Screening the Holocaust Ilan Avisar,1988-01-01 Screening the Holocaust Ilan Avisar,1988 Discusses the difficulties in dealing with the Holocaust artistically looks at a variety of Holocaust films including documentaries and assesses their effectiveness in handling the subject Film Study Frank Manchel,1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities American Jewish Year Book, 1996. ,1995 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current Screening the Past Tony Barta,1998-08-20 Film and television have been accepted as having a pervasive influence on how people understand the world An important aspect of this is the relationship of history and film The different views of the past created by film television and video are only now attracting closer attention from historians cultural critics and filmmakers This volume seeks to advance the critical exploration scholars have recently begun Barta begins by addressing the various ways the past is screened for our understanding and relates the art of film to other media The essays that follow deal primarily with the changing perspectives of political and social developments and changing concepts of ideology gender or culture in films and television programs made for historically shaped reasons Chapters by filmmakers explore issues of context and intent in their own projects Scholars and general readers interested in film and cultural studies will find this an important volume The History of Genocide in Cinema Jonathan Friedman,William Hewitt,2016-10-27 The organization Genocide Watch estimates that 100 million civilians around the globe have lost their lives as a result of genocide in only the past sixty years Over the same period the visual arts in the form of documentary footage has aided international efforts to document genocide and prosecute those responsible but this book argues that fictional representation occupies an equally important and problematic place in the process of shaping minds on the subject Edited by two of the leading experts in the field The History of Genocide in Cinema analyzes fictional and semi fictional portrayals of genocide focusing on amongst others the repression of indigenous populations in Australia the genocide of Native Americans in the 19th century the Herero genocide Armenia the Holodomor Stalin s policy of starvation in Ukraine the Nazi Holocaust Nanking and Darfur Comprehensive and unique in its focus on fiction films as opposed to documentaries The History of Genocide in Cinema is an essential resource for students and researchers in the fields of cultural history holocaust studies and the history of film Screening Auschwitz Marek Haltof,2018-01-15 Winner of The 2019 Wacław Lednicki Humanities Award Screening Auschwitz examines the classic Polish Holocaust film The Last Stage Ostatni etap directed by the Auschwitz survivor Wanda Jakubowska 1907 1998 Released in 1948 The Last Stage was a pioneering work and the first narrative film to portray the Nazi concentration and extermination camp complex of Auschwitz Birkenau Marek

Haltof's fascinating book offers English speaking readers a wealth of new materials mostly from original Polish sources obtained through extensive archival research. With its powerful dramatization of the camp experience, The Last Stage established several quasi-documentary themes easily discernible in later film narratives of the Shoah: dark realistic images of the camp, a passionate moral appeal and clear divisions between victims and perpetrators. Jakubowska's film introduced images that are now archetypal: for example morning and evening roll calls on the Appelplatz, the arrival of transport trains at Birkenau, the separation of families upon arrival and tracking shots over the belongings left behind by those who were gassed. These and other images are taken up by a number of subsequent American films including George Stevens's The Diary of Anne Frank (1959), Alan Pakula's Sophie's Choice (1982) and Steven Spielberg's Schindler's List (1993). Haltof discusses the unusual circumstances that surrounded the film's production on location at Auschwitz-Birkenau and summarizes critical debates surrounding the film's release. The book offers much of interest to film historians and readers interested in the Holocaust.

The United States and Germany in the Era of the Cold War, 1945-1990 Detlef Junker, Philipp Gassert, Wilfried Mausbach, David B. Morris, 2004-05-17 Publisher Description

Movie-Made Jews Helene Meyers, 2021-09-17 Movie Made Jews focuses on a rich usable American Jewish cinematic tradition. This tradition includes fiction and documentary films that make Jews through antisemitism, Holocaust indirection and discontent with assimilation. It prominently features the unapologetic assertion of Jewishness, queerness and alliances across race and religion. Author Helene Meyers shows that as we go to our local theater, attend a Jewish film festival, play a DVD, watch streaming videos, Jewishness becomes part of the multicultural mosaic rather than collapsing into a generic whiteness or being represented as a life apart. This engagingly written book demonstrates that a Jewish movie is neither just a movie nor for Jews only. With incisive analysis, Movie Made Jews challenges the assumption that American Jewish cinema is a cinema of impoverishment and assimilation. While it's a truism that Jews make movies, this book brings into focus the diverse ways movies make Jews.

Polish Cinema Marek Haltof, 2018-10-19 First published in 2002, Marek Haltof's seminal volume was the first comprehensive English language study of Polish cinema, providing a much needed survey of one of Europe's most distinguished yet unjustly neglected film cultures. Since then seismic changes have reshaped Polish society, European politics and the global film industry. This thoroughly revised and updated edition takes stock of these dramatic shifts to provide an essential account of Polish cinema from the nineteenth century to today, covering such renowned figures as Kieślowski, Skolimowski and Wajda, along with vastly expanded coverage of documentaries, animation and television, all set against the backdrop of an ever more transnational film culture.

Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Olteanu, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European, North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post-traumatic memory in the contemporary United States. The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg's multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark

Site of Amnesia: The Lost Historical Consciousness of Mizrahi Jewry Yvonne Kozlovsky Golan, 2019-03-25 This study deepens our historical understanding of the North African Jewish and Middle Eastern Jewish experience during WWII which is often under or mis represented by the media in Israel the Arab world France and Italy Public historical and sociocultural discourse is examined to clarify whether these communities are accepted by the world as Holocaust survivors Further it determines the extent to which their wartime history is revealed to Israeli society in its cultural performances Importantly this work addresses the reasons why the Holocaust of North African Jewry is absent from Israeli and world consciousness Finally the study contemplates the consequences of these phenomena for Israeli society as well as in the colonial countries of France and Italy In addition to using academic resources Golan captures this history from the margins by utilizing audio visual and artistic media in addition to evidence recorded on community heritage websites Facebook and other online social networks Golan's book demonstrates that there is a moral imperative to preserve and transmit these memories of persecution and discrimination David B Levy Touro College NYC Association of Jewish Libraries News and Reviews 1 2 2019

The war that won't die David Archibald, 2021-06-15 The war that won't die charts the changing nature of cinematic depictions of the Spanish Civil War In 1936 a significant number of artists filmmakers and writers from George Orwell and Pablo Picasso to Joris Ivens and Joan Mir rallied to support the country's democratically elected Republican government The arts have played an important role in shaping popular understandings of the Spanish Civil War and this book examines the specific role cinema has played in this process The book's focus is on fictional feature films produced within Spain and beyond its borders between the 1940s and the early years of the twenty first century including Hollywood blockbusters East European films the work of the avant garde in Paris and films produced under Franco's censorial dictatorship The book will appeal to scholars and students of Film Media and Hispanic Studies but also to historians and indeed anyone interested in why the Spanish Civil War remains such a contested political topic

The American Jewish Story through Cinema Eric A. Goldman, 2013-04-01 A superb thought provoking analysis tracing the metamorphosis of the image of the Jew as portrayed through 80 years of American cinema Library Journal Like the haggadah the traditional story of the Israelites exodus from Egypt read at the Passover seder cinema offers a valuable text from which to gain an understanding of the social political and cultural realities of Jews in America In an industry strongly influenced by Jewish filmmakers the complex evolving nature of the American Jewish condition has had considerable impact on American cinema and in particular on how Jews are reflected on the screen This groundbreaking study analyzes select mainstream films from the beginning of the sound era to today to provide an understanding of the American Jewish experience over the last century from the time when Hollywood's movie moguls most of whom were Jewish shied away from asserting a Jewish image on the screen to a period when Jewish moviemakers became more comfortable with the concept of a Jewish hero and with an overpowered yet heroic Israel and the way that the Holocaust assumed center stage as the single event with the greatest effect on American Jewish identity Recently as American Jewish screenwriters directors and producers have become increasingly comfortable with their heritage we are seeing an unprecedented number of movies that spotlight Jewish protagonists experiences and challenges This is a wonderful book for any lover of American films Hadassah Magazine

Concentrationary Cinema Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2012-01-01 Since its completion in 1955 Alain Resnais's Night and Fog Nuit et Brouillard has been considered one of the most important films to confront the catastrophe and atrocities of the Nazi era But was it a film about the Holocaust that failed to recognize the racist genocide Or was the film not about the Holocaust as we know it today but a political and aesthetic response to what David Rousset the French political prisoner from Buchenwald identified on his return in 1945 as the concentrationary universe which now actualized might release its totalitarian plague any time and anywhere What kind of memory does the film create to warn us of the continued presence of this concentrationary universe This international collection re-examines Resnais's benchmark film in terms of both its political and historical context of representation of the camps and of other instances of the concentrationary in contemporary cinema Through a range of critical readings Concentrationary Cinema explores the cinematic aesthetics of political resistance not to the Holocaust as such but to the political novelty of absolute power represented by the concentrationary system and its assault on the human condition

The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Studies Martin Goodman, Jeremy Cohen, David Sorkin, 2002 This volume on Jewish studies presents surveys of today's interests and directions in the humanities and social sciences It covers the main areas taught and researched as part of Jewish studies in universities throughout the world especially in Europe the US and Israel

Performing the Past Karin Tilmans, Frank van Vree, J. M. Winter, 2010 Karin Tilmans is an historian and academic coordinator of the Max Weber Programme at the European University Institute Florence Frank van Vree is an historian and professor of journalism at the University of Amsterdam Jay M Winter is the Charles J Stille Professor of History at Yale

History on Film/Film on History Robert A. Rosenstone, 2023-11-30 History on Film Film on History has established itself as a classic treatise on the historical film and its role in bringing the past to life In the fourth edition of this widely acclaimed text Robert A Rosenstone argues that to leave history films out of the discussion of the meaning of the past is to ignore a major means of understanding historical events. This book examines what history films convey about the past and how they convey it, demonstrating the need to learn how to read and understand this new visual world and integrating detailed analysis of films such as Schindler's List, Glory, October, and Reds. Advocating for the dramatic feature as a legitimate way of doing history, this edition includes a new Preface and a new chapter that focuses on films produced in Latin America, Africa, the Middle East, India, and East Asia. Examining the codes and conventions of how these films tell us about the past and providing guidance on how to effectively analyse films as historical interpretations, this book is an essential introduction to the field for students of history and film.

Contemporary French cinema Guy Austin, 2021-06-15 Contemporary French cinema is an essential introduction to popular French film of the last 35 years. It charts recent developments in all genres of French cinema with analyses of over 120 movies from Les Valseuses to Caché. Reflecting the diversity of French film production since the New Wave, this clear and perceptive study includes chapters on the heritage film, the thriller, and the war movie, alongside the cinéma du look, representations of sexuality, comedies, the work of women film makers, and le jeune cinéma. Each chapter introduces the public reception and critical debates surrounding a given genre, interwoven with detailed accounts of relevant films. Confirmed as a major contribution to both Film Studies and French Studies, this book is a fascinating volume for students and fans of French film alike.
