Cooper Cohen, 1981-09-01 "The Artist-Operas of Pfitzner, Krenek and Hindemith " Claire Taylor-Jay, 2017-07-05 This is the first book length study of the genre of artist opera in which the work's central character is an artist who is uncomfortable with his place in the world It investigates how three such operas Pfitzner's Palestrina 1915 Krenek's Jonny spielt auf 1926 and Hindemith's Mathis der Maler 1935 contributed to the debate in early twentieth century Germany about the place of art and the artist in modern society and examines how far the artist character may be taken as functioning as a persona for the real composer of the work Because of their concern with the place of art within society the works are also engaged with inherently political questions and each opera is read in the light of the political context of its time conservatism circa World War I Americanism and democracy and the rise of National Socialism Repeat Performance Sharleen Cooper Cohen, 2003-09-02 Once Regina had no one nothing Overnight her star rose As lead singer of Majesty she won it all fame money power and love But love like Majesty self destructed Cord Cocker the man who possessed her soul refused to forgive or forget She married Mike made her place in the limelight She had everything until Majesty came back together for the

Alone Yet Not Alone Tracy Leininger Craven, 2015-09-01 Autumn of 1755 bestowed to the Leiningers world not only its rich beauties but also a rewarding harvest On this particular day the whole valley seemed to rejoice in the fullness of the season but suddenly Barbara and Regina's peaceful frontier life is changed forever General Braddock and his army had been defeated and soon the Pennsylvania settlers would suffer the bloody effects of the French and Indian War On October 16 1755 a band of Indians led by Allegheny warriors stormed through Buffalo Valley burned the Leiningers log cabin and captured the sisters Few survived the Penn's Creek Massacre and even fewer lived to tell the story Regina makes a promise to her older sister just before they are unwillingly separated each to endure different fates Barbara is taken deep into the wilderness but holds on to the hope that she will find her little sister Though she is adopted into the Indian tribe there is a longing deep inside that cannot be denied She must escape but the penalty if caught is certain death No one expresses Barbara's apprehensions better than her own words written in 1759 If one could not believe that there is a God who helps and saves from death one had better let running away alone The extreme probability that the Indians would pursue and recapture us was two to one compared with the dim hope that perhaps we would get through even if we did escape the Indians how would we ever succeed in passing through the wilderness unacquainted with a single path or trail Regina
