Show And Tell Identity As Performance In U S Latino A Fiction

Phillip Swanson

Show And Tell Identity As Performance In U S Latino A Fiction:

Show and Tell Karen Christian,1997 What elements are present for a body of writing to be considered Latina o Through the analysis of nine recent Latina o novels Karen Christian melds the theory of performativity with the latest scholarship on ethnicity and ethnic literature to create a framework for viewing identity as a continuous process that cannot be reduced to static categories

Chicana/o and Latina/o Fiction Ylce Irizarry,2016-02-15 In this new study Ylce Irizarry moves beyond literature that prioritizes assimilation to examine how contemporary fiction depicts being Cuban Dominican Mexican or Puerto Rican within Chicana o and Latina o America Irizarry establishes four dominant categories of narrative loss reclamation fracture and new memory that address immigration gender and sexuality cultural nationalisms and neocolonialism As she shows narrative concerns have moved away from the weathered notions of arrival and assimilation Contemporary Chicana o and Latina o literatures instead tell stories that have little if anything to do with integration into the Anglo American world The result is the creation of new memory This reformulation of cultural membership unmasks the neocolonial story and charts the conscious engagement of cultural memory It outlines the ways contemporary Chicana o and Latina o communities create belonging and memory of their ethnic origins An engaging contribution to an important literary tradition Chicana o and Latina o Fiction privileges the stories Chicanas os and Latinas os remember about themselves rather than the stories of those subjugating them NACCS Book Award National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies 2018 MLA Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies Modern Language Association 2017

Postethnic Narrative Criticism Frederick Luis Aldama,2009-09-15 Magical realism has become almost synonymous with Latin American fiction but this way of representing the layered and often contradictory reality of the topsy turvy late capitalist globalizing world finds equally vivid expression in U S multiethnic and British postcolonial literature and film Writers and filmmakers such as Oscar Zeta Acosta Ana Castillo Julie Dash Hanif Kureishi and Salman Rushdie have made brilliant use of magical realism to articulate the trauma of dislocation and the legacies of colonialism that people of color experience in the postcolonial multiethnic world This book seeks to redeem and refine the theory of magical realism in U S multiethnic and British postcolonial literature and film Frederick Aldama engages in theoretically sophisticated readings of Ana Castillo's So Far from God Oscar Zeta Acosta's Autobiography of a Brown Buffalo Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children Shame The Satanic Verses and The Moor's Last Sigh Julie Dash's Daughters of the Dust and Stephen Frears and Hanif Kureishi's Sammy and Rosie Get Laid Coining the term magicorealism to characterize these works Aldama not only creates a postethnic critical methodology for enlarging the contact zone between the genres of novel film and autobiography but also shatters the interpretive lens that traditionally confuses the transcription of the real world where truth and falsity apply with narrative modes governed by other criteria Naming the Father Eva Paulino Bueno, Terry Caesar, William Hummel, 2000-01-01 Naming the Father is a collection of essays on the subject of fatherhood its enduring power its secret ruses its unsettling provocations Despite the considerable critical attention devoted to motherhood in literature and despite the late twentieth century focus on patriarchy there is surprisingly no comparable collection on fatherhood This volume was born of the conclusion that critics of modern and contemporary literature may comprehend the father too little for presuming to have comprehended patriarchy so much Naming the Father begins with a series of nonfiction essays that attempts to locate the missing father in the individual experiences of three scholars at various stages of their careers The following thematically grouped sections recover and discuss fatherhood in fields ranging from Caribbean fiction to African American drama and in the work of authors as diverse as Rebecca West Anzia Yezierska William Burroughs and Stephen Wright as well as Henry James and James Joyce A variety of critical approaches from biographical to deconstructive activate and engage with the cultural national and global implications of fatherhood for the family and for the future of literary studies Scholars and students of contemporary literature cultural studies and gender studies will find this book a fascinating and invaluable collection Double crossings Mario Martín Flores, Carlos Von Son, 2001 New Strangers in Paradise Gilbert H.

Muller, 2014-07-11 New Strangers in Paradise offers the first in depth account of the ways in which contemporary American fiction has been shaped by the successive generations of immigrants to reach U S shores Gilbert Muller reveals how the intersections of peoples regions and competing cultural histories have remade the American cultural landscape in the aftermath of World War II Muller focuses on the literature of Holocaust survivors Chicanos Latinos African Caribbeans and Asian Americans In the quest for a new identity each of these groups seeks the American dream and rewrites the story of what it means to be an American New Strangers in Paradise explores the psychology of uprooted peoples and the relations of culture and power addressing issues of race and ethnicity multiculturalism and pluralism and national and international conflicts Examining the groups of immigrants in the cultural and historical context both of America and of the lands from which they originated Muller argues that this fourth wave of immigration has led to a creative flowering in modern fiction The book offers a fresh perspective on the writings of Vladimir Nabokov Saul Bellow William Styron Maxine Hong Kingston

Amy Tan Oscar Hijuelos Jamaica Kincaid Bharati Mukherjee Rudolfo Anaya and many others Latina/o Communication Studies Bernadette Marie Calafell, 2007 This is the first book within the field of communication studies to map the terrain of Latina o performance Using rhetorical criticism and performance ethnography the book examines performance from a variety of perspectives from identity and community in everyday life to how it intersects with popular culture Discussions from Ricky Martin to Chicana feminist pilgrimages to issues of diaspora contribute to the book s argument that the relationship between rhetorical scholarship and emerging performance work has largely been ignored Latina o Communication Studies aims to challenge this split by creating a more complex and less Eurocentric understanding of rhetoric This rich and informative book contributes to a more nuanced understanding of race and ethnicity and attests to the importance of Latina o studies in the field of communication Gay Latino Studies Michael Hames-García, Ernesto Javier Martínez, 2011-04-13 A collection of essays that explores the lives and cultural contributions of gay Latino men in the United States and analyzes the political and theoretical stakes of gay Latino studies
