

Introduction

There are so many different Religions practiced in the world today. There are many that we are not even aware exist. To each Religion there are many points of view, some of these points of view have been research and studied for years by many great scholars. Although there are various perspectives, each is entitled to their own, and there is no right or wrong way of thinking when it comes to religion. Each religion has different beliefs, practices and traditions that make them unique and interesting. One religion that is particularly engaging is that of the Indigenous peoples.

Religion A Studied Perspective:

Academic Study of Religions in a Cognitive, Anthropological and Sociological Perspective Tomáš Bubík, Jakub Havlíček, Silvie Kotherová, Dušan Lužný, Rudolf Havelka, 2021 The book deals with current issues of the study of religion as an academic discipline especially cognitive anthropological and sociological research of religious thought and behaviour Publikace pojednává o aktuálním problému religionistiky jako akademické disciplíny zejména o kognitivním antropologickém a sociologickým výzkumu náboženského myšlení a chování

Perspectives on Method and Theory in the Study of Religion Armin Geertz, Russel McCutcheon, 2000-04-20 This volume collects select papers on methodology in the study of religion that were originally presented at the XVIIth Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions held in Mexico City in 1995 Granted the status of adjunct proceedings for the Congress the collection opens with the editors detailed survey of the longstanding importance of discussions on methodology within the IAHR The twenty one essays which follow examine religion and the history of the study of religion within a variety of theoretical contexts The essays are organized in terms of three general sub divisions general issues in methodology from the impact of both postmodernism and reflexive anthropology on the study of religion to the politics of religious studies as practiced in different national settings reflections on the categories commonly employed by scholars working in the field e.g. religion syncretism gender New Religious Movements sacred power experience etc and finally the collection ends with a review symposium on one of the more sophisticated recent treatments of the problem of defining religion Benson Saler's Conceptualizing Religion Brill 1993 Despite carrying out their work in a variety of settings from Denmark and Finland to Britain Switzerland Germany Canada the USA and Mexico the authors all model a similar approach to studying religion as but one instance of human culture

Introduction to the Study of Religion Hillary P. Rodrigues, John S. Harding, 2023-11-29 Why do people study religion How have they studied it in the past How do we study religion today Is the academic study of religion the same as religious education These and many other questions are addressed in this engaging introduction to the discipline of religious studies Topics include Definitions of religion Perspectives in the study and teaching of religion How religion began to be studied Traditional perspectives philosophical and theological How people experience religion Perspectives in the study of religious consciousness and perception phenomenological and psychological Studying religion within communities Social and cultural perspectives anthropological sociological political and economic Judging religion Critical perspectives feminist approaches the interaction of popular literature and religion Contextual perspectives historical and comparative Themes theories and current directions This thoroughly updated second edition encourages students to think critically about the theories and methods presented Students will find arguments for the strengths and limitations of these approaches understand connections among religious studies and other intellectual movements and develop their own ideas of how they might want to go about the study of religion Summary boxes discussion questions a glossary a chronology of key figures and texts and other pedagogic aids help students grasp key concepts Geography, Religion, Gods, and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean Erica Ferg, 2020-01-16 Geography Religion Gods and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean explores the influence of geography on religion and highlights a largely unknown story of religious history in the Eastern Mediterranean. In the Levant agricultural communities of Jews, Christians and Muslims jointly venerated and largely shared three important saints or holy figures: Jewish Elijah, Christian St George and Muslim al-Khi'r. These figures share peculiar characteristics such as associations with rain, greenness, fertility and storms. Only in the Eastern Mediterranean are Elijah, St George and al-Khi'r shared between religious communities or characterized by these same agricultural attributes. Attributes that also were shared by regional religious figures from earlier time periods such as the ancient Near Eastern Storm god Baal Hadad and Levantine Zeus. This book tells the story of how that came to be and suggests that the figures share specific characteristics over a very long period of time because these motifs were shaped by the geography of the region. Ultimately, this book suggests that regional geography has influenced regional religion; that Judaism, Christianity and Islam are not historically or textually speaking separate religious traditions even if Jews, Christians and Muslims are members of distinct religious communities and that shared religious practices between members of these and other local religious communities are not unusual. Instead, shared practices arose out of a common geographical environment and an interconnected religious heritage and are a natural historical feature of religion in the Eastern Mediterranean. This volume will be of interest to students of ancient Near Eastern religions, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, sainthood, agricultural communities in the ancient Near East, Middle Eastern religious and cultural history and the relationships between geography and religion. Values - Politics - Religion: The European Values Study Regina Polak, Patrick Rohs, 2023-07-18 This open access book analyses the international data of the European Values Study (EVS) 1990/2017 with a focus on the impact of religion on political values from empirical as well as theoretical perspectives, i.e. sociology, political and cultural studies, philosophy, ethics, theology and the law. It interprets results from interdisciplinary perspectives including the viewpoints of social ethics, sociology and cultural studies, law and practical theology. In the political and public as well as media debates of the European Union, the recourse to above all European and also Christian values has played a central and controversial role in the field of politics and religion for several decades. This collection is a contribution to a qualified discourse on values in Europe by providing empirical, hermeneutical and ethical criteria for a responsible use of the concept of values. In addition to a comparison of political value systems in Western and Eastern Europe and the possible role of religion in this context, the book also deals with topics such as solidarity, economics and values, value formation and law and values. Additionally, specific population groups such as the socio-culturally marginalized strata are examined more closely. Besides current scientific analyses and interpretations of interest to researchers from various disciplines, this book also offers valuable impulses and suggestions for various multipliers in political, civil society and religious organisations as well as a sound overview for graduate students. Rethinking Islam in Europe Zekirija Sejdini, 2022-01-19 Islamic theology had to wait a long time before being granted a place in the European universities That happened above all in German speaking areas and this led to the development of new theological and religious pedagogical approaches This volume presents one such approach and discusses it from various perspectives It takes up different theological and religious pedagogical themes and reflects on them anew from the perspective of the contemporary context The primary focus is on contemporary challenges and possible answers from the perspective of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy It discusses general themes like the location of Islamic theology and religious pedagogy at secular European universities The volume also explores concrete challenges such as the extent to which Islamic religious pedagogy can be conceptualised anew how it should deal with its own theological tradition in the contemporary context and how a positive attitude towards worldview and religious plurality can be cultivated At issue here are foundations of a new interpretation of Islam that takes into account both a reflective approach to the Islamic tradition and the contemporary context In doing so it gives Muslims the opportunity to take their own thinking further

