Best Short Stories by Robert Louis Stevenson Robert Louis Stevenson, 2019-01-14 Robert Louis Stevenson has an important place in the history of the short story in the British Isles; the form had been elaborated and developed in America, France, and Russia from the mid-19th century, but it was Stevenson who initiated the British tradition. Stevenson's Calvinist creation and his constant struggle against ill health led to his preoccupation with death and the darker side of human nature as revealed in his work. Despite Stevenson's claim that fiction is to adult man what the toy represents to the child, he had at the end of his life mastered a huge variety of types of fiction, from tales of historical adventures and novels of swordsmen to horror stories.
