Lentz,2006-01-30 Lee Marvin did not receive his first starring film role until he was 40 but in three short years following the successes of Cat Ballou for which he won the Academy Award as Best Actor The Professionals and especially The Dirty Dozen he was the most popular film actor in America Marvin was a fascinating man a loving husband and father and one of the most natural effective actors of his time This is a comprehensive reference of the Oscar winning actor s work It includes biographical information on Marvin an analysis of each of his 64 movies chapters on his two television shows M Squad and Lawbreaker a listing of his television appearances and a complete filmography which includes video availability The work is supplemented with dozens of photographs and film stills   Global Transformations David Held,1999 In this book the authors set forth a new model of globalization that lays claims to supersede existing models and then use this model to assess the way the processes of globalization have operated in different historic periods in respect to political organization military globalization trade finance corporate productivity migration culture and the environment Each of these topics is covered in a chapter which contrasts the contemporary nature of globalization with that of earlier epochs In mapping the shape and political consequences of globalization the authors concentrate on six states in advanced capitalist societies SIACS the United States the United Kingdom Sweden France Germany and Japan For comparative purposes other states particularly those with developing economics are referred to and discussed where relevant The book concludes by systematically describing and assessing contemporary globalization and appraising the implications of globalization for the sovereignty and autonomy of SIACS It also confronts directly the political fatalism that surrounds much discussion of globalization with a normative agenda that elaborates the possibilities for democratizing and civilizing the unfolding global transformation   Worlds in Common? Ulrike H. Meinhof,Kay Richardson,2005-08-31 Worlds in Common examines the newly emerging forms of language used in satellite television programmes exploring a wide range of genres including twenty four hour news broadcasting culture channels talk shows local TV and European news Focusing on the experiences of British and German viewers the authors discuss these new forms of communication brought about by the technological and economic upheavals in Europe in the late 1990s This interaction between media theories and media discourses makes the book highly relevant for researchers in media and cultural studies as well as linguistics and provides an important and innovatory link between these different approaches   How Hysterical E. Runions,2003-08-01 How Hysterical reads scenes from the films Light It Up Three Kings Remember the Titans Paris is Burning Boys Don t Cry and Magnolia alongside biblical texts from Numbers Exodus Isaiah

Micah Ezekiel and Revelation An innovation in studies on Bible and film How Hysterical is less centred on direct citation of the Bible in film than on analyses of hypostasized biblical influence in culture Here through accessible engagement with feminist queer post colonial and ideological critical theories Runions discusses the processes by which biblical and filmic texts can both bolster and disrupt identifications with the norms that drive politics and culture   Europe's Digital Revolution David Levy,2003-09-02 Europe s Digital Revolution assesses the impact of digital broadcasting on regulatory practices in Europe The current roles and responsibilities of nation states and the EU will have to respond to rapid technological and market developments Levy considers how these responsibilities are likely to be divided in the future and which are the emerging issues and problems   Screen Design Manual Frank Thissen,2003-09-11 The Screen Design Manual provides designers of interactive media with a practical working guide for preparing and presenting information that is suitable for both their target groups and the media they are using It highlights background information and relationships clarifying them with examples and encourages the further development of the language of digital media In addition to the basics of perception and learning psychology ergonomics communication theory imagery research and aesthetics the book also considers design navigation and orientation elements Guidelines and checklists along with the comprehensive design of the book support the transfer of information into practice Frank Thissen teaches multimedia didactics and information design at the University of Applied Sciences in Stuttgart For over 10 years he has been developing computer based training He has worked for international companies such as Siemens AG and SAP AG His research project explores the role of emotion in e learning www frank thissen de Key Topics Interactive media Text for the screen Effective use of pictures Video animation and sound Screen layout Orientation and navigation Interaction Emotions and metamessages Intercultural communication   Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2001   The Oxford Handbook of Management Information Systems Robert D Galliers,Wendy Currie,2011-07-28 This Handbook provides critical interdisciplinary contributions from leading international academics on the theory and methodology practical applications and broader context of Management Information Systems as well as offering potential avenues for future research   Encyclopedia of Information Science and Technology, Fourth Edition Khosrow-Pour, D.B.A., Mehdi,2017-06-20 In recent years our world has experienced a profound shift and progression in available computing and knowledge sharing innovations These emerging advancements have developed at a rapid pace disseminating into and affecting numerous aspects of contemporary society This has created a pivotal need for an innovative compendium encompassing the latest trends concepts and issues surrounding this relevant discipline area During the past 15 years the Encyclopedia of Information Science and Technology has become recognized as one of the landmark sources of the latest knowledge and discoveries in this discipline The Encyclopedia of Information Science and Technology Fourth Edition is a 10 volume set which includes 705 original and previously unpublished research articles covering a full range of perspectives applications and techniques contributed by thousands of experts and researchers from around the globe This authoritative encyclopedia is an all encompassing well established reference source that is ideally designed to disseminate the most forward thinking and diverse research findings With critical perspectives on the impact of information science management and new technologies in