Sciences Humaines Etat Des Lieux:

L'Etat des lieux en sciences sociales Alexandru Duțu, Norbert Dodille, 1993 Histoire, philosophie et sociologie des sciences : pour un état des lieux des rapports établis et des problèmes ouverts : XIXe colloque annuel du Groupe d'étude "Pratiques sociales et théories" : actes Gérald Berthoud, 2002 Les sciences sociales en voyage, 2010-01-01

Le présent ouvrage explore ce qui arrive aux sciences humaines et sociales lorsqu'elles se déplacent ou se déplacent et analyse la façon dont elles sont affectées et transformées en retour aux plans méthodologique, théorique et conceptuel par leur extension au-delà de l'aire géographique de leur naissance. Concrètement, il se propose d'examiner les mutations qu'elles subissent ou dont elles profitent dans deux cas de figure distincts mais également importants lorsque des disciplines formées au nord tendent leur validité au-delà de leur aire géographique d'origine pour s'appliquer des terrains lointains et exotiques et lorsque ces mêmes disciplines sont enseignées, pratiquées, appropriées et développées dans des aires géographiques autres et des contextes historiques différents. Dans les deux cas, la production de pays et des savoirs peut différer de la pratique originale primitive ou domestique dans laquelle le chercheur et l'objet de sa recherche appartiennent tous deux au contexte historique de formation des sciences sociales. Outre les contenus, il s'interroge aussi sur les pratiques et ceux qui en sont les porteurs : chercheurs ou institutions qui participent au transfert des savoirs ou contribuent les recombiner et les reformuler. Pour des raisons de compétence et loin de tout pré-suppos essentialiste, orientaliste ou culturaliste, l'analyse se borne aux savoirs produits sur les pays arabes et la Turquie. Ne pouvant prétendre à l'exhaustivité, l'ouvrage privilégie les évolutions ayant marqué les dernières décennies et pour des raisons tout aussi pratiques et pragmatiques, il s'intéresse quatre disciplines en particulier : l'histoire, la sociologie, la science politique et l'économie.

Thinking with the South Andrea Fleschenberg, Kai Kresse, Rosa Cordillera Castillo, 2023-12-04. This volume brings together a series of discussions by scholars from a range of disciplinary, trans-regional and epistemic perspectives that came out of the Berlin-based co2libri networking initiative with longstanding collaborative partners based in the global South. Co2libri stands for conceptual collaboration, living borderless research interaction. As an interdisciplinary and transregional oriented initiative, co2libri envisages a multicentric perspective that integrates neglected positions of Southern theory and praxis into the heart of academic conversations. Co2libri's collaborative endeavor builds on long-standing active connections with partners in Africa, South and Southeast Asia and the Middle East. Instead of setting an agenda from the North, it proposes to figure out ways forward through collaborative engagement, building on relationships of mutual trust. Using formats that facilitate substantial and open-ended discussion, we are rethinking theory and method, academic practices and research ethics while keeping material inequalities in view. Contributors to this edited volume are working toward the implementation of various innovative activities, research perspectives and collaboration formats which all subscribe to the principle of dialogue on equal footing with scholars and activists based in divergent positionalities along and beyond the Global North-South divide. In different ways, the authors work toward the goal of producing more adequate and more sensitive critical knowledge and applying a fresh view to approach methods and ethical standards Overall the volume works sometimes in exploratory ways with alternative frames of reference while it presents diverse theorizations of lived experiences The Crisis of Muslim Religious Discourse Lahouari

Addi,2021-12-30 Showing that Muslim societies are facing a crisis that is more cultural than religious this book focuses on cultural representations through which social life is experienced in the Muslim world It brings a new theoretical framework to address the secularization process that is underway and the contradictions it entails This volume will arouse a new debate on secularization and the relations between religion culture and philosophy The crisis Muslim societies are undergoing pertains to the culture and not to the Qur an to the extent that people do not have access to the sacred in itself but only for oneself meaning a cultural interpretation of the sacred The Qur an in itself is not an obstacle to secularization and modernization since any sacred text is experienced through culture If we consider the European experience where secularization has first emerged we see that culture has been transformed from medieval metaphysics to modern philosophy upholding a civic culture Discussing secularization through cultural representation this book launches new ideas that fill an important gap in the literature on secularization It is a key resource for any readers interested in religious studies philosophy and the anthropology of religion What is Québécois Literature? Rosemary Chapman,2013-08-30 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library The question What is Québécois literature may seem innocent and answerable yet Rosemary Chapman's compelling study shows that to answer it is to chart the cultural history of French Canada to put francophone writing in Canada in postcolonial context and to ask whether literary history with its focus on the nation is in fact obsolete This remarkable book will be compulsory reading for scholars well versed in francophone postcolonial studies and will also act as an ideal introduction for Anglophone scholars of Canadian literature Rapport mondial sur les sciences sociales, 2013 UNESCO,International Social Science Council,2015-12-31

