Yoakum* Mark Pascale, Esther Adler (Curator), Édouard Kopp, 2021-01-01 The extraordinary life of a captivating American artist beautifully illustrated with his dreamlike drawings Much of Joseph Elmer Yoakum s story comes from the artist himself and is almost too fantastic to believe At a young age Yoakum 1891 1972 traveled the globe with numerous circuses he later served in a segregated noncombat regiment during World War I before settling in Chicago There inspired by a dream he began his artistic career at age seventy one producing some two thousand drawings over a decade How did Yoakum gain representation in major museum collections in Chicago and New York What fueled his process which he described as a spiritual unfoldment This volume delves into the friendships Yoakum forged with the Chicago Imagists that secured his place in art history explores the religious outlook that may have helped him cope with a racially fractured city and examines his complicated relationship to African American and Native American identities With hundreds of beautiful color reproductions of his dreamlike drawings it offers the most comprehensive study of the artist s work illuminating his vivid and imaginative creativity and giving definition and dimension to his remarkable biography Spirit of Place Susan Owens, 2020-09-15 Lyrical and compelling Spirit of Place examines the British landscape as it s portrayed in literature and art English landscape painting is often said to be an eighteenth century invention yet when we look for representations of the countryside in British art and literature we find a story that begins with Old English poetry and winds its way through history all the way up to the present day In Spirit of Place Susan Owens illuminates how the British landscape has been framed reimagined and reshaped by generations of creative thinkers To offer a panoramic view of the countryside throughout history Owens dives into the work of writers and artists from Bede and the Gawain Poet to Thomas Gainsborough Jane Austen J M W Turner and John Constable and from Paul Nash and Barbara Hepworth to Robert Macfarlane Richly illustrated including manuscript pages early maps paintings film stills and photographs Spirit of Place is a compelling narrative of how we have been shown the British landscape
