Screening a Lynching Matthew Bernstein, 2009 The Leo Frank case of 1913 was one of the most sensational trials of the early twentieth century capturing international attention Frank a northern Jewish factory supervisor in Atlanta was convicted for the murder of Mary Phagan a young laborer native to the South largely on the perjured testimony of an African American janitor The trial was both a murder mystery and a courtroom drama marked by lurid sexual speculation and overt racism The subsequent lynching of Frank in 1915 by an angry mob only made the story more irresistible to historians playwrights novelists musicians and filmmakers for decades to come Matthew H Bernstein is the first scholar to examine the feature films and television programs produced in response to the trial and lynching of Leo Frank He considers the four major surviving American texts Oscar Micheaux's film Murder in Harlem 1936 Mervyn LeRoy's film They Won't Forget 1937 the Profiles in Courage television episode John M Slaton 1964 and the two part NBC miniseries The Murder of Mary Phagan 1988 Bernstein explains that complex issues like racism anti-Semitism class resentment and sectionalism were at once irresistibly compelling and painfully difficult to portray in the mass media Exploring the cultural and industrial contexts in which the works were produced Bernstein considers how they succeeded or failed in representing the case's many facets Film and television shows can provide worthy interpretations of history Bernstein argues even when they depart from the historical record Screening a Lynching is an engrossing meditation on how film and television represented a traumatic and tragic episode in American history one that continues to fascinate people to this day

Screen Stories Carl R. Plantinga, 2018 The way we communicate with each other is vital to preserving the cultural ecology or wellbeing of a place and time Do we listen to each other Do we ask the right questions Do we speak about each other with respect or disdain The stories that we convey on screens or what author Carl Plantinga calls screen stories are one powerful and pervasive means by which we communicate with each other Screen Stories Emotion and the Ethics of Engagement argues that film and media studies needs to move toward an approach to ethics that is more appropriate for mass consumer culture and the lives of its citizens Primarily concerned with the relationship between media and viewers this book considers ethical criticism and the emotional power of screen stories that makes such criticism necessary The content we consume from television shows and movies to advertisements can significantly affect our welfare on a personal and societal level and thus this content is subject to praise and celebration or questioning and even condemnation The types of screen stories that circulate contribute to the cultural ecology of a time and place through shared attention they influence what individuals think and feel Plantinga develops a theory of the power of screen stories to affect both individuals and cultures asserting that we can better respond ethically to such media if we understand the sources of its influence on us The Film Experience Timothy Corrigan, Patricia White, 2012-01-03 A comprehensive introduction to film that recognizes students as movie fans and helps them understand the art form s full scope The authors situate their strong coverage of the medium s formal elements within the larger cultural contexts that inform the ways we watch film from economics and exhibition to marketing and the star system Blackwells Freedom and Entertainment Stephen Vaughn, 2006 This is a story that Jack Valenti has long tried to keep secret Freedom and Entertainment is the first book to offer a behind the scenes account of the motion picture rating system and the Motion Picture Association of America under Valenti s leadership The book is based on the private papers and oral history of Richard D Heffner who headed the Classification and Rating Administration for two decades from 1974 to 1994 and who was once called the least known most powerful person in Hollywood The story chronicles the often tense working relationship between Heffner and Valenti and the sometimes bruising encounters Heffner had with such Hollywood heavyweights as Clint Eastwood Oliver Stone Michael Douglas George C Scott Lew Wasserman Arthur Krim Jerry Weintraub and many others I Will Repay Dennis Oh, 2018-02-15 How can Christianity continue to rejoice over a redemption that came at the cost of the violent suffering and death of Jesus Christ In the wake of increasing revulsion toward oppression and abuse both historic and contemporary traditionally Protestant and evangelical theology is in the precarious position of defending one of its cardinal doctrines amidst a host of compelling critiques and alternatives In I Will Repay Dennis Oh explores how soteriology rooted in Scripture and resonant with tradition can also be conversant with the cinematic experience offered by popular films It proposes a narrative reenvisioning of the mechanism of atonement that both supports and extends traditional theological categories and vocabularies while retaining the cross centered conviction of an evangelical gospel Advanced Practice Nursing of Adults in Acute Care Janet G Foster, Suzanne E Prevost, 2012-05-31 Written by a Clinical Nurse Specialist for Clinical Nurse Specialists this text explores the expanding roles and responsibilities of the CNS from core competencies and theoretical foundations for practice to caring for the hospitalized adult to shaping the healthcare system through the CNS s spheres of influence Essay and General Literature Index Minnie Earl Sears, Marian Shaw, Dorothy Herbert West, 2000 Includes List of books indexed published also separately Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing: An Interpersonal Approach with Navigate Advantage Access Dr. Jeffrey S Jones, Dr. Audrey M.
