Islamic Philosophy and Occidental Phenomenology on the Perennial Issue of Microcosm and Macrocosm

Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-09-22 By proposing the Microcosm and Macrocosm analogy for dialogue between Islamic Philosophy and Occidental Phenomenology the authors of this volume are reviving the perennial positioning of the human condition in the play of forces within and without the human being This theme has run from Plato through the Middle Ages Renaissance and Modernity and has been ignored by contemporaries It now acquires a new pertinence and striking significance due to the scientific discoveries into the infinitely small in life on the one hand and the prodigious technological discoveries of the infinitely great on the other Both open up undreamt of prospects for the continuing conquest of cosmic forces The human person thrown into turmoil by the new approaches to life and needing to acquire new habits of mind having lost security of all beliefs desperately seeks a new clarification of the Human Condition within the unity of everything there is of cosmic forces and of his destiny The dialogue between Islamic Philosophy and phenomenology of life can show the way Papers by Gholam Reza A awani Mehdi Aminrazavi Roza Davari Ardakani Mohammad Azadpur Gary Backhaus Marina Banchetti Robino William Chittick Seyed Mostafa Muhaghghegh Damad Golamhossein Ebrahimi Dinani Nader El Bizri Kathleen Haney Salahaddin Khalilov Sayyid Mohammad Khamenei Mahmoud Khatami Mieczyslaw Pawel Migon Nikolay Milkov Sachiko Murata Anna Teresa Tymieniecka Daniela Verducci

The Islamic Context of The Thousand and One Nights Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2009-05-22 In this fascinating study Muhsin J al Musawi shows how deeply Islamic heritage and culture is embedded in the tales of The Thousand and One Nights known to many as the Arabian Nights and how this integration invites readers to make an Islamic milieu Conservative Islam dismisses The Thousand and One Nights as facile popular literature and liberal views disregard the rich Islamic context of the text Approaching the text with a fresh and unbiased eye al Musawi reads the tales against Islamic schools of thought and theology and recovers persuasive historical evidence to reveal the cultural and religious struggle over Islam that drives the book's narrative tension and binds its seemingly fragmented stories Written by a number of authors over a stretch of centuries The Thousand and One Nights depicts a burgeoning urban Islamic culture in all its variety and complexity As al Musawi demonstrates the tales document their own places and periods of production reflecting the Islamic individual's growing exposure to a number of entertainments and temptations and their conflict with the obligations of faith Aimed at a diverse audience these stories follow a narrative arc that begins with corruption and ends with redemption conforming to a paradigm that concurs with the sociological and religious concerns of Islam and the Islamic state By emphasizing Islam in his analysis of these entertaining and instructional tales al Musawi not only illuminates the work's consistent equation between art and life but he also sheds light on its underlying narrative power His study offers a brilliant portrait of medieval Islam as well especially its social political and economic institutions and its unique practices of storytelling
