Reichstag Graffiti:

European Landscapes of Rock-Art Christopher Chippindale, George Nash, 2003-09-02 Rock art the ancient images which still scatter the rocky landscapes of Europe is a singular kind of archaeological evidence Fixed in place it does not move about as artefacts as trade objects do Enigmatic in its meaning it uniquely offers a direct record of how prehistoric Europeans saw and envisioned their own worlds European Landscapes of Rock Art provides a number of case studies covering a range of European locations including Ireland Italy Scandinavia Scotland and Spain which collectively address the chronology and geography of rock art as well as providing an essential series of methodologies for future debate Each author provides a synthesis that focuses on landscape as an essential part of rock art construction From the paintings and carved images of prehistoric Scandinavia to Second World War graffiti on the German Reichstag this volume looks beyond the art to the society that made it The papers in this volume also challenge the traditional views of how rock art is recorded

Throughout there is an emphasis on informal and informed methodologies The authors skilfully discuss subjectivity and its relationship with landscape since personal experience from prehistoric times to the present day plays an essential role in the interpretation of art itself The emphasis is on location on the intentionality of the artist and on the needs of the audience This exciting volume is a crucial addition to rock art literature and landscape archaeology It will provide new material for a lively and greatly debated subject and as such will be essential for academics non academics and commentators of rock art in general

Public Art and Urban Memorials in Berlin Biljana Arandelovic, 2018-02-21 This book provides insight into the significant area of public art and memorials in Berlin Through diverse selected examples grouped according to their basic character and significance the most important art projects produced in the period since World War II are presented and discussed Both as a critical theoretical work and rich photo book this volume is a unique selection of Berlin's diverse visual elements contemporary and from the recent past Some artworks are very famous and are already symbols of Berlin while others are less well known Public Art and Urban Memorials in Berlin analyzes the connections created by public art on one hand and urban space and architectural forms on the other This volume considers the Berlin works of iconic artists such as Christo and Jeanne Claude Daniel Libeskind Dani Karavan Bernar Venet Keith Haring Christian Boltanski Richard Serra Peter Eisenman Henry Moore Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen Wolf Vostell Gerhard Richter Eduardo Chillida Jonathan Borofsky Olaf Metzger Sol LeWitt Frank Gehry Max Lingner Bernhard Heiliger Frank Thiel Juan Garaizabal and more The reader is led through seven chapters Creative City Berlin Introduction to Public Art Public Art in Berlin the Celebration of Berlin's 750th Anniversary in 1987 Temporary public art Socialist Realism in Art and Urban Memorials The chapter Public Art in Berlin discusses selected projects Bundestag Public Art Collection Public Art at Potsdamer Platz and The City and the river a renewed relationship The chapter on urban memorials discusses Remembering the Divided City and Holocaust Memorials in Berlin The book delivers nine interviews with artists whose Berlin work is revealed through this volume Bernar

Venet Hubertus von der Goltz Dani Karavan Juan Garaizabal Susanne Lorenz Kalliopi Lemos Frank Thiel Karla Sachse and Nikolaus Koliusis Berlin Contemporary Julia Walker, 2021-11-18 For years following reunification Berlin was the largest construction site in Europe with striking new architecture proliferating throughout the city in the 1990s and early 2000s Among the most visible and the most contested of the new projects were those designed for the national government and its related functions Berlin Contemporary explores these buildings and plans tracing their antecedents while also situating their iconic forms and influential designers within the spectacular world of global contemporary architecture Close studies of these sites including the Reichstag the Chancellery and the reconstruction of the Berlin Stadtschloss now known as the Humboldt Forum demonstrate the complexity of Berlin's political and architectural rebuilding and reveal the intricate historical negotiations that architecture was summoned to perform Aesthetics, Applications, Artistry and Anarchy: Essays in Prehistoric and Contemporary Art Jillian Huntley, George Nash, 2019-03-31 This volume in honour of John Kay Clegg consists of papers by rock art researchers from around the world on topics such as aesthetics the application of statistical analyses frontier conflict and layered symbolic meanings the deliberate use of optical illusion and the contemporary significance of ancient and street art Radical Communications Michael Tsangaris, 2021-11-08 Radical Communications explores unauthorized messages we see in the cities we live in and their impact on the construction of social reality Michael Tsangaris treats the city as a text and examines the political slogans graffiti and street art of Athens as complex visual signs in an alternative communication system He argues that the legitimacy aesthetic value and social acceptability of these expressions depend on the time place and social group or individual that interprets them Finally his analysis reveals the contradictory character of the contemporary city It shows a city of social inequalities cultural diversity multinational encounters of conflicts between age groups and political economic and epidemic crises a city of one dimensional thinking apathy and consumer fetishism but also a city that aspires to the dream of a better society and holds utopian promise

