Schoolltime Style:

The School I'd Like Catherine Burke,Ian Grosvenor,2003-12-08 In 2001 The Guardian launched a competition called The School I d Like in which young people were asked to imagine their ideal school This vibrant groundbreaking book presents material drawn from that competition offering a unique snapshot of perceptions of today s schools by those who matter most the pupils The book is wonderfully illuminated by children s essays stories poems pictures and plans Placing their views in the centre of the debate it provides an evaluation of the democratic processes involved in teaching and learning by identifying consistencies in children s expressions of how they wish to learn highlighting particular sites of disease in the education system today illustrating how the built environment is experienced by today s children posing questions about the reconstruction of teaching and learning for the twenty first century This book offers a powerful new perspective on school reform and is essential reading for all those involved in education and childhood studies including teachers advisors policy makers academics and anyone who believes that children s voices should not be ignored School Work ,1905 Teenage Time Pamela Thurschwell,2025-07-24 Adolescence has been codified as an unpredictable experimental and liminal time Teenage Time reads this phase as queer in its framing and disruption of developmental narratives of modernity showing that the identity of the teenager as it has been culturally perceived in different epochs developing since the 1940s has shaped the temporal imaginary of the 20th and 21st century From the conception of the teenager after the Second World War through notions of rebellion and consumption peaking in the 1980s and 1990s to representations of their precarious futures amidst the political social economic and environmental uncertainties of today Pamela Thurschwell exposes British and American representations of the adolescent as both destructive and recursive in their disturbance of narrative and teleology in literature film and sub cultural history Calling on theories of queer temporality time studies psychoanalysis and Marxist accounts of modernity this book traces how the teenager is out of time and time travelling commodified anarchic futureless precarious with an uneven distribution of time in relation to race and how they confront dystopias in Young Adult catastrophe literature Covering a wide range of works this book features contemporary and YA fiction such as The Member of the Wedding American Pastoral Sula The Hate U Give The Fault in Our Stars How I Live Now Never Let Me Go The Hunger Games and They Both Die at the End and films including Donnie Darko The Breakfast Club Back to the Future Say Anything and Ghost World Original and conceptually sophisticated Thurschwell demonstrates how adolescence is formed in dialogue with a crisis in and of historical time revealing the promise and destruction of the modern teenager Public School Magazine ,1898 Manual of the School Law of New Brunswick New Brunswick,1887 School ,1908 University High School Journal ,1927 Handbook of Adolescent Development Sandy Jackson,Luc Goossens,2020-01-29 Handbook of Adolescent Development fills a gap in the literature on adolescent development and behaviour all of the authors of the various chapters were invited to include as many findings on European adolescents as possible Through this specific emphasis the handbook provides a complement to other reviews of the literature that are mostly based on North American samples The contributors are all eminent researchers in the field and the individual chapters cover their specific areas of expertise Theories of adolescence along with emotional physical and cognitive issues are explored Topics covered include families peer relations school and leisure time as well as problem areas such as depression drug consumption and delinquency Handbook of Adolescent Development also incorporates a comprehensive review of the literature in the area and considers avenues for future research This multidisciplinary text will be of interest to those studying and researching in the fields of developmental psychology sociology demography epidemiology and criminology

Resources in Education ,1998 African American Language Mary Kohn,Walt Wolfram,Charlie Farrington,Jennifer Renn,Janneke Van Hofwegen,2020-12-03 A pioneering 20 year longitudinal study of 67 African American children that illuminates how and why language changes in childhood The Sunday-school Times ,1887 Attrition of Teachers in Private Schools: Problems, Causes and Remedies Dr. Mukti Patel,2025-02-14 The economic growth of the nation is fully dependent on the quality of education which is in turn dependent on competent teachers With the growing time education in modern India gained a whole new facet and so did the role and performance of the teachers in the society Many fundamental Laws and Acts have been enacted pertaining to the improved and ongoing performance of the teachers all over the nation But as it is rightly said that the coin has two sides the journey of the teachers in the private schools have also seen their share of hardships in their career in terms of their expectations to have a more stable and revised facilities from the legislation and other governing bodies including respective school management where they are entitled to work Shortage of teachers is also a significant contributing factor that widens equity gaps in education access and learning for various classes of the society Assessing and monitoring the problem of teacher attrition is necessary to a sufficient supply of qualified competent and well trained teachers as well as to their effective deployment support and management in the teaching profession With the help of this study causes of high attrition rate among teachers in private schools are highlighted which is helpful for the schools management to identify where they went wrong The study is also helpful to suggest some remedies to handle the problem effectively
