Shots In The Mirror:

Shots in the Mirror Nicole Hahn Rafter, 2006 Criminologist Nicole Rafter analyses the source of the appeal of crime films and their role in popular culture She argues that crime films both reflect and shape our ideas about fundamental social economic and political issues Arthouse Crime Scenes Geoff King, 2024-11-14 Arthouse Crime Scenes is the first book to address the relationship between art cinema and crime contributing to the study of both categories Case studies are provided of works by celebrated filmmakers including Lucretia Martell Kleber Mendonça Filho Bong Joon Ho Nuri Bilge Ceylan Hirokazu Koreeda Jia Zhangke Andrey Zvyagintsev and Lee Chang-dong How is crime represented in art cinema And how can this be understood in the context of global sociopolitical and film industrial trends Arthouse crime scenes draw on variable combinations of elements associated with art cinema and crime genres Crime might be shown or lurk only at the edges It might be left unresolved or unexplained Crime can be petty and small scale or raise big questions associated with the arthouse sector political issues the nature of humanity truth and knowability In this book close textual analysis is combined with focus on social and industrial contexts A recurring theme is the situation of arthouse crime films within differing manifestations of broader processes of late modern neoliberal globalization and cultural hybridity Approaches examined range from the oblique to social realism and other mixtures of crime and arthouse tendencies Movies and Methods Bill Nichols, 1976 VOLUME 2 Movies and Methods Volume II captures the developments that have given history and genre studies imaginative new models and indicates how feminist structuralist and psychoanalytic approaches to film have achieved fresh valuable insights In his thoughtful introduction Nichols provides a context for the paradoxes that confront film studies today He shows how shared methods and approaches continue to stimulate much of the best writing about film points to common problems most critics and theorists have tried to resolve and describes the internal contradictions that have restricted the usefulness of post structuralism Mini introductions place each essay in a larger context and suggest its linkages with other essays in the volume A great variety of approaches and methods characterize film writing today and the final part conveys their diversity from statistical style analysis to phenomenology and from gay criticisms to neoformalism This concluding part also shows how the rigorous use of a broad range of approaches has helped remove post structuralist criticism from its position of dominance through most of the seventies and early eighties Publisher description Laser Induced Damage in Optical Materials, 1981, 1983 Laser Induced Damage in Optical Materials, 1994 Laser Induced Damage in Optical Materials, 1985, 1988 Nicole Rafter Chase Burton, 2021-10-28 This book is a critical summary and exegesis of the work of Nicole Rafter who was a leading scholar of the history of biological theories of crime causation as well as a profound theorist of the role of history within criminology It introduces Rafter's key works and assesses her contributions to the fields of feminist criminology cultural criminology visual criminology and historical criminology It also explores her theorization of criminology's identity scientific status and possible futures While many books on criminological theory explain and historically contextualize theory they do not interrogate the production of theory or the epistemological assumptions behind it Drawing on the work of Nicole Rafter this book offers an accessible handbook to her extensive historical studies and to how her work demonstrated the importance of historical theory to criminological knowledge Furthermore the author brings Rafter s historical research to life and shows how it speaks to contemporary issues in criminology and punishment Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminological theory intellectual history sociology comparative criminology and feminist criminology Laser Induced Damage In Optical Materials: 1981 Harold E.