Cities, War, and Terrorism Stephen Graham, 2008-04-15 Cities War and Terrorism is the first book to look critically at the ways in which warfare terrorism and counter terrorism policies intersect in cities in the post Cold War period A path breaking exploration of the intersections of war terrorism and cities Argues that contemporary cities are the key strategic sites of geopolitical conflict Written by the world's leading analysts of the intersections of urban space and military and terrorist violence Draws on cutting edge research from geography history architecture planning sociology critical theory politics international relations and military studies Provides up to date empirical analyses of specific conflicts including 9 11 the War on Terrorism the Balkan wars the Israeli Palestinian conflict and urban antiglobalization battles Offers lay readers a sophisticated perspective on the violence that is engulfing our increasingly urbanised world A Maverick's Musings Ashokan Srinivasan, 2020-12-15 The book provides the essence of the extensive travel undertaken by the author over a period of 20 years and how these voyages and exploration brought about the transformation in his personality and general perspective about life Utopia David Ayers, Benedikt Hjartarson, Tomi Huttunen, Harri Veivo, 2015-12-14 Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant garde Readings of the avant garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history theory and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant garde from the late 19th to the 21st century The book s varied and carefully selected contributions written by experts from around 20 countries seek to answer such questions as how have modernism and the avant garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity how have avant garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present how have avant gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation The Routledge Companion to Architectural Drawings and Models Federica Goffi, 2022-05-30

Architectural drawings and models are instruments of imagination communication and historical continuity The role of drawings and models and their ownership placement and authorship in a ubiquitous digital age deserve careful consideration Expanding on the well established discussion of the translation from drawings to buildings this book fills a lacuna in current scholarship questioning the significance of the lives of drawings and models after construction Including emerging well known and world renowned scholars in the fields of architectural history and theory and curatorial practices the thirty five contributions define recent research in four key areas drawing sites sites of knowledge construction drawing office construction site the afterlife of drawings and models archiving collecting displaying and exhibiting tools of making architectural representations and their apparatus over time and the ethical responsibilities of collecting and archiving authorship ownership copyrights and rights to copy The research covers a wide range of geographies and delves into the practices of such architects as Sir John Soane Superstudio Eug ne Emmanuel Viollet le Duc Frank Lloyd Wright Wajiro Kon Germ n Samper Gnecco A PS Mies van der Rohe and Renzo Piano Slicing Spaces: Performance of Architecture in

Cinema Gul Kacmaz Erk, Rebecca-Jane McConnell, 2023-05-26 As suggested in the title Slicing Spaces Performance of Architecture in Cinema this project slices through the multifaceted layers of film space The text investigates how architecture performs as an altruist proving that envired space is not merely a backdrop in film scenes but an active performing character The performance of architecture varies depending on what the filmmakers wish the viewer to feel whether it is fear compassion or joy Considerations take an interdisciplinary approach not solely observing film and architecture but also studying the likes of urbanism politics philosophy history psychology art and design The substantial spectrum of opinions from contributing authors allows the reader to absorb the diverse relationships of architecture in cinema inviting the reader to form their own opinions on the topic and inspiring a new way of thinking Slicing Spaces
