Relativism In The Arts:

Relativism in the Arts Betty Jean Craige, 1983-01-01 Relativism in the Arts Betty Jean Craige, 2010-12-01 In a world where the acceptance of relativism has caused erosion in the tradition of Cartesian dualism representationalism in the arts has come under serious questioning The contributors to this book seek new standards for defining and evaluating works of art Relativism in the Arts brings together thinkers in the fields of music art criticism literary criticism philosophy and the history of consciousness to confront the problems of relativist aesthetics Their essays range from theoretical discussions of the definition of art in our times to close examinations of particular artworks or art forms The introduction by Betty Jean Craige presents reasons for the cultural self reflectivity that gives rise to the peculiarities of modern art Explanation and Value in the Arts Salim Kemal, Ivan Gaskell, 1993-04-15 An interdisciplinary study of explanation and the construction of value regarding works of literature and painting The Oxford Handbook of Ethics and Art James Harold, 2023 Art has not always had the same salience in philosophical discussions of ethics that many other elements of our lives have There are well defined areas of applied ethics corresponding to nature business health care war punishment animals and more but there is no recognized research program in applied ethics of the arts or art ethics Art often seems to belong to its own sphere of value separate from morality The first questions we ask about art are usually not about its moral rightness or virtue but about its beauty or originality However it is impossible to do any serious thinking about the arts without engaging in ethical questions The Routledge Companion to Research in the Arts Michael Biggs, Henrik Karlsson, 2010-10-04 The Routledge Companion to Research in the Arts is a major collection of new writings on research in the creative and performing arts by leading authorities from around the world It provides theoretical and practical approaches to identifying structuring and resolving some of the key issues in the debate about the nature of research in the arts which have surfaced during the establishment of this subject over the last decade Contributions are located in the contemporary intellectual environment of research in the arts and more widely in the universities in the strategic and political environment of national research funding and in the international environment of trans national cooperation and communication The book is divided into three principal sections Foundations Voices and Contexts each with an introduction from the editors highlighting the main issues agreements and debates in each section The Routledge Companion to Research in the Arts addresses a wide variety of concepts and issues including the diversity of views on what constitutes arts based research and scholarship what it should be and its potential contribution the trans national communication difficulties arising from terminological and ontological differences in arts based research traditional and non traditional concepts of knowledge their relationship to professional practice and their outcomes and audiences a consideration of the role of written spoken and artefact based languages in the formation and communication of understandings This comprehensive collection makes an original and significant contribution to the field of arts based research by setting down a framework for addressing these and other

topical issues It will be essential reading for research managers and policy makers in research councils and universities as well as individual researchers research supervisors and doctoral candidates

Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver, 2013-04-19 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it this stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community

Comparativism in Art History Jas Elsner, 2017-07-05 Featuring some of the major voices in the world of art history this volume explores the methodological aspects of comparison in the historiography of the discipline The chapters assess the strengths and weaknesses of comparative practice in the history of art and consider the larger issue of the place of comparative in how art history may develop in the future The contributors represent a comprehensive range of period and geographic command from antiquity to modernity from China and Islam to Europe from various forms of art history to archaeology anthropology and material culture studies Art history is less a single discipline than a series of divergent scholarly fields in very different historical geographic and cultural contexts but all with a visual emphasis on the close examination of objects These fields focus on different often incompatible temporal and cultural contexts yet nonetheless they regard themselves as one coherent discipline namely the history of art There are substantive problems in how the sub fields within the broad brush generalization called art history can speak coherently to each other These are more urgent since the shift from an art history centered on the western tradition to one that is consciously global

Philosophy Looks at the Arts Joseph Margolis, 1987 The first edition of this widely used anthology offered a needed introduction to a new analytic aesthetics which has in the intervening years become even more influential This new revised and expanded edition has been designed by one of the leaders of the field to help define the structure of current aesthetics Of the 24 articles included more than half are new to this edition The new edition emphasizes opposing currents in aesthetics with contributions from the most active and influential writers in the field It is a basic book for any library and is designed to provide both undergraduate and graduate students with a professional orientation in aesthetics Author note Joseph Margolis is Professor of Philosophy at Temple

