Religion And Liberation:

St. Augustine's Abbey and St. Augustine's College ,186?      Domination Or Liberation Alistair Kee,1986 In this book Dr Kee argues that in recent times there has been an interesting shift in the role of religion Historically it has been on the side of domination in the spheres of gender race and class but there are indications that it might now be on the side of liberation      Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas,Anthony B. Pinn,2010-03-08

Demonstrates the critical use of religion to challenge oppression in the U S In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Chapters cover Black Theology Womanist Theology Latino Hispanic Theology Latina Theology Asian American Theology Asian American Feminist Theology Native American Theology Native Feminist Theology Gay and Lesbian Theology and Feminist Theology Contributors Grace Ji Sun Kim Mary McClintock Fulkerson Nancy Pineda Madrid Robert Shore Goss Andrea Smith Andrew Sung Park George Tink Tinker and Benjamin Valentin      Introducing Liberation

Theology Leonardo Boff,1987      Salvation and Liberation Leonardo Boff,Clodovis Boff,1984      Analysis of Liberation Theology Nadiia Kudriashova,2019-04-11 Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Theology Comparative Religion Studies grade MA Yale University language English abstract This work focuses on liberation theology The relevance of the study is determined by the fact that the variability of Christianity in the modern period has increased and made it extremely dependent on social processes The all human spiritual crisis promotes the spread of so called religiosity without faith In some cases this happens not spontaneously but through the active transformation of the traditional religious system More and more extremist and nationalist groupings turn to Christianity as an ideological basis while they modify Christian theology in such a way that it justifies their methods of political struggle and supports their slogans These groups rely on the experience of building similar ideologies using the dominant Christian confession as a religious component namely liberation theology Liberation theology or otherwise political theology is a modification of Christianity used by freedom fighters as an ideology In fact it is a specialized consciousness of a separate social group and it aims to liberate members of this group from oppression The content and characteristics of the liberation theology are determined by the characteristics and interests of one or another oppressed social group There are several types of liberation theology in which there are three main ones Latin American Black and feminist created respectively in the interests of the poor Negroes or women The future of liberation theology directly depends on how much its representatives can move from ideal concepts to practical conclusions The Church must take more seriously the problems of injustice and oppression it must take the side of the outcasts and be a pioneer in the foreshadowing of all kinds of liberation economic social political and of course spiritual      Liberation Theology Robert McAfee Brown,1993-01-01 Brown explains and illuminates liberation theology for North American readers who may have no previous knowledge of this recent dynamic Christian movement Growing out of the experience of oppressed people in Latin America liberation theology lends a transforming power to both the study of the Bible and the Christian duty to work for justice for all God s people      Liberation Theology Ricardo Planas,1986      The Emergence of Liberation Theology Christian Smith,1991-08-27 Liberation theology is a school of Roman Catholic thought which teaches that a primary duty of the church must be to promote social and economic justice In this book Christian Smith explains how and why the liberation theology movement emerged and succeeded when and where it did      The Hope of Liberation in World Religions Miguel A. De La Torre,2008 Liberation theology emphasizes the Christian mission to bring justice to the poor and oppressed As a part of Christian theology liberation theology has been most frequently associated with the Catholic Church in Latin America This groundbreaking work seeks to identify how the theological concepts of liberation theology might be manifested within other world faith traditions This is thus the first book that attempts to find a common ground for liberation theology across religions All of the contributors are scholars who share the religion or belief system they describe Throughout they endeavor to articulate liberationist concepts from the perspective of those who have been marginalized      A Theology of Liberation Gustavo Gutiérrez,1988 This is the credo and seminal text of the movement which was later characterized as liberation theology The book burst upon the scene in the early seventies and was swiftly acknowledged as a pioneering and prophetic approach to theology which famously made an option for the poor placing the exploited the alienated and the economically wretched at the centre of a programme where the oppressed and maimed and blind and lame were prioritized at the expense of those who either maintained the status quo or who abused the structures of power for their own ends This powerful compassionate and radical book attracted criticism for daring to mix politics and religion in so explicit a manner but was also welcomed by those who had the capacity to see that its agenda was nothing more nor less than to give good news to the poor and redeem God s people from bondage      A Theology of Liberation Gustavo Gutiérrez,2001 This is the credo and seminal text of the movement known as liberation theology The book burst upon the theological scene in the early seventies and was swiftly acknowledged as a pioneering and prophetic approach which famously made a preferential option for the poor placing the exploited and the economically downtrodden at the centre of a programme to redeem God s people from bondage BOOK JACKET      The Cambridge Companion to Liberation Theology Christopher Rowland,1999-03-13 Liberation theology is widely referred to in discussions of politics and religion but not always adequately understood This Companion offers an introduction to the history and characteristics of liberation theology in its various forms in different parts of the world Authors from four continents examine the emergence and character of liberation theology in Latin America black theology Asian theology and the new situation arising from the end of the apartheid regime in South Africa The major Christian Church's attitude to liberation theology and the extent of the movement's indebtedness to Marxism are examined and a political theologian writing from another perspective of Christian theology offers an evaluation Through a sequence of eleven chapters readers are given a comprehensive description and evaluation of the different facets of this important theological and social movement There is also an Introduction relating liberation theology to the history of theology and a Select Bibliography

Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss, 2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi's entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia

Liberation Theology at the Crossroads Paul E. Sigmund, 1992 Drawing on both English and Spanish sources this critical study examines the history method and doctrines of Liberation Theology Sigmund considers the movement's origins in political circumstances in Latin America provides case studies of its role in such events as the revolution and counter revolution in Chile and examines the thought of the major liberation theologians and the position of the Vatican

The Hope of Liberation in World Religions Professor of Social Ethics and Latino/A Studies Miguel A de la Torre, 2020-11-15 Liberation theology emphasizes the Christian mission to bring justice to the poor and oppressed As a part of Christian theology liberation theology has been most frequently associated with the Catholic Church in Latin America This groundbreaking work seeks to identify how the theological concepts of liberation theology might be manifested within other world faith traditions This is thus the first book that attempts to find a common ground for liberation theology across religions All of the contributors are scholars who share the religion or belief system they describe Throughout they endeavor to articulate liberationist concepts from the perspective of those who have been marginalized Faith on the Edge Leonardo Boff, 2011-10-07 A major voice in liberation theology and once silenced for a year by the pope for his outspoken views Leonardo Boff here presents a collection of his controversial essays attacking poverty and political persecution As a Brazilian Boff is witness to and active in the liberation movement within the Catholic Church in Latin America He claims that the Church there is redefining itself as a modern populist movement It is in Latin America writes Boff that the Church of the future is being molded There are more Catholics in Latin America than on any other continent Soon more than half of the members of the Church will live here European countries with their demographic decline and meager religious creativity their theology liturgy and pastoral ministry consisting almost entirely of syntheses of material drawn from the past are gradually losing their universal relevance It is in Latin America that the Church's principal new challenges are appearing What is the relationship between the gospel and the liberation of the oppressed How can Christian love be reconciled with participation in the wild class struggle taking place around us How can Christianity help overcome the relations of international injustice prevailing in the unequal relationships between rich countries and poor ones Advocating a sympathetic but critical relationship between liberation theology and Marxism Boff claims that historical materialism is the social scientific method conducive to liberation theology He also discusses the political dimension of faith the Church's role in the struggle for human rights the nature of the popular Church the rights of the poor and the oppressed and the kind of future they may anticipate Boff's bold reflections on these and other issues make vital reading for anyone concerned with faith and justice in today's world Liberation Theologies, Postmodernity, and the Americas David B. Batstone, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

A Critical Introduction to Religion in the Americas Michelle A. Gonzalez, 2014 A Critical Introduction to Religion in the Americas argues that we cannot understand religion in the Americas without understanding its marginalized communities Despite frequently voiced doubts among religious studies scholars it makes the case that theology and particularly liberation theology is still useful but it must be reframed to attend to the ways in which religion is actually experienced on the ground That is a liberation theology that assumes a need to work on behalf of the poor can seem out of touch with a population experiencing huge Pentecostal and Charismatic growth where the focus is not on inequality or social action but on individual relationships with the divine By drawing on a combination of historical and ethnographic sources this volume provides a basic introduction to the study of religion and theology in the Latino a Black and Latin American contexts and then shows how theology can be reframed to better speak to the concerns of both religious studies and the real people the theologians work is meant to represent Informed by the dialogue partners explored throughout the text this volume presents a hemispheric approach to discussing lived religious movements While not dismissive of liberation theologies this approach is critical of their past and offers challenges to their future as well as suggestions for preventing their untimely demise It is clear that the liberation theologies of tomorrow cannot look like the liberation theologies of today

Evangelical Theologies of Liberation and Justice Mae Elise Cannon,Andrea Smith,2019-09-10 Despite the current evangelical focus on justice work evangelical theologians have not adequately developed a theological foundation for this activism In this insightful resource evangelical academics activists and pastors come together to survey the history and outlines of liberation theology opening a conversation for developing a specifically evangelical view of liberation that speaks to the critical justice issues of our time
