Religion And Politics Cultural Perspectives:

Religion and Politics Bernhard Giesen, Daniel Šuber, 2005 The volume collects eminent works on the relationship between politics and religion by leading figures in Cultural Studies The contributors share in the basic belief that the roots of contemporary conflicts have to be uncovered from the historical descent of religion Religion and Sexuality in Cross-Cultural Perspective Stephen Ellingson, M. Christian Green, 2014-03-18 Issues of sexuality and gender are hotly contested in both religious communities and national cultures around the world In the social sciences religious traditions are often depicted as inherently conservative or even reactionary in their commitments to powerful patriarchal and pronatalist sexual norms and gender categories In illuminating the practices of religious traditions in various cultures these essays expose the diversity of religious rituals and mythologies pertaining to sexuality In the process the contributors challenge conventional notions of what is normative in our sexual lives The Marketization of Religion François Gauthier, Tuomas Martikainen, 2020-09-10 The Marketization of Religion provides a novel theoretical understanding of the relationship between religion and economy of today's world A major feature of today's capitalism is marketization While the importance that economics and economics related phenomena have acquired in modern societies has increased since the consumer and neoliberal revolutions and their shock waves worldwide social sciences of religion are still lagging behind acknowledging the consequences of these changes and incorporating them in their analysis of contemporary religion Religion as many other social realities has been traditionally understood as being of a completely different nature than the market Like oil and water religion and the market have been mainly cast as indissoluble into one another Even if notions such as the marketization commoditization or branding of religion and images such as the religious and spiritual marketplace have become popular some of the contributions aligned in this volume show how this usage is mostly metaphorical and at the very least problematic What does the marketization of religion mean The chapters provide both theoretical and empirical discussion of the changing dynamics of economy and religion in today's world Through the lenses of marketization the volume discusses the multiple at times surprising connections of a global religious reformation Furthermore in its use of empirical examples it shows how different religions in various social contexts are reformed due to growing importance of a neoliberal and consumerist logic This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Religion Education and Disability in Cross-Cultural Perspective Susan Jeanne Peters, 2013-11-26 A radical departure from previous chronicles of education for people with disabilities this book views special education from a broader perspective Its central thesis is that cultural values and expectations play a dominant role in understanding the structure and function of special education While theories of the social construction of disability have been written about in a growing body of research since the 1960s no attempt has been made to create a cross cultural framework This work offers such a framework Eight chapters written by educators in each country's educational system cover the following nations China Great Britain Hungary Japan Iran Pakistan United States and

Zimbabwe Historical discussions in each chapter provide a context for current practice An index and illustrations are also included

Christhu Doss, 2022-11-23 Weaving together the varied and complex strands of anti colonial nationalism into one compact narrative Christhu Doss takes an incisive look at the deeper and wider historical process of decolonization in India In India after the 1857 Revolt Doss brings together some of the most cutting edge thoughts by challenging the cultural project of colonialism and critically examining the multi dimensional aspects of decolonization during and after the 1857 revolt He demonstrates that the deep rooted popular discontent among the Indian masses followed by the revolt generated a distinctive form of decolonization movement redemptive nationalism that challenged both the supremacy of the British Raj and the cultural imperatives of the controversial proselytizing missionary agencies Doss argues that the quests for decolonization of mind that got triggered by the revolt were further intensified by the Indocentric national education the historic Chicago discourse of Swami Vivekananda the nonviolent anti colonial struggles of Mahatma Gandhi the seditious political activism displayed by the Western Gandhian missionary satyagrahis and the de Westernization endeavours of the sandwiched Indian Christian nationalists A compelling read for historians political scientists and sociologists it is refreshingly an indispensable guide to all those who are interested in anticolonial struggles and decolonization movements worldwide Memory and Religion from a Postsecular Perspective Zuzanna Bogumił, Yuliya Yurchuk, 2022-02-27 The book argues that religion is a system of significant meanings that have an impact on other systems and spheres of social life including cultural memory The editors call for a postsecular turn in memory studies which would provide a more reflective and meaningful approach to the constant interplay between the religious and the secular This opens up new perspectives on the intersection of memory and religion and helps memory scholars become more aware of the religious roots of the language they are using in their studies of memory By drawing on examples from different parts of the world the contributors to this volume explain how the interactions between the religious and the secular produce new memory forms and content in the heterogeneous societies of the present day world These analyzed cases demonstrate that religion has a significant impact on cultural memory family memory and the contemporary politics of history in secularized societies At the same time politics grassroots movements and different secular agents and processes have so much influence on the formation of memory by religious actors that even religious ecclesiastic and confessional memories are affected by the secular This volume is ideal for students and scholars of memory studies religious studies and history Secular State and Religious Society B.

of Religion Hans G. Kippenberg, 2021-06-17 Freedom of Religion declared in Art 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948 concerned not only individuals but included the moral right of religious communities to manifest religion in public The International Covenant on Political and Civil Rights 1966 1976 made it a legal right and added an article that allowed states to restrict that freedom provided it violates national laws and public order This article resulted in an ongoing process of legal proceedings The Human Rights Committee of the UN and the European Court of Human Rights have made judgments that allowed a plurality of religions in public even in cases where there is a state religion A declaration of the UN against intolerance and discrimination empowered religious communities to establish charitable institutions to disseminate internationally relevant publications and to receive financial contributions and made them powerful social and political actors The same declaration defended the principles of free choice of a religion and of tolerance among citizens of different faiths This book investigates the most relevant rulings concerning the religious rights of individuals and communities It fills a gap in the study of religious communities in the globalized world and will be of interest to anyone involved in historical social legal and religious studies It will help the reader to understand the paradox of the power of religious communities in a secular and globalizing world

The Theological Origins of Liberalism Ismail Kurun, 2016-07-26 This eye opening book offers a critical survey of the true origins of liberalism It challenges the widely held belief among social scientists that liberalism was developed in opposition to Christianity Beginning with the Protestant Reformation it illustrates how Christian thinkers reinterpreted Christianity and used a set of indemonstrable biblical presuppositions from their reinterpretations to develop the first liberal ideas starting a process that culminates in the birth of the first liberal political theory in the writings of a devout Christian philosopher John Locke It explains how the Protestant Reformation covenant theology anti trinitarianism and medieval Christian natural law theories formed the foundations of liberalism Thus the central claim of this book is that liberalism is better understood as a radical reinterpretation of Christianity that emerged in the post Reformation and early modern period As a logical consequence of revealing the hitherto generally neglected roots of liberalism it eventually proposes that a legally pluralist liberal political theory is the best way to maintain human dignity and peace in multi religious societies of today s globalized world

Handbook of Religious Culture in Nineteenth-Century Europe Anthony Steinhoff, Jeffrey Zalar, 2024-12-30 This handbook offers a guide to research on religious culture during Europe s long nineteenth century 1800 1914 Grounded in the latest theoretical approaches and in line with trends that have produced a religious turn in the study of modern Europe the volume assesses the state of the field while making provocative recommendations for its enlargement Unique and ambitious in its thematic breadth it addresses the histories of all five of Europe s main religious traditions Eastern Orthodox Christianity Judaism Islam Protestantism and Roman Catholicism and brings these histories into comparative analysis This analysis extends to a wide range of subjects from popular belief and practice education and modern knowledge formation and the arts to the intersections between religion and urbanization civil society and politics and missions and imperialism It also evaluates recent developments in work on religion vis vis both gender and nationalism while calling attention to newer research that proposes secularism as a form of belief in its own right Presenting the scholarship of eighteen leaders in their respective fields the volume explains why religion as a topic of research has moved from the periphery to the center of modern European historiography