modern settings including but not limited to computer science education healthcare government engineering business and natural and physical sciences it is a pivotal and relevant source of knowledge that will benefit every professional within the field of information science and technology and is an invaluable addition to every academic and corporate library The Queer Coming of Age Film Genre Brad Windhauser,2024-10-15 In The Queer Coming of Age Film Genre Brad Windhauser argues for the existence of this genre and using a genre and queer theory lens investigates how the initial classic cluster of this genre s films represent the unique issues experienced by queer people including trans non binary and intersex individuals coming of age in society in the mid to late 90s As society evolved the book posits so too did the ways in which these films explored additional factors influencing the queer coming of age experience such as race and economic status in the genre s second stage Windhauser explores how this genre depicts the way queer people often engage with the coming of age process earlier than their cis het peers due to their queer identity but also how this process can extend beyond adolescence into emerging adulthood and adulthood itself Ultimately the book demonstrates how these films have become a tool to both further political goals of queer advocacy and acceptance and to offer guidance to queer people looking to gain a deeper understanding of their own lives and experiences Scholars of film studies genre studies pop culture and queer studies will find this book of particular interest American International Pictures Rob Craig,2019-02-15 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries Special attention is given to American International Television the TV arm of AIP and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog The author also discusses films produced by founders James H Nicholson and Samuel Z Arkoff after they left the company Uncoding the Digital D. Savat,2012-11-27 Digital media are having an enormous impact on the world From the seemingly mundane like playing World of Warcraft to posting a message on Twitter or Facebook to the operation of financial markets to transformations in science and the economy digital media continue to revolutionize how people live their daily life This book challenges how we understand our relationship with our digital machines and shows how they open up a new capacity for action in the world A capacity for action that we should no longer simply think of in terms of movement and force but also in terms of flow and viscosity A capacity for action that produces a politics of fluids and finds its expression not only in new forms of social control but also in a renewed ability for people to engage with the world and each other   Organizational and Social Perspectives on Information Technology Richard Baskerville,Jan Stage,Janice I. DeGross,2013-03-14 The articles in this book constitute the proceedings papers from the IFIP WG 8 2 Working Conference IS2000 The Social and Organizational Perspective on Research and Practice in Information Technology held June 1 0 12 2000 in Aalborg Denmark The focus of the conference and therefore this book is on the basic aim of the working group namely the investigation of the interrelationships among four major components information systems IS information technology IT organizations and society This basic social and organizational perspective on research and practice in information technology may have evolved substantially since the founding ofthe group for example increasing the emphasis on IS development The plan for the conference was partially rooted in the early WG 8 2 traditions in which working conferences were substantially composed of invited papers For IS2000 roughly half of the paper presentations were planned to be invited the remaining half were planned to be double blind refereed in response to a Call For Papers Invited papers were single blind reviewed in order to provide the authors with pre publication feedback and comments along with the opportunity to revise their papers prior to its final incorporation in this book   Screen World, 1997 ,1998   Environmental Integration Ton Bührs,2009-04-09 The environmental challenges facing humankind can most effectively be met through environmental integration incorporating environmental considerations into everyday human thinking behavior and practices at both the individual and collective levels Increasingly people and organizations throughout the world are taking the environment into account but at the same time there is insufficient integration of attitudes policies and programs People and groups have different and often conflicting views and interpretations of what is desirable or required to protect the environment Environmental Integration looks at the ways that governments can play a crucial role in advancing promoting and shaping a singular integrated environmental policy   Restructuring Industry and Territory Anna Giunta,Arnoud Lagendijk,Andy Pike,2016-02-04 Examining the current trends in regional economic development in Europe Restructuring Industry and Territory explores ways in which the restructuring of industry and territorial development relate to each other their emergent interdependency and role in economic development The book argues that the structural and cultural features of regions play an important part in helping or hindering concerted policies for regional development Using case studies from different industries in a variety of regions the contributors show that the pressures for restructuring such as internationalisation or even globalisation have been mediated by formerly nationally rooted industries in Europe becoming increasingly integrated due to the ongoing processes of technological and organisational innovation and political regulation   Korean War Filmography Robert J. Lentz,2016-05-01 The Korean experience changed the way Americans viewed war The lack of a clear cut victory inspired filmmakers to try to make sense of fighting another country s civil war and risking American lives for an unpopular cause This filmography details more than 90 English language films Each entry includes complete cast and credit listings a plot synopsis evaluation review snippets and notice of video availability This book places each film in its historical context assesses the essential truthfulness of each film and evaluates its entertainment value and discusses how and why Korean War films differ from other Hollywood war genres Four appendices list the films by chronology production company and studio level of historical accuracy and subject and theme Additional appendices list films with incidental references to the Korean War documentaries on the Korean War and South Korean films about the war Photographs a bibliography and an index are included
