European rural peripheries revalued Ulrike Grabski-Kieron,Ingo Mose,Anja Reichert-Schick,Annett Steinführer,2016 This volume provides an overview of research on seemingly current and former peripheral areas and on processes of peripheralisation in Europe Particular emphasis is given to questions of local and regional governance to multiple actors of peripheralisation and residential revitalisation as well as to economic and ecological transformations

A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe Ullrich Kockel,Máiréad Nic Craith,Jonas Frykman,2015-12-14 A Companion to theAnthropologyof Europe BLACKWELL COMPANIONS TO ANTHROPOLOGY A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe The volume also deserves a place on the shelves of academic libraries as well as the larger public library Reference Reviews Summing Up Highly recommended All academic levels libraries Choice This important collection challenges all anthropologists to re examine the importance of European perspectives on the most provocative debates of our time It transcends regional interests to highlight the complex intellectual landscape of our field Tracey Heatherington University of Wisconsin Milwaukee This significant volume critically interrogates assumptions about Europe as an idea and a place for research It provides fresh perspectives on the past and future of anthropological studies of Europe Deborah Reed Danahay SUNY at Buffalo President of the Society for the Anthropology of Europe A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe offers a survey of contemporary Europeanist anthropology and European ethnology and a guide to emerging trends in this geographical field of research Utilizing diverse approaches to the anthropological study of Europe Kockel Nic Craith and Frykman provide a synthesis of the different traditions and contemporary practices Investigating the subject both geographically and thematically the companion covers key topics such as location heritage experience and cultural practices Written by leading international scholars in the field the volume constitutes the first authoritative guide for researchers instructors and students of anthropology and European studies Islands and Britishness Jodie

Matthews,2011-11-15 Islands and archipelagos hold great imaginative power and they have long been a subject of study for cartographers and geographers for anthropologists and historians of colonisation But what does it mean to be an islander Can one feel both British and Manx for example What are British tourists looking for when they go to former island colonies How do past relationships with Britain affect islands today This collection takes a variety of perspectives to provide answers to such questions examining war empire tourism immigration language literature and everyday life on and in islands and the question of travel to and from them Britishness is highlighted as a global island phenomenon providing an insight into the history culture and politics of identities from Jersey to Jamaica Islands and Britishness not only brings together various contemporary strands in Island Studies but uniquely focuses on the relationship historical cultural and economic between particular islands and Britain and crucially how this relationship frames national identity both on the island and in Britain itself The collection examines interactions between Britishness and indigenous or earlier invasive settler cultures as well as the internal differences within the concept of Britishness Britain Scotland Shetland for instance It considers the relationship played out on the island between Britishness and the other nationalities with which the islands share an affinity and questions received wisdoms about national identity on the islands by considering intersecting discourses such as class and gender The collection offers a global perspective on the divisions within a notion of Britishness and the identities against which Britishness has been constructed Heimatkunde Mairéad Nic Craith,Katerina Strani, Alastair Mackie,2023 An integrative Heimatkunde defined as the holistic study of localities and regions has been a core interest in Ullrich aka Ulli Kockel s research since he first graduated with a double primary in 1984 Frequently described as an interdisciplinary and sometimes undisciplined academic his research draws liberally on art geography human ecology philosophical anthropology political economy and social anthropology with its primary focus located in the field of Empirical Cultural Science European ethnology The contributions to this collection celebrate Ulli s explorations of place and belonging at different junctures on his quest for Heimatkunde Laid out in four thematic sections Borders Regions and Frontiers Human Ecology Creative Ethnology and Memories they feature creative work along with research essays Given Ulli s love of cooking and food we describe our offering as a feast script Dissent, Revolution and Liberty Beyond Earth Charles Cockell,2016-03-10 This volume provides an in depth discussion on the central question how can people express and survive dissent and disagreement in confined habitats in space The discussion is an important one because it could be that the systems of inter dependence required to survive in space are so strong that dissent becomes impossible John Locke originally said that people have a right to use revolution to overthrow a despotic regime But if revolution causes violence and damage that causes depressurisation with the risk of killing many people is it even permissible to have a revolution How then are people to express their liberty or dissatisfaction with their rulers The emergence of structures of dissent and disagreement is an essential part of the construction of a framework of liberty in space revolution is just the extreme example and thus the topic deserves in depth and immediate attention Even today the way in which we assemble organisations and corporations for the government and private exploration of space must take into account the need for mechanisms to allow people to express dissent

