A Region Not Home James Alan McPherson, 2000 The Pulitzer Prize winning author of Elbow Room an esteemed short story writer and essayist offers a powerful and graceful collection of his ruminations A Study Guide for James Alan

McPherson's "Elbow Room" Gale, Cengage Learning, The Contemporary African American Novel E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2012-07-20 This book examines the post 1990s African American novels namely the neo urban novel and develops a new urban discourse for the twenty first century on how the city as a social formation impacts black characters through everyday discursive practices of whiteness The critique of everyday life in a racial context is important in considering diverse forms of the lived reality of black everyday life in the novelistic representations of the white dominant urban order African American fictional representations of the city have political significance in that the neo urban novel explores the nature of the American society at large This book explores the need to understand how whiteness works what it forecloses and what it occasionally opens up in everyday life in American society Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic

Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States. Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories. The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald, Hemingway, Richard Ford, Raymond Carver, Eudora Welty, Andre Debus, Zora Neal Hurston, Anne Beattie, Bharati Mukherjee, J. D. Salinger, and Jamaica Kincaid, as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene. Encyclopedia of African-American Literature Wilfred D.

Samuels, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on African American literature providing profiles of notable and little known writers and their works, literary forms and genres, critics and scholars, themes and terminology, and more. Constructs of "home" in Gloria Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling, 2011 Metaphors of Economy, 2016-08-01 In recent years the metaphor of economy has proved to have an immense explanatory power in literary and cultural criticism. Everything can be expressed and analysed in terms borrowed from political economy. Language, texts, social structures, and cultural relationships can be construed in the dynamic terms made available by the metaphor of economy, and more specifically the economy of the metaphor. The metaphor of economy allows to show the dynamic processes of exchange, circulation, and interested negotiation. The essays in this volume display approaches to cultural and discursive practices derived from the methods and texts of economics. They provide a body of literary and cultural criticism founded upon economic paradigms which makes apparent the genealogy of our economic thought and the suggestion that looking at human exchange can enrich our understanding of culture. The interest of this volume is manifold: it gives a historical account of the development of economics, elucidates the emergence of theories governed by economic metaphors, and clarifies the impact of the metaphor on theories of textuality. It also provides an exchange between economists and literary and cultural critics by combining literary and cultural criticism with economics and covers a wide range of topics which are of interest to scholars from various disciplines. This volume provides a critical exchange which hopes to enrich both economics and literature.