Education, Security and Intelligence Studies Liam Gearon, 2018-10-19 With intensified threats to global security from international terrorism worldwide education systems themselves face these same unprecedented security threats Schools and universities have become marked loci of interest for the monitoring of extremism and counter terrorism by security and intelligence agencies The relationship between education systems and national security is nothing new though it extends in surprising and unexpected ways into territory which is by turns open and covert even secret Acknowledging the genuine political and security concerns which have drawn educational systems ever closer to the intelligence community this book shows how and why this has happened and explains why the relationship between education and the security and intelligence communities extends beyond contemporary concerns with counter terrorism As the title of this book demonstrates this is as much an intellectual challenge as a security struggle Education Security and Intelligence Studies thus critically engages with multi disciplinary perspectives on a complex and contentious interface between systems of often secret and covert national security and intelligence and open systems of national education Delving into difficult to access and often closely guarded aspects of public life the book provides the pathfinding groundwork and theoretical modelling for research into a complex of little explored institutional and epistemological interconnectedness between universities and the security and intelligence agencies This book was originally published as a special issue of the British Journal of Educational Studies

Literature, Ethics, Morality: American Studies Perspectives Ridvan Askin, Philipp Schweighauser, 2015-10-28 This timely volume explores a wealth of North American literary texts that engage with moral and ethical dilemmas It ranges from William Dean Howells's and Henry James's realist novels to Edward Sapir's intermedial poems and from John Muir's unpublished letters and journal of his 1893 tour of the Swiss Alps to Rudy Wiebe's A Discovery of Strangers and the poetry of Robert Lowell Many of the contributions also critically engage with and reflect on some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theoretical debates about ethics such as Ludwig Wittgenstein Jürgen Habermas Emmanuel Levinas Axel Honneth Hannah Arendt John Rawls and Julia Kristeva This volume thus aptly covers the panoply of contemporary ethical and moral interventions while at the same time providing distinctively American Studies perspectives

What Has Religion Studies in Africa Been Up To? Jaco Beyers, 2023-04-05 The purpose of the book is to provide a collection of perspectives from various parts of Africa on what scholars in religion studies are currently engaged with whether it refers to topics or methodology Each chapter is written from the perspective of a scholar working within a particular context on a particular theme or topic related to religion studies Several methodologies have been implemented in each contribution to the book Each contribution applies a different methodology for the purpose of investigating a specific topic or research theme In general the majority of the contributions follow a method of critical literature review as applied to a specific field The book is not intended to provide an exhaustive list of all possible topics and themes addressed in current research in Africa From a decolonized perspective the book gives voice to African scholars who exhibit their scholarly work as related to religion studies Topics addressed include curriculum design and pedagogical approaches in teaching religion studies the relation between religion and culture in an African context religion and health religion and gender interreligious relations in Africa religion and ecology and religion and mission

The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies

Lucinda Mosher, 2022 The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies is a comprehensive authoritative creative and cutting edge anthology of fifty essays that taken as a group provide insight into and food for further thought about sub categories of a field of academic inquiry that has developed rapidly in recent decades Interreligious Studies is an academic field in which scholars deliberately draw on at least one other religion in addition to their home tradition when reflecting on worldview questions an arena in which at least one religious discourse is involved with some other discourse Hence Interreligious Studies is inherently multi disciplinary bringing together the study of religion s with methodologies from the fields of anthropology sociology psychology political science history women s studies ecology and more Interreligious Studies gives pride of place to relational intersectional and dialogical approaches as it seeks theoretical and practical insights through the examination of how religions relate to each other to their own internal diversity to various social systems to society at large A recent assessment of Interreligious Studies programs in universities and theological schools indicates that they make wide but not exclusive use of comparative and critical methods that their purposes include cultivation of religious literacy promotion of dialogue fostering of citizenship and professional preparation for leadership in multireligious contexts