University He is the author or editor of twelve other books as well as numerous articles Multiculturalism and Public Arts Policy David Pankratz,1993-10-30 The idea of public support for the arts is being challenged Multiculturalism has been proposed as a worthy and necessary goal of public arts policy whether or not it should be is explored for the first time in this book Issues of cultural pluralism the relations of art and culture justice and affirmative action and artistic value are presented as essential points of debate in making decisions concerning public support of the arts This book will be of interest to professionals and teachers in the arts public policy arts management and education Its focus on multiculturalism and its analysis of basic concepts related to timely issues of public arts policy make it a unique contribution The Value of Art and the Value of Love. Moral Relativism, Nietzschean Perspectivism and Questions of Authenticity Sabine Mercer,2018-03-21 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2006 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1 5 James Cook University course Honours language English abstract Set in the art world of the early nineteen eighties the elements Theft and Love abound in a turbulent adventure of pretence and deceit deftly written in a genre mix of crime story romance fictional K nstlerroman and fictional memoir with traces of biographical data from the author This essay examines Peter Carey s novel Theft A Love Story from the aspect of a particular depiction of Truth and Lies in a Postmodern Sense which I intend as a pun on Nietzsche s essay On Truth and Lies in a Nonmoral Sense Moreover I seek to apply Nietzsche s epistemic thesis of perspectivism according to which any act of understanding depends on the dispositions and biases built into the perspective out of which it was made Perspectivism is a useful theory that can be applied to examine the motivation of many characters in Theft The novel is preoccupied with dishonest dealings in which the concept of theft pervades throughout and even intrudes into the world of private relationships it shows morals being no longer conditioned by any commonly held universal truths such as good or bad right or wrong Instead all moral categorical imperatives have lost their absolute meaning and are shown to have been subsumed under various relative points of view a subjective preference of each individual features that seem to have become characteristic of postmodern society The main characters in the novel exhibit a moral relativism that goes against the Kantian maxim that each person should be treated as an end never as a mere means to our ends Moral relativism and the perspective of a wounded ego of a divorcee might even show to be the author s emotional dilemma with which he faces his own ethical problem in the book there frequently emerge difficulties for readers not only in deciding which characters are actually fictional but also how many autobiographical references can be detected if the reader assumes that the protagonist with his bitterness for his ex wife might be set up as an alter ego figure