Boubacar Ly le grand sociologue sénégalais dont le témoignage figure en exergue de cet ouvrage suivait les cours de Georges Gurwitsch en Sorbonne et celui que nous vivons plus de cinquante ans se sont coulés Un laps de temps suffisamment long pour que l'on se reinterroge de nouveau comme l'avait fait Gurwitsch dans La vocation actuelle de la sociologie sur les enjeux de la sociologie sans se limiter ainsi qu'on le faisait dans les années cinquante du siècle dernier l'espace occidental Car la sociologie a maintenant droit de cité en Afrique En dépit de tous les obstacles liés d'abord la période coloniale ensuite l'instauration de r gimes autoritaires ainsi qu'aux problèmes sociaux et économiques l'enseignement et la recherche se sont développés de manière significative dans presque tous les pays francophones. Mais cette réussite a ses exigences. La croissance du nombre des étudiants rend nécessaire une réflexion sur la possibilité de les professionnaliser en dehors de l'enseignement et de la recherche. La multiplication de terrains africains dans un contexte du développement oblige à réfléchir la manière dont peuvent s'articuler et se compléter recherche pure et recherche appliquée et d'une façon plus générale sur ce que peut être la contribution de la sociologie. État des lieux de la sociologie en Afrique francophone cet ouvrage dont les auteurs sont à la fois des sociologues africains et des sociologues francophones de divers pays constitue une référence indispensable pour tous ceux qui s'intéressent à la sociologie et son rôle dans le monde actuel.

La communication internationale dans l'univers global des sciences sociales Ndiaga Loum, 2021-01-25 Comment la communication internationale peut revendiquer une place de choix dans l'univers global des sciences sociales. Dans quelle mesure et jusqu'à quel point les objets qu'elle aborde les enjeux sociaux qu'elle adresse interpellent-ils toutes les disciplines des sciences sociales. Comment démontrer sans effort son rattachement à la trajectoire historique que suivent les sciences sociales. Ce faisant se verrait-elle dans l'obligation de devoir fixer un champ de délimitation dans l'univers global des sciences sociales. Comment harmoniser toutes les diversités discursives sur la communication internationale et rendre plus aisée la compréhension de cette matière pour tous ceux qui, principalement enseignants, chercheurs et étudiants s'intéressent à cette sous-discipline. Tâche herculéenne et mission quasi impossible. Pourtant c'est le défi que propose de relever cet ouvrage marqué par le souci de la clarté pédagogique et qui démontre du début à la fin qu'on ne peut nullement lier le qualificatif internationale au terme communication sans problématiser. À travers neuf chapitres traitant chacun profondément d'objets divers mais logiquement articulés pointe aussi un parti pris pistémique pour la méthode de l'interdisciplinarité que l'auteur ne s'emploie pas seulement à rappeler mais dont il explique les fondements scientifiques. Au bout de l'ouvrage s'amorce un dialogue inédit sur le déséquilibre mondial de l'information avec l'ancien Directeur Général de l'UNESCO Amadou Mahtar Mbow, initiateur de la commission internationale sur les problèmes de la communication. Les débats sur le NOMIC, nouvel ordre mondial de l'information et de la communication sont souvent relatés par des sources secondaires aux interprétations parfois contradictoires. Quoi de mieux pour rendre service la vérité scientifique que d'interroger la source directe.

Sciences sociales, management et sociétés Jean-François

Chanlat, 2022-10-19T00:00:00-04:00 Le monde contemporain est fortement marqué par l'importance que nos sociétés accordent à l'économie, à l'entreprise et à la gestion. Les sciences sociales qui s'attachent à rendre intelligible la vie sociale dans un de ses aspects particuliers ou dans sa totalité ne pouvaient pas rester indifférentes à ce phénomène. Cet ouvrage dresse un bilan des rapports que les sciences sociales ont historiquement entretenus et entretiennent encore aujourd'hui avec le management. Il cherche à répondre à un certain nombre de questions : quelles formes prennent ces relations avec le temps ? Quelle place le management accorde-t-il aux sciences sociales ? Quelle est la contribution de celles-ci à la compréhension du management Et quelle place doivent elles occuper aujourd'hui dans la formation en gestion Face des pratiques managériales actuelles menées au nom de la compétitivité et de la rentabilité financière qui ont souvent des effets socio-économiques problématiques et aux enjeux vitaux entraînés par l'urgence environnementale cet ouvrage plaide pour que le monde de la gestion largisse ses visions de l'être humain redonne une place centrale la parole la subjectivité l'affectivité l'expérience vécue au symbolique l'histoire la nature et l'éthique tant dans ses pratiques que dans son enseignement Ce n'est qu'à ces conditions que nous pourrions fonder un nouvel humanisme et assurer l'harmonie sociale laquelle les humains aspirent Cet ouvrage constitue l'édition revue et augmentée de Sciences sociales et management plaidoyer pour une anthropologie générale paru originellement en 1998 aux Presses de l'Université Laval Informationsgesellschaft Gérald Berthoud, Albert Kündig, 2005
