Robert R. Redfield

Screaming Kind Of Day:

A Screaming Kind of Day Rachna Gilmore,1999 Scully a young hearing impaired girl wants to play outside in the rain away from her brother Leo and her busy mother She loves to feel the sensation of the rain running over her face After escaping briefly to the wet green trees outside she is grounded and not allowed to leave the house for a day As evening approaches Scully and her mother are able to share a special moment together watching the stars Winner of the 1999 Governor General s Literary Award for Children s Literature Text This wonderful book is a carefully composed collection of moments during one of those days when parents experience exasperation Rachna Gilmore a talented author magically captures a child s overbrimming love of life and irrepressible spirit of mischief and rebellion This is not a book with a message rather it is a sweet story told in exquisite fashion A Screaming Kind of Day is an engaging singing in the rain book which children will love to read Jury Statement 1999 Governor General s Literary Awards Children s Literature Text A

Screaming Kind of Day Rachna Gilmore,2001-04-01 Scully loves to play outdoors in the rain but because she has been fighting with her brother all morning her mother has forbidden her to go outside Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna ,2015 Academic study of children s literature has explored various aspects of diversity however little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people Engaging and highly accessible this text will assist teachers teacher educators and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends theoretical frameworks and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children s literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K 12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination empathy and understanding of self and others Featuring author portraits comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children s books that depict characters with disabilities and read on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators Only Sleep is Merciful Brian Sutton,2016-08-11 For Veterans by a Veteran The writing of Only Sleep is Merciful was the best way I had to describe my service experiences though many of the poems and prose in this book

Home Words Mavis Reimer,2009-08-01 The essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children s literature which variously picture home as a dwelling family town or region psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children s and national literatures Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children's literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians. It builds on the literary histories, bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of Canadian children's literature.

Screaming at the Ump Audrey Vernick, 2014. Twelve-year-old Casey lives with his father and grandfather at their family-run umpire school and as he deals with middle school and his mother's unwelcome return, he stumbles on a sensational story that has him questioning his dream of becoming a journalist.
