Guth, 1976 The Uffculme Wills and Inventories Peter Wyatt, 1997 This volume for 1997 contains transcriptions of all the 266 probate inventories that could be traced for the parish of Uffculme Devon together with abstracts of the accompanying wills and administrations which have survived Added to these are 322 further abstracts of wills and administrations under the

Salisbury jurisdiction and now housed at the Wiltshire Record Office in Trowbridge which have no surviving inventories. These further wills and administrations extend to the end of the year 1800 with a few in the Dean of Salisbury's list beyond that date. Where possible notes are included on related burial and marriage entries taken from the Parish Registers. The survival rate of probate inventories for Devon is poor as so many perished with the wills when the Exeter Probate Registry was destroyed in the Blitz in 1942. The Uffculme ones escaped because Uffculme was a Peculiar Parish in the jurisdiction of the Diocese of Salisbury and were kept in Salisbury during the war. The publication of this volume will give an insight into the sort of information the historian may gain from this type of document as well as providing aspects of life in Uffculme and farming and woollen cloth making. Guide to Bishops' Registers of England and Wales David M. Smith, David Michael Smith, 1981

Medieval Children Nicholas Orme, 2003-01-01 Looks at the lives of children from birth to adolescence in medieval England. Bowhill Stuart R Blaylock, 2013-04-15 Bowhill is an important late medieval house near Exeter. This monograph demonstrates how examination of its historical development and the material of its construction were used to deepen understanding about it and to inform a repair programme.

The Reign of King Henry VI Ralph A. Griffiths, 2024-03-29 Anyone who wishes to study the reign of Henry VI will need to start from the basis which Professor Griffiths provides. A J Pollard Parliamentary History Henry VI is the youngest monarch ever to have ascended the English throne and the only English king to have been acknowledged by the French as rightfully King of France. His reign was the third longest since the Norman conquest and he came close to being declared a saint. This masterly study unparalleled in its informative detail examines the entire span of the king's reign from the death of Henry V in 1422 when Henry was only nine months old to the period of his insanity at the beginning of the Wars of the Roses and his dethronement in 1461 preceding his murder ten years later. This classic re-assessment of the third Lancastrian king is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of fifteenth century England. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology. This title was originally published in 1981. Anyone who wishes to study the reign of Henry VI will need to start from the basis which Professor Griffiths provides. Indulgences in Late Medieval England R. N. Swanson, 2007-12-13 This book presents a history of indulgences or pardons in late medieval England. A Companion to Julian of Norwich Liz Herbert McAvoy, 2008 Here one of the most important Christian writers of the Middle Ages is studied in her historical and literary context. The contributions look at issues such as gender studies, Julian's place within manuscript traditions and ways of interpreting her writings, particularly the Revelations of Divine Love. Urban Bodies Carole Rawcliffe, 2013 This first full length study of public health in pre Reformation England challenges a number of entrenched assumptions about the insanitary nature of urban life during the golden age of bacteria Adopting an interdisciplinary approach that draws on material remains as well as archives it examines the medical cultural and religious contexts in which ideas about the welfare of the communal body developed Far from demonstrating indifference ignorance or mute acceptance in the face of repeated onslaughts of epidemic disease the rulers and residents of English towns devised sophisticated and coherent strategies for the creation of a more salubrious environment among the plethora of initiatives whose origins often predated the Black Death can also be found measures for the improvement of the water supply for better food standards and for the care of the sick both rich and poor

Provided by publisher     The Medieval Chancery Under Henry V Malcolm Richardson, List & Index Society, 1999     The Local Customs Accounts of the Port of Exeter, 1266-1321 Maryanne Kowaleski, 1993 Exeter possesses the best series of local customs accounts from medieval England beginning in 1266 and surviving for almost 70 per cent of the years up to 1498 They are also far more complete than other local accounts listing ships names home ports shipmasters and dates of arrival as well as the importers and their cargoes Equally remarkable is their focus on coastal as well as overseas traffic unlike the better known national customs accounts which recorded only overseas trade From the Exeter accounts we can follow the movements of foreign and domestic shipping grain imports during the great Famine of 1315 17 and the identity of the merchants shipmasters and mariners who carried on the various kinds of trade Dr Kowaleski s introduction provides the first detailed account of the port of Exeter and its activities during this period followed by a complete translation of the surviving accounts from 1266 to 1321 The book also includes a specimen Latin account a glossary of weights and measures map and full indexes
