Administrative Law and Governance in Asia Tom Ginsburg, Albert H.Y. Chen, 2008-10-30 This book examines administrative law in Asia exploring the profound changes in the legal regimes of many Asian states that have taken place in recent years Political democratization in some countries economic change more broadly and the forces of globalization have put pressure on the developmental state model wherein bureaucrats governed in a kind of managed capitalism and public private partnerships were central. In their stead a more market oriented regulatory state model seems to be emerging in many jurisdictions with emphases on transparency, publicity and constrained discretion. This book analyses the causes and consequences of this shift from a socio legal perspective showing clearly how decisions about the scope of administrative law and judicial review have an important effect on the shape and style of government regulation. Taking a comparative approach individual chapters trace the key developments in the legal regimes of major states across Asia including China, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Singapore, the Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam. They demonstrate that in many cases Asian states have shifted away from traditional systems in which judges were limited in terms of their influence over social and economic policy towards regulatory models of the state involving a greater role for judges and law like processes. The book also considers whether judiciaries are capable of performing the tasks they are being given and assesses the profound consequences the judicialization of governance is starting to have on state policy making in Asia.

Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa's evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences. Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa. The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period. Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools. The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs. The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices. This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies. With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book's critiques, findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies. As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators, policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work.
