Essays on Religion and Literature (Classic Reprint) Henry Edward Manning, 2016-06-28

Excerpt from Essays on Religion and Literature This is the first time it has fallen to me to address the Academia Since its lamented founder was taken from us Last year it would have been my duty to open its proceedings but I was out of England at the time Of its first meeting I well remember the moment when in his great illness in Rome the Cardinal gave me commission to begin this work and with what interest he watched over it even when declining strength hindered his taking part in its acts The importance of the Academia as a centre round which we may unite and as a help to the formation and spread of sound Catholic Opinion becomes every year more evident and I trust that we Shall all do our utmost to sustain it and to promote its efficiency In opening the Sixth year it might seem needless to speak Of the end for which the Academia was instituted About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Sacred Modes of Being in a Postsecular World Andrew W. Hass, 2021-09-16 How do we talk meaningfully about the sacred in contexts where conventional religious expression has so often lost its power Inspired by the influential work of David Jasper this important volume builds on his thinking to identify sacrality in a world where the old religious and secular debates have exhausted themselves and theology struggles for a new language in their wake Distinguished writers explore here the idea of the sacred as one that exists paradoxically in a space that is both possible and impossible profoundly theological on the one hand but also deeply this worldly and irreligious on the other This is a sacredness that is simultaneously present and absent one which encompasses as Jasper himself characterises it the impossible possibility of an absolute vision The book teaches us that the sacred assumes a renewed potency when fully engaged with the creativity that happens across religion literature philosophy and the arts

Locating Values in Literature

Corina-Mihaela Beleaua, 2020-10-14. Locating Values in Literature. Goodness, Beauty, and Truth discusses the relevance of literature in the current educational process, stating that regardless of the level of study, literature provides students with the necessary skills to address real-world situations. Corina-Mihaela Beleaua posits that a curriculum that includes literature has a multitude of benefits for the mental and ethical development of students, defending the relevance of the three ancient values of goodness, beauty, and truth. Beleaua argues that literature is a significant tool for endorsing these transcendentals and actualizing their positive potentials as humanistic and moral values, acting as a symbolic manifestation of moral values that will impact readers outside of the scope of the literature itself. Scholars of literature, philosophy, and education will find this book particularly useful.
