Exchange Rate Liberalization in Selected Sub-Saharan African Countries Successes, Failures, and Lessons Mr. Nils Øyvind Mæhle, Ms. Haimanot

Teferra, Mrs. Armine Khachatryan, 2013-01-31 Many sub Saharan African SSA countries liberalized their economies in the 1980s and early 1990s This paper reviews the foreign exchange regime reforms in selected SSA and their associated macroeconomic policies and economic performance during and after these reforms were undertaken Before liberalization most of the reviewed countries were characterized by extensive foreign exchange rationing sizeable black market premiums and declining per capita real income Today the countries that successfully reformed look markedly different Rationing and parallel market spreads are a distant memory and per capita income has increased sharply

Progressive Policies for Economic Development Alfredo Saad-Filho, 2021-07-28 Despite the unprecedented gravity of the challenges posed by global warming most political systems have not given them the required priority The oil industry has resisted and many countries have taken only token measures to reduce emissions and mitigate the worst effects In this context this book examines the progressive options available to today's developing countries as they face the limitations of neoliberalism and the existential challenge of global warming Examining the cases of both low income fossil fuel dependent economies and large middle income economies this book argues that for all developing economies the best way forward includes green macroeconomic policies articulated with progressive industrial and social policies thus allowing these countries to achieve economic diversification build alternative drivers of growth and deliver improvements in the distribution of income wealth and power There is urgent need for this progressive policy agenda grounded on heterodox economics committed to social integration and the reduction of multiple inequalities to improve the economic outcomes for these countries improve the lives of citizens and meet global climate targets The book argues that capitalism challenges the possibility of free and dignified existence while climate change challenges the possibility of life itself and that these challenges must be confronted together Since neoliberal capitalism will not adopt the necessary policies to reduce carbon emissions rapidly it must be overthrown not only for ethical or logical reasons or to shift to better arrangements for the functioning of society but in order to preserve the conditions for life itself This agenda for progressive economic development is essential reading for anyone interested in heterodox economics development studies international politics international relations and sustainable business

Finance & Development, June 2024 International Monetary Fund. Communications Department, 2024-05-31 Finance Development June 2024

Experience with Large Fiscal Adjustments Mr. Mark A. Horton, Mr. George C. Tsibouris, Wojciech Maliszewski, Mr. Mark J. Flanagan, 2006-06-14 When policymakers have little option but to consider a sizable fiscal adjustment they are confronted by the following questions Can a large fiscal adjustment be implemented successfully How is a large adjustment best designed and implemented What will be its impact on the economy This Occasional Paper addresses these questions by describing the experience of countries that have undertaken large fiscal adjustments in the last three decades It provides operational guidance to policymakers by identifying preconditions common policy approaches and institutional arrangements underlying successful and unsuccessful adjustment episodes

The Nordic Banking Crisis Mr. Burkhard

Drees, Ceyla Pazarbasioglu, 1998-04-20 This study examines the banking crises in Finland Norway and Sweden which took place in the early 1990s and draws some policy conclusions from their experiences One key conclusion is that factors in addition to business cycle effects explain the Nordic countries financial problems Although the timing of the deregulation in all three countries coincided with a strongly expansionary macroeconomic momentum the main reasons for the banking crises were the delayed policy responses the structural characteristics of the financial systems and the banks inadequate internal risk management controls
