Violence Elsewhere 2 Dr Clare Bielby, Professor Mererid Puw Davies, 2024-11-12 Examines ideas of violence in German culture after 9 11 through the lens of violence elsewhere exploring works and discourses about violence in distant locations or times Following the Nazi era the Holocaust and the Second World War in postwar Germany thinking or speaking about that extreme violence seemed distinctively difficult even perhaps at times impossible Yet we can learn about understandings of violence in this period in novel ways by exploring images and constructions in German culture of faraway violence as shown in the recent volume Violence Elsewhere 1 Imagining Distant Violence in Germany 1945 2001 As of September 11 2001 violence came to appear transnationally spectacularly mobile in new ways Consequently Violence Elsewhere 2 explores ideas about violence elsewhere in German language culture since 2001 Here elsewhere can mean not only distant places it may also be violence perceived as foreign or in the past Simultaneously this work suggests that the idea of 9 11 as a watershed in thinking about violence is more complex than meets the eye Here nine essays consider classic literary forms like poetry and prose fiction from the short story to the intergenerational German family novel to Black feminist speculative fiction Contributors examine too philosophy performance and multimedia art political and other forms of public discourse and film Topics include amongst others the war on terror slow environmental violence the Armenian genocide portrayals of refugees and migrants legacies of colonial violence space travel and the persistent resonance of the German past Contributors Sof a Forchieri Susanne C Knittel Marie Kolkenbrock Priscilla Layne Joanne Leal Francesca Lewis Frauke Matthes Lizzie Stewart Nicola Thomas and
