Victorian Poetry and Modern Life Natasha Moore, 2015-12-26 Faced with the chaos and banality of modern everyday life a number of Victorian poets sought innovative ways of writing about the unpoetic present in their verse Their varied efforts are recognisably akin not least in their development of mixed verse forms that fused novel and epic to create something equal to the miscellaneousness of the age

Novels, Readers, and Reviewers Nina Baym, 1984 This book describes and characterizes responses of American readers to fiction in the generation before the Civil War It is based on close examination of the reviews of all novels both American and European that appeared in major American periodicals during the years 1840-1860 a period in which magazines novels and novel reviews all proliferated Nina Baym makes use of the reviews to gain information about the formal aesthetic and moral expectations of reviewers Her major conclusion is that the accepted view about the American novel before the Civil War the view that the atmosphere in America was hostile to fiction is a myth There is compelling evidence she shows for the existence of a veritable novel industry and concomitantly a vast audience for fiction in the 1840s and 1850s

Where the New World Is Martyn Bone,2018-01-15 Where the New World Is assesses how fiction published since 1980 has resituated the U S South globally and how earlier twentieth century writing already had done so in ways traditional southern literary studies tended to ignore Martyn Bone argues that this body of fiction has over the course of some eighty years challenged received readings and understandings of the U S South as a fixed place largely untouched by immigration or even internal migration and economic globalization The writers discussed by Bone emphasize how migration and labor have reconfigured the region s relation to the nation and a range of transnational scales hemispheric Jamaica the Bahamas Haiti transatlantic Black Atlantic Denmark England Mauritania and transpacific global southern Australia China Vietnam Writers under consideration include Zora Neale Hurston Nella Larsen John Oliver Killens Russell Banks Erna Brodber Cynthia Shearer Ha Jin Monique Truong Lan Cao Toni Morrison Peter Matthiessen Dave Eggers and Laila Lalami The book also seeks to resituate southern studies by drawing on theories of scale that originated in human geography In this way Bone also offers a new paradigm in which the U S South is thoroughly engaged with a range of other scales from the local to the global making both literature about the region and southern studies itself truly transnational in scope
