Divine Simplicity Steven J. Duby,2015-12-17 Steven J Duby examines the doctrine of divine simplicity This discussion is centered around the three distinguishing features grounding in biblical exegesis use of Thomas Aquinas and the Reformed Orthodox and the writings of modern systematic and philosophical theologians Duby outlines the general history of the Christian doctrine of divine simplicity and discusses the methodological traits and essential contents of the dogmatic account He substantiates the claims of the doctrine of divine simplicity by demonstrating that they are implied and required by the scriptural account of God Duby considers how simplicity is inferred from God s singularity and aseity as well as how it is inferred from God s immutability and infinity and the Christian doctrine of creation The discussion ends with the response to major objections to simplicity namely that the doctrine does not pay heed to the plurality of the divine attributes that it eradicates God s freedom in creating the world and acting toward us and that it does not cohere with the personal distinctions to be made in the doctrine of the Trinity

The Nobel Peace Prize Fredrik S. Heffermehl, 2010-08-19 In this groundbreaking and controversial critique of the selections of Nobel Peace Prize winners an eminent Norwegian lawyer and peace activist calls for its return to legal and moral compliance with the will of Alfred Nobel who wished to support disarmament to prevent war The Nobel Peace Prize is the world s most coveted award galvanizing the world's attention for 110 years. In recent decades it has also become the world's most reviled award as heads of militarized states and out and out warmongers and terrorists have been showered with peace prizes. Delving into previously unpublished primary sources, Fredrik Heffermehl reveals the history of the inner workings of the Norwegian Nobel Committee as it has come under increasing political, geopolitical and commercial pressures to make inappropriate awards. As a Norwegian lawyer, Heffermehl makes the case that the Norwegian politicians entrusted with the Nobel peace awards have brushed aside the legal requirements in Scandinavian estate law using the prize to promote their own political and personal interests instead of the peace ideas Alfred Nobel had in mind. Evaluating each of the 119 Nobel Peace Prizes awarded between 1901 and 2009, the author tracks the ever-widening divergence of the committee's selections from Nobel's intentions and concludes that all but one of the last ten prizes are illegitimate under the law.

Ritual Performance in Early Chinese Thought Thomas Radice, 2024-11-14. Examining early Chinese ritual discourse during the Warring States and early Western Han Periods, this book reveals how performance became a fundamental feature of ritual and politics in early China. Through a dramaturgical lens, Thomas Radice explores the extent to which performer-spectator relationships influenced all aspects of early Chinese religious, ethical and political discourse. Arguing that the Confucians conceived ritual as primarily a dramaturgical matter, this book demonstrates not only that theatricality was necessary for expression and deception in a community of spectators but also how a theatrical presence ultimately became essential to all forms of public life in early China. Thomas Radice illuminates previously unexplored connections between early Chinese texts, aesthetics and traditions.

The Cosmic Journey in the Book of Revelation Joel M. Rothman, 2023-05-18. Joel M. Rothman considers the significance of cosmology in biblical and extra-biblical texts and the role of the cosmic journey in many apocalyptic narratives. He posits that Revelation's narrative likewise takes the hearer on a virtual journey through a cosmic story space of great theological significance. While scholarship commonly assumes a three-tiered cosmos in Revelation, Rothman argues that Revelation's narrative operates in a four-tiered cosmos with the hyper-heaven sitting above the sky, heaven, earth and abyssal depths, a cosmic story space that is recreated in the imagination of the hearers. Beginning with a methodology of visual narrative reading, Rothman then discusses the assumptions and existing conceptions regarding heaven and earth. He stresses that Revelation does not exhibit tension in its portrayal of heaven between heaven as a site of conflict and heaven as the realm in which God truly reigns but rather shows readers a sky/heaven characterised by archetypal conflict between powerful sky beings and a hyper-heaven defined by full recognition of the Throne. In journeying through the sky structure and God space and by analysing the four cosmic layers in operation, the distinct nature of the two sky spaces, cosmic change and the ideological import of the cosmic structure, Rothman demonstrates that the existence of the hyper-heaven in contradistinction with the limited-lived cosmos of earth and sky/heaven is a present guarantee of the final cosmic transformation that creates a new space for human life exclusive of imperial/draconian elements.
