resolution After an analysis of the links between religion and politics the book elaborates on all the major cases of violence in the 1980s and 90s including the Maitatsine Kano Bauchi Kaduna and Katsina riots Zones of religious tensions are identified as well as general characteristics of violence in Nigeria and issues in inter and intra religious relations religious organizations and the states and the main actors in the conflicts are explored in great detail A product of extensive primary research Violence in Nigeria makes a contribution to contemporary social and political history that no previous study has attempted and it is written to appeal to specialists and non specialists alike Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin He is the author or editor of over a dozen books dealing with the history of Nigeria its people their religion and politics

Shari'a Politics Robert W. Hefner, 2011-04-04 One of the most important developments in Muslim politics in recent years has been the spread of movements calling for the implementation of sharia or Islamic law Sharia Politics maps the ideals and organization of these movements and examines their implications for the future of democracy citizen rights and gender relations in the Muslim world These studies of eight Muslim majority societies and state of the field reflections by leading experts provide the first comparative investigation of movements for and against implementation of sharia These essays reveal that the Muslim public's interest in sharia does not spring from an unchanging devotion to received religious tradition but from an effort to respond to the central political and ethical questions of the day

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This third edition of Ira M Lapidus's classic A History of Islamic Societies has been substantially revised to incorporate the insights of new scholarship and updated to include historical developments in the first decade of the twenty first century Lapidus's history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion to Africa Spain Turkey and the Balkans Central South and Southeast Asia and North America situating Islamic societies within their global political and economic contexts It accounts for the impact of European imperialism on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present This book is essential for readers seeking to understand Muslim peoples

Publisher information Fundamentalisms and the State Martin E. Marty, R. Scott Appleby, 1993 This third volume of the Fundamentalism Project provides a systematic overview of the advances made by antisectional religious movements over the past twenty five years The distinguished contributors to this volume economists political scientists religious historians social anthropologists and sociologists focus on the impact these movements have had on national economies political parties constitutional issues and international relations on five continents and within the religious traditions of Islam Christianity Judaism Buddhism Hinduism and Sikhism Do fundamentalisms tend toward political activism and how successful have they been in remaking political structures To answer this question and others the contributors discuss the anti abortion movement in the U S the Islamic war of resistance in Afghanistan and Shiite jurisprudence in Iran Martin E Marty and R Scott Appleby conclude the volume with a synthetic statement of fundamentalist impact on politics economies and state security The Fundamentalism Project is a monumental undertaking by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences that involves an international group of scholars Taken together the volumes in this series will become a standard reference for educators and policy analysts for years to come Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution John N. Paden, 2006-03-30 The question of whether Islam is compatible with democracy may best be answered not from the classical sources or even from the cauldron of Middle East politics but from the lived experiences of Muslim communities around the world In large and diverse countries the varied political values of different cultures can make or break the democratic experiment Regardless of their cultural context transitions from military to civilian rule require attention to the grassroots civic cultures that form the foundations of democratic federalism John Paden a noted expert on West African and Islamic societies uses Nigeria as a critical case study of how a diverse country with a significant Muslim population is working to make the transition to a democratic society Although little studied the non Arab Muslim communities of West Africa are an important indicator as to whether Islamic democracy in a diverse nation is possible Nigeria's success is vital to regional and global stability As the largest country in Africa with a population that is about half Muslim and half Christian or traditional animist Nigeria is also the seventh largest producer of oil in the world and has gone through a series of political traumas ranging from civil war to military rule The current democratic government is trying to balance rule of law concerns at a time when many communal tensions are coming to the surface Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution in Nigeria takes us inside the complex world of Nigerian politics with a focus on the ways Muslim civic cultures deal with matters of leadership and conflict resolution The book provides an essential context to the current international concern with issues ranging from Shari a law and communal violence to the broader war on terrorism It argues that the requirement for regional political cooperation serves as a counterbalance to more extreme forms of political expression Paden shows that if the Nigerian political model o

Muslim-Christian Dialogue in Post-Colonial Northern Nigeria M. Iwuchukwu,2013-10-02 Iwuchukwu examines the perennial conflicts in different parts of northern Nigeria and why they are popularly called Muslim Christian clashes Specifically he examines the immediate and remote factors that are responsible for the conflicts Religion and National Integration in Africa John O. Hunwick,1992 Religion and National Integration in Africa is a collection of five papers presented at the one day seminar on religion and politics convened at Northwestern University in May 1988 They have been revised by their authors in this publication that includes transcripts of the invited commentaries Themes in the Christian History of Central Africa Terence O.
