Developmental Challenges and Societal Issues for Individuals With Intellectual Disabilities Gopalan, Rejani Thudalikunnil,2019-08-30 Intellectual disability is a generalized disorder appearing before adulthood characterized by significantly impaired cognitive functioning and deficits in two or more adaptive behaviors With the current limitations in curative treatment for intellectual disabilities the rehabilitation and management of affected individuals remains a major factor in the management and treatment of symptoms and for the improvement of daily life Developmental Challenges and Societal Issues for Individuals With Intellectual Disabilities is a comprehensive academic resource that examines treatment and rehabilitation options for those who have intellectual disabilities and examines educational vocational and psychosocial needs that can improve quality of life for these individuals Featuring a range of topics such as comorbidities epidemiology and stigma this book is ideal for psychologists psychiatrists pediatricians psychiatric nurses clinicians special ed teachers social workers hospital administrators mental health specialists managers academicians rehabilitation centers researchers and students

Family Support and Family Caregiving across Disabilities George H.S. Singer, David E. Biegel, Patricia Conway, 2014-06-11 Family members provide the majority of care for individuals with disabilities in the United States Recognition is growing that family caregiving deserves and may require societal support and evidence based practices have been established for reducing stress associated with caregiving Despite the substantial research literature on family support that has developed researchers advocates and professionals have often worked in separate categorical domains such as family support for caregiving for the frail elderly for individuals with mental illness or for people with development disabilities Family Support and Family Caregiving across Disabilities addresses this significant limitation through cross categorical and lifespan analyses of family support and family caregiving from the perspectives of theory and conceptual frameworks empirical research and frameworks and recommendations for improvements in public policy The book also examines children with disabilities children with autism adults with schizophrenia and individuals with cancer across the life cycle This book was published as a two part special issue in the Journal of Family Social Work

Educating Learners with Down Syndrome Rhonda Faragher, Barbara Clarke, 2013-10-23 For individuals with Down syndrome the extent of the effect of intellectual disability depends largely on the degree of provision of appropriate support and intervention In Educating Learners with Down Syndrome editors Rhonda Faragher and Barbara Clarke have brought together a number of expert contributors whose chapters review recent findings in the field of DS education highlight promising practices and identify areas for future research While the emphasis is primarily on the school years links to early intervention and to life post 16 are made with chapters organized into three parts conceptual overview of issues in learning and teaching learning mathematics and literacy development The book is also united by the cohesive themes of assessment evidence based practice and inclusive practices Educating Learners with Down Syndrome importantly incorporates the voices of individuals with Down syndrome whose personal narratives add significance to the research mission of the text and demonstrate the authors inclusive philosophy Aimed at researchers teacher educators higher degree students and policy makers this book is the first of its kind to provide a compendium of research on educating learners with Down syndrome

Cultural Diversity and Social Work Practice Bruce A. Thyer, 2010 The profession of social work has a long and admirable history of attending to issues related to diversity and oppression This new edition continues to examine the disciplinary attention regarding the provision of services to clientele who were most often marginalized by mainstream society By understanding certain aspects of the culture experienced by a client a social worker is better equipped to be of service to assess to plan to cooperate and to intervene The goal of this book is to bridge the gaps and to present to readers in one source a wealth of practice relevant information about African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans gay lesbian and bisexual individuals women the aged the developmentally disabled and those with adult onset physical disabilities Additional topics include the hearing impaired visually impaired and social work practice with refugees A significant updating of many of the chapters from the previous two editions is included enhancing the knowledge concerning social work practice An excellent resource for increased knowledge and sensitivity the book is designed for both undergraduate and graduate students as well as for practitioners who desire to perfect their skills in working with culturally diverse clients Publisher website

Guidelines for Cardiac Rehabilitation Programs American Association of Cardiovascular & Pulmonary Rehabilitation, 2021 Guidelines for Cardiac Rehabilitation Programs Sixth Edition offers procedures for providing patients with low cost high quality programming that moves them toward a lifelong commitment to disease management Mental Health, Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and the Ageing Process Vee P. Prasher, Philip W. Davidson, Flavia H. Santos, 2020-12-22 This book brings together findings from research and clinical practice with comprehensive coverage of the important aspects of mental health in ageing persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities It is crucial for professionals involved in the care of persons with all intellectual and developmental disabilities to have a broad understanding of the essential range of issues and therefore this book provides a truly multi disciplinary perspective complete with many figures and illustrations to underline the key points Undoubtedly research and clinical practice are much more advanced in the general ageing population than in persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities and so professionals and academics must be made fully aware of commonalities and idiosyncrasies of older people with intellectual and developmental disabilities This book presents the ongoing developments concerning mental health and aging which will become relevant to the intellectually disabled population Through experience this book also acknowledges that the impact on the persons themselves and on their carers always needs to be taken into account with treatment programs established with a multi faceted team approach in mind Avoiding the jargon of many titles in this area while maintaining the hands on approach of clinical practice this book meshes the practical and scientific worlds with all chapters written by leading experts in the field Beyond the US the IASSIDD support expands the book message worldwide Gerontechnology IV José García-Alonso, César Fonseca, 2022-03-22 This book gathers peer review contributions to the 4th International Workshop on Gerontechnology IWOG 2021 held on November 23 24 2021 in vora Portugal They report on cutting edge technologies and optimized workflows for promoting active aging and assisting elderly people at home as well as in healthcare centers They discuss the main challenges in the development use and delivery of health care services and technologies Not only they propose solutions for improving in practice the monitoring and management of health parameters and age related diseases yet they also describe improved approaches for helping seniors in their daily tasks and facilitating their communication and integration with assistive technologies thus improving their quality of life as well as their social integration All in all this book provides health professionals researchers and service providers with extensive information on the latest trends in the development and practical application of gerontechnology with a special emphasis on improving quality of life of the elderly
