proportioned photographs Andreas Gursky is one of very few contemporary artists able to represent cultures of excessive information which he does through images of supermarket wares crowds trash architecture and nature The extreme detail of Gursky s final image achieved by digital restructuring produces a vertiginous effect on the viewer as it oscillates between total representation and total abstraction It could be said that Gursky updates the eighteenth century sublime for our times This publication surveys the artist s most recent creations on display at the renowned Kunstmuseum Basel throughout the
