Sierra Club Wetlands Reader:

The Sierra Club Wetlands Reader Sam Wilson, Tom Moritz, 1996 The Sierra Club Wetlands Reader is the second volume in the Sierra Club's new series of literary celebrations of the Earth's biomes the major ecological communities that have shaped the collective human experience From the Everglades to Alaska North America's wetlands comprise irreplaceable habitats for innumerable plants and animals In addition to being a subtle indicator of the health of the entire natural world this delicate ecosystem has inspired an extraordinary amount of fine writing Included in this remarkable collection are works by influential writers and scientists such as John Wesley Powell Jack London Aldo Leopold Frederick Law Olmsted Harriet Beecher Stowe and Edward Ricketts From William Bartram's Revolutionary War era meditation on the wetlands of Florida to Mark Twain's commentary on the flooding of the Mississippi River we encounter varied portraits of these fertile ecosystems In addition to celebrating this ecological community we are reminded of the importance of preservation as the wetlands are a crucial link in maintaining the stability of a global environment Textures of Place Paul C. Adams, Steven D.

Hoelscher, Karen E. Till, 2001 Annotation A fresh and far ranging interpretation of the concept of place this volume begins with a fundamental tension of our day as communications technologies help create a truly global economy the very political economic processes that would seem to homogenize place actually increase the importance of individual localities which are exposed to global flows of investment population goods and pollution Place no less today than in the past is fundamental to how the world works The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations Their essays draw from a wide array of methodologies and perspectives including feminism ethnography poststructuralism ecocriticism and landscape ichnography to examine themes as diverse as morality and imagination attention and absence personal and group identity social structure home nature and cosmos
