Reign Of Narcissism:

The Reign of Narcissism Barbara Bloom,1990 The Reign of Narcissism Barbara Bloom,Serpentine Gallery,1990

The Museum as Muse Kynaston McShine,1999 Published on the occasion of the exhibition of the same name held at the Museum of Modern Art New York March 14 June 1 1999 Out of Weakness Andrew Schmookler,2011-02-23 A wide ranging and deeply thoughtful meditation on the psychological sources of the danger to humanity created by the advent of weapons of mass destruction It draws on a vast range of sources including psychology anthropology literature philosophy and religion and is expressed with eloquence and grace Dr Jerome Frank Professor Emeritus of Psychiatry Johns Hopkins Medical School author of Sanity and Survival A remarkably thorough analysis of the proposition that is our beliefs conscious and unconscious which have made war inevitable and that a change in those assumptions including the unconscious ones can free us from the scourge This is a very hopeful book about a subject that leads many to despair I believe it will be a most useful contribution to the dialogue about our national security dilemma Willis Harman President Institute of Noetic Sciences author of An Incomplete Guide to the Future The Silent Fraternity Tristen A. Taylor,2022-01-06 The Silent Fraternity takes this controversial issue to the Edge of Ugliness This book is extremely intense and sections are extremely raw Growing up I always thought that the church the Southern Black Church was supposed to be the safest place on earth Well what a wake up call Revenge an airborne virus can travel with a ravaging force that causes catastrophic damage It can cause overwhelming irreversible destruction to the life lifestyle and well being of an individual or to a large group Dexter B Cavanaugh III a well dressed pit bull in a three piece designer suit disguised as a successful legal gladiator has a severe case of this disease and he doesn't want to be cured On the contrary the potency of his internal condition continues to grow day by day as it feeds on his relentless focus to seek justice He is on a mission to get revenge for the death of his best friend Patrick a mission that is also fueled by a cultural plague that has been perpetuated in the Black Church for decades His death would not be in vain Dexter is complicated The anal retentive overachieving perfectionist as well as four of his close comrades have no shame in admitting that they definitely have their share of issues as a result of their provocative and tumultuous pasts In his journey of seeking redemption he confirms that sometimes you have to make someone go through hell and risk losing everything to get it No one attacks a member of The Silent Fraternity without repercussions even if he is hiding behind the sacred cloth Hell hath no fiery like hurricane Dexter This was personal very personal The Silent Fraternity a moving account of a controversial yet unspoken social issue that has been brewing for decades This book burns through a wide range of emotions Curious Lessons in the Museum Claire Robins,2016-05-13 Amongst recent contemporary art and museological publications there have been relatively few which direct attention to the distinct contributions that twentieth and twenty first century artists have made to gallery and museum interpretation practices There are fewer still that recognise the pedagogic potential of interventionist artworks in galleries and museums This book fills that gap and demonstrates how artists have been making curious but none the less useful contributions to museum education and curation for some time Claire Robins investigates in depth the phenomenon of artists interventions in museums and examines their pedagogic implications She also brings to light and seeks to resolve many of the contradictions surrounding artists interventions where on the one hand contemporary artists have been accused of alienating audiences and on the other appear to have played a significant role in orchestrating positive developments to the way that learning is defined and configured in museums She examines the disruptive and parodic strategies that artists have employed and argues for that they can be understood as part of a move to re establish the museum as a discursive forum This valuable book will be essential reading for students and scholars of museum studies as well as art and cultural studies

Art After Appropriation John C. Welchman, 2013-01-11 Beginning with the first comprehensive account of the discourse of appropriation that dominated the art world in the late 1970s and 1980s Art After Appropriation suggests a matrix of inflections and refusals around the culture of taking or citation each chapter loosely correlated with one year of the decade between 1989 and 1999 The opening chapters show how the Second World culture of the USSR gave rise to a new visibility for photography during the dissolution of the Soviet Union around 1989 Welchman examines how genres of ethnography documentary and travel are crossed with fictive performance and social improvisation in the videos of Steve Fagin He discusses how hybrid forms of subjectivity are delivered by a new critical narcissism and how the Korean American artist Cody Choi converts diffident gestures of appropriation from the logic of material or stylistic annexation into continuous incorporated events Art After Appropriation also examines the creation of public art from covert actions and social feedback and how bodies participate in their own appropriation Art After Appropriation concludes with the advent of the rainbow net an imaginary icon that governs the spaces of interactivity proliferation and media piracy at the end of the millennium John Welchman is Professor of Modern Art History Theory and Criticism at the University of California San Diego He is the author of Modernism Relocated 1995 and Invisible Colors 1997 and editor of Rethinking Borders 1996 and a forthcoming three volume anthology of the writings of LA artist Mike Kelley Welchman has contributed to numerous journals magazines museum catalogues and newspapers including Artforum New York Times Los Angeles Times International Herald Tribune Los Angeles County Museum of Art Tate Gallery Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Reina Sofia Madrid Haus der Kunst Munich
