Public Relations for Public Schools Doyle M. Bortner, 1983

School Public Relations J. A. Kinder, 1982

School Public Relations, 1986 School public relations is a planned and systematic management function relying on a comprehensive two way communication process involving both internal and external publics with a goal of stimulating a better understanding of the role objectives accomplishments and needs of the organization The function of school public relations is first to ensure that schools are identifying and serving society s needs as well as possible and second to make sure that the public knows that its needs are being met so that it will support its schools After a preface 14 chapters address these topics 1 building support for schools 2 public relations in education 3 the current stance of education in relation to the public 4 developing a public relations program 5 working with parents and students 6 involving key publics 7 managing critical issues 8 using new technology 9 printed communications 10 working with the media 11 the basics of school public relations 12 special problems 13 building level public relations and 14 evaluating the public relations investment Included in six appendices are a code of ethics and standards for educational public relations programs and public relations professionals Concluding the book are 61 references and an index WTH Public Relations Gold Mine National School Public Relations Association,1961 An Organic Guide to School Public Relations Lew Armistead,1977

Person to Person National School Public Relations Association,1956 The Communicating Principal Trinette Marquis,Natalie A. Nash,2021-12-08 The demand for effective communication and marketing at the campus level has never been more urgent and yet most administrators come into the role with little public relations expertise or background Schools must navigate incredibly complex societal issues while they compete for students engage families and inspire staff and community members to give their best efforts and support The Communicating Principal Practical Strategies for School Leaders provides real world stories best practice guidelines and practical communication checklists designed to help school leaders better understand their community and bring them in to co create a vision for positive transformation From social media and websites to crisis and internal messaging this book shares systems and supports that make communicating easier and more effective Every topic is covered from the lens of a principal what you need how it can be done quickly and inexpensively and how to measure success so that it can be shared and replicated Not every school or district can afford a communication professional The Communicating Principal is the next best thing Pebbles National School Public Relations Association,1960 How to Market Your School Johanna M. Lockhart,2010-12-16 Increased competition declining resources changing demographics news media scrutiny and the importance of public perceptions are reasons why schools and school districts need an effective marketing program However even school and district administrators who recognize the importance of marketing often feel unprepared to initiate and maintain a strategic marketing effort How to Market Your School is a comprehensive guide that provides school administrators with tools to help them create implement and maintain a successful marketing program Topics covered include developing a marketing strategy marketing research communications media relations building beneficial partnerships public relations and fund raising Although written for public school administrators the book is equally applicable to private and charter schools The School and Community Relations Don Bagin,Donald R. Gallagher,2001 This book recognizes that publicity is required for interpreting the school to the community and the community to the school Well designed community relations programs can create a sense of friendliness and good will toward faculties provide adequate financial support for schools and develop a sense of responsibility in the community for the steady improvement of education Theories techniques and tips to help educational leaders deal with communications challenges are detailed In the seventh edition two new chapters focus on crisis management including school violence Part 1 Essential Considerations includes chapters on the public character of the school understanding the community the importance of the public relations program and the program s policies goals strategies and administration Part 2 Relations with Special Publics includes chapters on the communication process with internal and external publics preparation for crises and communication about school services and special events Part 3 concerns communication tools Its chapters consider working with the press the use of the media the Internet printed materials campaigns and school choice Part 4 is concerned with the assessment of the public relations program s degree of success An index is provided as well as a list of helpful organizations Contains 97 references RKJ School Public Relations Arthur Bernard Moehlman,James A.
