The Saluda River Sighting G. D.

Parham, 2011-06 I call out James where are you A sudden look of terror moves across Ina's face She drops the broom on the floor and shouts Then she goes out the front door screaming for him I pause for a moment trying to think of something to say I can't find him He is not at Joni's house Joni is waiting on me to fetch her We cannot leave her alone in that old house They might kill her too I should never have said kill They thought the creatures were harmless But when twelve year old James is taken by the huge hairy unknown creatures Jack enlists Jim a tracker to help free his son from the beasts As the men track James through the cold snow covered forest they come to realize something wonderful is taking place within the creatures clan It s hard to believe however and Jim insists on further exploration Is James really teaching the creatures how to be like humans Using words and building fire Is he really safe or is it just a terrible ploy The Saluda River Sighting is a suspenseful fantastical story that poses questions about humanity and shows what a father will do to get back his son Saboteurs on the River Mildred A. Wirt, 2023-10-05

Liz and Mike Wickins book Whispers from the Depths The Kariba Story is more than just the story of the building of the Kariba Dam in the mid 1950s Built in just five years against overwhelming odds the dam is a monument to engineering excellence Shrouded in political undertones the construction of the dam was vital for the hydroelectric power it would provide for Zambia s burgeoning copper industry Little thought however appears to have been given to the future of the human and animal populations who lived in the valley that would be inundated when the dam was completed The question has to be asked Was this awe inspiring man made creation achieved at too high a cost in terms of the human suffering and environmental devastation it caused Central to the story of Kariba was the fate of the Tonga people who had for centuries lived in the Gwembe Valley due to be flooded when the sluice gates were finally closed to halt the flow of the mighty Zambezi River Approximately 57 000 people were forced to move from their ancestral homes abandoning family graves and spiritual sites to the depths of Kariba s water They became a dispersed people who have never been able to reunite as a cohesive society never again been able to live peacefully on the banks of the river which gave them life Animals too perished in their thousands despite the gallant efforts of wildlife personnel who mounted a hastily planned rescue mission known as Operation Noah Whispers from the Depths gives a voice to the all but forgotten BaTonga It celebrates their unique culture but deplores the price they paid for progress a price from which they themselves derived no benefit whatsoever Cinematography of Carl Theodor Dreyer Paul

Matthew St. Pierre, 2018-11-19

Legendary Danish filmmaker Carl Theodor Dreyer 3 February 1889 20 March 1968 was born in Copenhagen to a single mother Josefine Bernhardine Nilsson a Swede His Danish father Jens Christian Torp a married farmer employed Nilsson as a housekeeper After spending his first two years in orphanages Dreyer was adopted by Carl Theodor Dreyer a typographer and his wife Inger Marie Dreyer He was given his adoptive father's name At age 16 he renounced his adoptive parents and worked his way into the film industry as a journalist title card writer screenwriter and director Throughout his career he concealed his birth name and the details of his upbringing and his adult private life which included a period in which he explored his homosexual orientation and endured a nervous breakdown Despite his relatively small output of fourteen feature films and seven documentary short films 1919-64 he is considered one of the greatest filmmakers in history because of the diversity of his subjects themes techniques and styles and the originality of the bold visual grammar he mastered

In Cinematography of Carl Theodor Dreyer: Performative Camerawork Transgressing the Frame I argue 1 that Dreyer an anonymous orphan an unsourced subject manufactured his individuality through filmmaking self-identifying by shrouding himself in the skin of film and 2 that as a screenwriter-director who blocked entire feature films in his imagination in advance sets lighting photography shot breakdowns editing and imposed his vision on camera operators lighting directors actors and crews in production he saw filmmaking essentially as camerawork and he directed in the style of a performative cinematographer
