that Creepshow is the only full collaboration between America's bestselling author of horror tales and one of the masters of modern American horror cinema. Long considered too mainstream for the director of Dawn of the Dead (1978) too comic for the author that gave audiences the film versions of Carrie (1976) and The Shining (1980) and too violent for a cinemagoing public turning away from gore cinema in the autumn of 1982, Creepshow is here reassessed by Simon Brown who examines the making and release of the film and its legacy through a comic book adaptation and two sequels. His analysis focuses on the key influences on the film not just Romero and King but also the anthology horrors of Amicus Productions, body horror cinema and the special make up effects of Tom Savini, the relationship between horror and humor and most notably the tradition of EC horror comics of the 1950s from which the film draws both its thematic preoccupations and its visual style. Ultimately the book argues that not only is Creepshow a major work in the canons of Romero and King but also that it represents a significant example of the portmanteau horror film of the blending of horror and comedy and finally decades before the career of Zack Snyder, Watchmen, Man of Steel of attempting to recreate a comic book aesthetic on the big screen.

Uncle John's New & Improved Funniest Ever Bathroom Readers' Institute, 2018-07-17 The popular bathroom reader series is back with this collection that's flush with laughs. It's new, it's improved, it's the funniest ever. Back by popular demand, this newly revised edition includes plenty of all-time favorites along with more than twenty-five pages of new content. That's page after page after page of laugh-out-loud dumb jokes, dumb jocks, toasts, pranks, kings, kittens, caboodles, and of course poorly translated kung fu movie subtitles such as "It took my seven digestive pills to dissolve your hairy crab." So whether you like your humor witty or witless, light or dark, silly or sublime, you'll laugh until your head explodes. Chortle at Dumb crooks. The robber who ran face first into a wall because he forgot to poke eye holes in his pillowcase. Witty wordplay. If Snoop Dogg were to marry Winnie the Pooh, his name would become Snoop Dogg Pooh.