Names and Naming Guy Puzey,Laura Kostanski,2016-02-02 This book explores international trends in naming and contributes to the growing field of onomastic enquiry Naming practices are viewed here through a critical lens demonstrating a high level of political and social engagement in relation to how we name people and places The contributors to this publication examine why names are not only symbols of a person or place but also manifestations of cultural linguistic and social heritage in their own right Presenting analyses of geographically and culturally diverse perspectives and case studies the book investigates how names can represent deeper kinds of identity act as objects of attachment and dependence and reflect community mores and social customs while functioning as powerful mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion The book will be of interest to researchers in onomastics sociology human geography linguistics and history

Disaster Culture Gregory Button,2016-06-03 Drawing on decades of research on the most infamous human and environmental calamities Button shows how states corporations and other actors attempt to create meaning and control social relations in post disaster struggles for the redistribution of power

Social Anthropology Edward Hecican,2012-01-15 This is the first introductory text that focuses on social anthropological research using Canadian examples and perspectives In this groundbreaking new book Edward Hecican provides undergraduate students with a solid background on the theoretical and applied aspects of anthropology while exploring the rich history of the discipline in a Canadian context In ten concise chapters readers are introduced to the basic conceptual building blocks of introductory anthropology in a refreshingly succinct and engaging way With a strong focus on Canadian theory this book includes discussion of evolutionism feminist anthropology marriage and the family and political economy
Environment, labour and capitalism at sea Penny McCall Howard,2017-04-28 This book explores how fishers make the sea productive through their labour using technologies ranging from wooden boats to digital GPS plotters to create familiar places in a seemingly hostile environment It shows how their lives are affected by capitalist forces in the markets they sell to forces that shape even the relations between fishers on the same boat Fishers frequently have to make impossible choices between safe seamanship and staying afloat economically and the book describes the human impact of the high rate of deaths in the fishing industry The book makes a unique contribution to understanding human environment relations examining the places fishers create and name at sea as well as technologies and navigation practices It combines phenomenology and political economy to offer new approaches for analyses of human environment relations and technologies

Landscapes of Protest in the Scottish Highlands after 1914 Iain J.M. Robertson,2016-04-15 In November 1918 the implementation of agrarian change in the Scottish Highlands threatened another wave of unemployment and eviction for the land working population which led to widespread and varied social protest Those who had been away on war service and their families faced returning to exactly the same social and economic conditions in the Scottish Highlands they had hoped they had left behind in the struggle to make a land fit for heroes Widespread and varied social protest rapidly followed It argues that previously there has been a failure to capture fully the geography chronology typology and rate of occurrence of these events The book not only offers new insights and a greater understanding of what was happening in the Highlands in this period but illustrates how a range of forms of protest were used which demand attention not least for the fact that these events unlike most of the earlier Land Wars period were successful There are functioning townships in the Highlands today that owe their existence to the land invasions of the 1920s The book innovatively concentrates on formulating explanation and interpretation from within and looks to the crofting landscape as base means and motive to disturbance and interpretation It proposes that protest is much more convincingly understood as an expression of environmental ethics from the bottom up coming increasingly into conflict with conservationist views expressed from the top down It focuses on individual case studies in order to engage more convincingly with an important evidential base that of popular memory of land disturbances and to adopt a frame and lens through which to explore the fluid and contingent nature of protest performances Based upon the belief that in the study of landscapes of social protest the old shibboleth of space as solely passive setting and symbolic register is no longer tenable is paid here to nature culture interactions to vernacular ecological b
