Reinventing the University Sandra L. Johnson,Sean C. Rush,1995-05-29 Change has dramatically confronted higher education in the last decade challenging it to its very roots Colleges and universities have been rocked by a volatile economy changing demographic trends weakening public opinion lagging state and federal support and other forces Leaders from the most highly respected institutions in the country have examined the important issues facing higher education today and this book offers their insights on restructuring administrative operations new revenue opportunities debt management capital renewal endowment management and more

Prioritizing Academic Programs and Services Robert C. Dickeson,2009-12-15 Prioritizing Academic Programs and Services REVISED AND UPDATED Increasing economic concerns make the new edition of this best selling classic an invaluable resource for those who want and need to implement a proven step by step approach to reallocating resources in tough times Thoroughly revised and updated Prioritizing Academic Programs and Services includes new recommendations from the field communication strategies for more successful campus implementation a new section on the sources of hidden costs and a Prioritization Process and Implementation workbook designed to help administrators avoid costly mistakes This book includes access to additional content online including models for prioritization from a variety of campuses Based on the author s extensive consulting experience this necessary and timely resource offers the best advice for addressing the current economic concerns affecting most colleges and universities Praise for Prioritizing Academic Programs and Services For more than a decade higher education leaders have turned to Dickeson's practical guide to academic program assessment These newly expanded approaches are just in time for today's competitive environment SUZANNE SHIPLEY president Shepherd University Dickeson provides a compelling rationale for program prioritization as well as a practical planning structure that promotes alignment between programs resources and university mission Presidents and provosts can use his approach to frame campus discussions around the future of the institution and away from legacy programs whose time has passed KYLE R CARTER provost and senior vice chancellor Western Carolina University Dickeson's approach ensures that critical decisions regarding academic programs and resource allocation are aligned with strategic goals and institutional mission As one of the early adopters of the process that he proposes I am convinced that it is a powerful and practical tool for any college or university committed to remaining focused resilient vital and relevant in a dynamic and increasingly challenging environment DAVID MAXWELL president Drake University

The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education Chris Steyaert, Timon Beyes, Martin Parker, 2016-06-17 The position and role of the business school and its educational programmes have become increasingly prominent yet also questioned and contested What management education entails and how it is enacted has become a matter of profound concern in the field of higher education and more generally for the development of the organized world Drawing upon the humanities and social sciences The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education imagines a different and better education offered to students of management entrepreneurship and organization studies It is an intervention into the debates on what is taught and how learning takes place demonstrating both the potential and the limits of what the humanities and social sciences can do for management education Divided into six sections the book traces the history and theory of management education reimagining central educational principles and outlining an emerging practice based approach With an international cast of authors The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education has been written for contemporary and future educators and for students and scholars who seek to make a difference through their practice

Schools and Societies Steven G. Brint, 2006 Abstract http://www3.openu.ac.il/ouweb/owal/new_books1/book_desc_in_mis_cat/111625

Academic Governance in the Contemporary University Julie Rowlands, 2016-10-12 This book addresses three central questions in contemporary university governance

- 1 How and why has academic governance in Anglophone nations changed in recent years and what impact have these changes had on current practices 2 How do power relations within universities affect decisions about teaching and research and what are the implications for academic voices 3 How can those involved in university governance and management improve academic governance processes and outcomes and why is it important that they do so The book explores these issues in clear concise and accessible language that will appeal to higher education researchers and governance practitioners alike It draws on extensive empirical data from key national systems in the Anglophone world but goes beyond the simply descriptive to analyse and explain

Higher Education Management and Policy ,2007 Building Organizational Capacity and Strategic Management in Academia Kayyali, Mustafa,2024-11-01 As higher education institutions face challenges like technological advancements student demographics and funding constraints effective strategic management is essential This involves enhancing institutional capabilities through improved governance resource allocation and stakeholder engagement while fostering a culture of innovation and collaboration By prioritizing strategic planning and capacity building academic institutions can remain relevant and responsive to the needs of students faculty and the broader community Further research empowers universities to achieve sustainable growth and fulfill their educational and social objectives Building Organizational Capacity and Strategic Management in Academia explores the crucial role of leadership and strategic management in boosting the capacity and effectiveness of higher education institutions It examines the complex dynamics of organizational change innovation and sustainable growth within the setting of academia This book covers topics such as brand management information technology and strategic planning and is a useful resource for business owners academicians educators managers computer engineers scientists and researchers Handbook of Research in Education Finance and Policy Helen F. Ladd, Edward B. Fiske, 2012-08-21 Sponsored by the Association for Education Finance and Policy AEFPP this groundbreaking new handbook assembles in one place the existing research based knowledge in education finance and policy thereby helping to define this evolving field of research and practice It provides a readily available resource for anyone seriously involved in education finance and policy in the United States and around the world The Handbook traces the evolution of the field from its initial focus on school inputs and the revenue sources used to finance these inputs to a focus on educational outcomes and the larger policies used to achieve them It shows how the current decision making context in school finance inevitably interacts with those of governance accountability equity privatization and other areas of education policy Because a full understanding of the important contemporary issues requires input from a variety of perspectives the Handbook draws on contributors from a variety of disciplines While many of the chapters cover complex state of the art empirical research the authors explain key concepts in language that non specialists can understand

Life After Dawkins Stuart Macintyre, Gwilym Croucher, André Brett, 2016-04-18 The reconstruction of higher education in Australia through the creation of the Unified National System of Higher Education at the end of the 1980s by John Dawkins is commonly seen as a watershed It brought new ways of funding directing and organising universities expanding their size reorienting their activities and setting in train a far reaching transformation of the academic enterprise This volume traces its impact on the balance between the University of Melbourne's academic mission and external expectations and how it adjusted to neutralise the impact of the change and restore the balance At Melbourne the Dawkins revolution changed little in the way it understood itself and conducted its affairs but changed everything Resources in Education, 1999-10 First Among Equals James Martin, James E. Samels, 1997-10-31 Each chapter of First among Equals explores a different aspect of the chief academic officer's primary responsibilities including relations with the president and the board academic governance curriculum development new instructional technologies financial planning enrollment management legal affairs and faculty development The Enterprise University Simon Marginson, Mark Considine, 2000-10 Throughout the industrialised world universities have undergone remarkable changes since the mid 1980s In Australia interest has been intense and publication of The Enterprise University was very timely First published in 2001 it was the first systematic study of the Australian system since the momentous Dawkins reforms ten years earlier The book is grounded in case studies of most of the major Australian universities the authors interviewed a large number of senior managers They also have taken account of global trends and have prepared the book in the light of international research on the university as an institution The authors contend that the modern university can be understood as an enterprise university characterised by corporate style executive leadership In a hard hitting conclusion they propose novel policies and directions for Australia s higher education system REIS - Abril/Junio 2003 ,
