Over the past 25 years that I have been associated with Scottish heritage events I ve witnessed a great deal of effort being expended on refining and defining everything associated with Scottish Clans However with a couple of exceptions little effort seems to have gone into giving the same amount of focus to the identification of surnames associated with Scotland who are not linked to a clan This has been a problem for those of us who are attempting to help every visitor attending these events find their Scottish connection Until now there has been little detailed quality reference materials to adequately help us A necessary distinction to remember and share is the fact that there is a misperception that Scotland s people are centered strictly around the clan structure Clans represent less than one third of all the people of Scotland The non clan families are city dwellers They ve not declared fealty to a clan chief but provide goods services and labor in the regions in which they reside The information collected on this portion of Scotland s people comes from various publicly available sources such as Scottish government regional administration church birth marriage death and transportation deportation records Regarding the latter source there were no restrictions on the transportation of the subjects of England English Irish Scots Welsh to the Americas Caribbean and Australia Information extracted from these transportation records focused only on those transported prisoners specifically identified as Scottish Prisoner transportation records to the Americas spanned the period 1600 1776 while those sent to Australia spanned the period 1776 1830

At the start of the 1700s the life of Scottish clansmen was settled compared to the past This book describes how Clan families lived simple lives in primitive homes The Battle of Culloden in 1746 changed Scotland forever Clansmen were now subject to English justice prohibited from wearing traditional clothing and carrying weapons Clan chiefs morphed into hard nosed landlords and ordinary clansmen faced a different and difficult future with challenges never experienced by their forefathers Land reform and the introduction of sheep displaced Gaelic Scots who had to either live elsewhere become crofters or emigrate The development of crofting communities dependant on growing potatoes and the lives of the people who lived in them is an essential part of this book While focused on Mull and Iona it is a fascinating story about the hardship that tenants experienced throughout Scotland Disease that decimated potato crops in 1846 caused famine starvation and great poverty People lost their livelihoods and were evicted from their homes Evictions starvation and government policy led to an upsurge in emigration Until economic conditions improved during the Crimean War emigration played a key role in the salvation of a starving population The Centennial Cure Meaghan Elizabeth Beaton, 2017-01-01

This book examines the intersection of state policy cultural development and commemoration during Canada's 1967 centennial celebrations It explores four initiatives that were undertaken in Nova Scotia to mark this anniversary and demonstrates one province's response to Lamontagne's appeal to stem Canada's cultural poverty These initiatives also reflected those larger social cultural economic and political transformations that took place in postwar Nova Scotia Further they help us understand the province's experience within the broader context of the development of modern Canadian cultural and social history The Caledonian , 1920
