Scraps Of Life Chilean Arpilleras:

Scraps of Life Marjorie Agosín, 1987 A moving historical account of the lives and creativity of Chilean poets Scraps of Life Marjorie Agosin, 1987 Scraps of life Cola Franzen, 1987 Fray Julia Bryan-Wilson, 2021-02 In 1974 women in a feminist consciousness raising group in Eugene Oregon formed a mock organization called the Ladies Sewing Circle and Terrorist Society Emblazoning its logo onto t shirts the group wryly envisioned female collective textile making as a practice that could upend conventions threaten state structures and wreak political havoc Elaborating on this example as a prehistory to the more recent phenomenon of craftivism the politics and social practices associated with handmaking Fray explores textiles and their role at the forefront of debates about process materiality gender and race in times of economic upheaval Closely examining how amateurs and fine artists in the United States and Chile turned to sewing braiding knotting and quilting amid the rise of global manufacturing Julia Bryan Wilson argues that textiles unravel the high low divide and urges us to think flexibly about what the politics of textiles might be Her case studies from the 1970s through the 1990s including the improvised costumes of the theater troupe the Cockettes the braided rag rugs of US artist Harmony Hammond the thread based sculptures of Chilean artist Cecilia Vicuña the small hand sewn tapestries depicting Pinochet's torture and the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt are often taken as evidence of the inherently progressive nature of handcrafted textiles Fray however shows that such methods are recruited to often ambivalent ends leaving textiles very much in the fray of debates about feminized labor protest cultures and queer identities the malleability of cloth and fiber means that textiles can be activated or stretched in many ideological directions The first contemporary art history book to discuss both fine art and amateur registers of handmaking at such an expansive scale Fray unveils crucial insights into how textiles inhabit the broad space between artistic and political poles high and low untrained and highly skilled conformist and disobedient craft and art

Desired States Lessie Jo Frazier, 2020-06-12 Desired States challenges the notion that in some cultures sex and sexuality have become privatized and located in individual subjectivity rather than in public political practices and institutions Instead the book contends that desire is a central aspect of political culture Based on fieldwork and archival research Frazier explores the gendered and sexualized dynamics of political culture in Chile an imperialist context asking how people connect with and become mobilized in political projects in some cases or in others become disaffected or are excluded to varying degrees The book situates the state in a rich and changing context of transnational and localized movements imperialist interests geo political conflicts and market forces to explore the broader struggles of desiring subjects especially in those dimensions of life that are explicitly sexual and amorous free love movements marriage the sixties sexual revolution in Cold War contexts prostitution policies ideas about men's gratification the charisma of leaders and sexual domestic violence against women

Voices of Resistance Judy Maloof, 2021-05-11 Latin American women were among those who led the suffrage movements of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and their opposition to military dictatorships has galvanized more recent political movements throughout the region But because of the continuous attempts to silence them activists have struggled to make their voices heard At the heart of Voices of Resistance are the testimonies of thirteen women who fought for human rights and social justice in their communities Some played significant roles in the Cuban Revolution of 1959 while others organized grassroots resistance to the seventeen year Pinochet dictatorship in Chile Though the women share many objectives they are a diverse group ranging in age from thirty to eighty and coming from varied ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds The Cuban and Chilean women Judy Maloof interviewed use the narrative form to reinvent themselves Maloof includes narratives from a poet a tobacco worker a political prisoner an artist and a social worker to demonstrate the different faces of their struggle In the process these women were able to begin to put together their fragmented lives Speaking out is both a means for personal liberation and a political act of protest against authoritarian regimes The bond that these women have is not simply that they have suffered they share a commitment to resisting violence and confronting inequities at great personal risk

Outlaw Christian Jacqueline A. Bussie, 2016-04-19 Winner of the 2017