Navigating Ethical Dilemmas in Creative Arts Therapies Thomson J. Ling,Jessica M. Hauck,2021-12-28 Navigating Ethical Dilemmas in Creative Arts Therapies uses a case based approach to provide practical guidance for practitioners on the skillful application of ethical decision making in art therapy The book introduces the DO ART model an ethical decision making model specific to the practice of art therapy Walking readers through common areas of ethical dilemmas chapters detail how art making can be used to navigate the model supporting the well documented practice of art therapists engaging in art making processes themselves Topics covered include boundaries and confidentiality assessment storage and exhibition materials multicultural issues technology in art therapy working with vulnerable populations supervision and training and ethical research Art therapists at all levels will find this book to be a necessary resource for their practice A Companion to Aesthetics Stephen Davies, Kathleen Marie Higgins, Robert Hopkins, Robert Stecker, David E. Cooper, 2009-04-27 A COMPANION TO AESTHETICS This second edition of A Companion to Aesthetics examines questions that were among the earliest discussed by ancient philosophers such as the nature of beauty and the relation between morality and art while also addressing a host of new issues prompted by recent developments in the arts and in philosophy including coverage of non Western art traditions and of everyday and environmental aesthetics The volume also canvases debates regarding the nature of representation the relation between art and truth and the criteria for interpretation which are among the most hotly discussed topics in contemporary philosophy In this extensively revised and updated edition 168 alphabetically arranged articles provide comprehensive treatment of the main topics and writers in aesthetics Major additions include historical overviews from the prehistoric to the present and a section on the individual arts A Companion to Aesthetics will serve students of philosophy literary criticism and cultural studies as well as the educated general reader both as a work of reference and with its many substantial essays as a guide to the best thinking about the arts from the ancient Greeks to the dawn of the twenty first century Themelios, Volume 38, Issue 3 D. A. Carson, 2015-01-27 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition <http://thegospelcoalition.org/themelios> and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Managing Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary The Snowflake on the Belfry Anna Balakian, 1994 These essays demonstrate Balakian's belief that the fate of literature needs the snowflake not to ring the bell to any particular tune but to maintain a seasonal balance in the literary climate Undoing the Visual Arts Since 1960 Adrian Lewis, 2025-10-06 This timely study critically assesses each of the various presuppositions that led to how we got to where we are today Contemporary art has replaced the notion of artistic medium with a semiotic model of communication treating art as text open in its reading The dumping of the notion of artistic medium cancels aesthetic depth and undermines even relative expressive determinacy Marcel Duchamp privileged the play of mind over the simply visual Minimalism and Pop Art set their faces against the place of personalised life experience and expressive formation in art making Andy Warhol's work threw up the so called institutional theory of art whatever the artworld calls art is art Art's academisation brought in entirely inappropriate models of knowledge creation and then art became issue based Art was curatorially patronised to fit a woke ideological agenda The incredible accord between institutional power artworld theorising the media and the art economy made contemporary art immune from criticism the undoing of visual art was complete Evaluating Art George Dickie, 2010-05-18 A theory about how to judge a work of art as opposed to a theory that explains why a particular work is defined as art Arthur Danto and the End of Art Raquel Cascales, 2019-08-20 To get a comprehensive understanding of the core concept of the end of art this book analyses the intellectual trajectory of Arthur Danto highlighting his successive achievements in philosophy of action philosophy of history and philosophy of art If as Danto says everything is extensively associated with everything else it is impossible to avoid putting the philosophy of art in relation with his whole philosophical system Social Theories of Art Ian Heywood, 1997 This book offers a critical examination of influential social theories of art that points to the poverty of much contemporary art theory including that of the New Art History and its deconstructionist critics and the important but underacknowledged ethical implications of theorizing Heywood writes clearly and illuminatingly about the problematic relationship between the seminar and the studio theory and practice his findings will be of interest and relevance to students of sociology art history fine art philosophy and cultural studies A History of Art History Christopher S. Wood, 2021-03-02 In this authoritative book the first of its kind in English Christopher Wood tracks the evolution of the historical study of art from the late middle ages through the rise of the modern scholarly discipline of art history Synthesizing and assessing a vast array of writings episodes and personalities this original and accessible account of the development of art historical thinking will appeal to readers both inside and outside the discipline The book shows that the pioneering chroniclers of the Italian Renaissance Lorenzo Ghiberti and Giorgio Vasari measured every epoch against fixed standards of quality Only in the Romantic era did art historians discover the virtues of medieval art anticipating the relativism of the later nineteenth century when art history learned to admire the art of all societies and to value every work as an index of its times The major art historians of the modern era however Jacob Burckhardt Aby Warburg Heinrich W. Ifflin Erwin Panofsky Meyer Schapiro and Ernst Gombrich struggled to adapt their work to the rupture of artistic modernism leading to the current predicaments of the discipline

Combining erudition with clarity this book makes a landmark contribution to the understanding of art history from book jacket

Intention Interpretation Gary Iseminger, 2010-08-12 an excellent and comprehensive discussion of a debate that was initiated in this century in William Wimsatt's and Monroe C Beardsley's influential article The Intentional Fallacy this is a splendidly conceived and very useful collection of essays Readers will want to take issue with the arguments of individual authors but this is to be expected in a volume at the cutting edge of a fertile philosophical controversy David Novitz The Philosophical Quarterly What is the connection if any between the author's intentions in while writing a work of literature and the truth acceptability validity of interpretive statements about it With this question Gary Isminger introduces a literary debate that has been waged for the past four decades and is addressed by philosophers and literary theorists in Intention and Interpretation Thirteen essays discuss the role of appeals to the author's intention in interpreting works of literature A well known argument by E D Hirsch serves as the basic text in which he defends the appeal to the author's intention against Wimsatt and Beardsley's claim that such an appeal involved the intentional fallacy The essays mostly commissioned by the editor explore the presuppositions and consequences of arguing for the importance of the author's intentions in the way Hirsch does Connections emerge between this issue and many fundamental issues in metaphysics and the philosophy of mind as well as in aesthetics The old New Criticism and current Post Structuralism tend to agree in disenfranchising the author and many people now are disinclined even to consider the alternative Hirsch demurs and arguments like his deserve the careful attention both from critics and sympathizers that they receive here Literary scholars and philosophers who are sympathetic to Continental as well as to Anglo American styles of philosophy are among the contributors This is a timely book appearing as it does when postmodernist views of the death of the author are disappearing quickly from the scene As a collection it exemplifies the best work that is being done on this problem at the moment and it will no doubt inspire further debate The Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism This volume contains important articles illuminating the central debate over the role and relevance of authorial intentions in literary interoperation British Journal of Aesthetics
