Craft Entrepreneurship Annette Naudin, Karen Patel, 2020-12-10 Craft practice has experienced a sharp rise in popularity since the late 2000s partly through the aura of the analogue and the desire for authentic handmade products in an increasingly fast paced digitalised world Luckman 2015 but also because of digital platforms such as Etsy and social media enabling anyone to become a craft entrepreneur This book brings together historical policy and individual narratives to inform a broad understanding of craft entrepreneurship Drawing on case studies from around the world Craft Entrepreneurship considers questions of identity community and the digital in craft entrepreneurship In doing so it finds craft activities to be positioned between or across the arts heritage notions of a bohemian lifestyle and the challenges of micro entrepreneurship By engaging with the contradictions and fragility of sustaining a craft practice the chapters in this book contribute to different perspectives for entrepreneurship studies The contributions to this volume illustrate the craft entrepreneurs identity motivation and sense of creative purpose through their craft as these collide with the tensions brought about through entrepreneurship

Representations of Authority in Scotland and the British Isles Kate Buchanan,Lucinda H.S. Dean,2016-05-20 What use is it to be given authority over men and lands if others do not know about it Furthermore what use is that authority if those who know about it do not respect it or recognise its jurisdiction And what strategies and language written and spoken visual and auditory material cultural and political did those in authority throughout the medieval and early modern era use to project and make known their power These questions have been crucial since regulations for governance entered society and are found at the core of this volume In order to address these issues from an historical perspective this collection of essays considers representations of authority made by a cross section of society within the British Isles Arranged in thematic sections the 14 essays in the collection bridge the divide between medieval and early modern to build up understanding of the developments and continuities that can be followed across the centuries in question Whether crown or noble government or church burgh or merchant all desired power and influence but their means of representing authority were very different. These essays encompass a myriad of methods demonstrating power and disseminating the image of authority including material culture, art, literature, architecture and landscapes, saintly cults, speeches and propaganda, martial posturing and strategic alliances, music, liturgy and ceremonial display. Thus, this interdisciplinary collection illuminates the variable forms in which authority was presented by key individuals and institutions in Scotland and the British Isles. By placing these within the context of the European powers with whom they interacted, this volume also underlines the unique relationships developed between the people and those who exercised authority over them. "Craft, Space and Interior Design, 1855-2005"

Sandra Alföldy, 2017-07-05. Constructed space is defined by its shape, by the materials with which it is enclosed and by the objects that are placed within or decorate its exterior or interior. The interaction of these crafted objects or decorated surfaces with space provides viewers or inhabitants with visual clues about the environment as well as visual cues about decorum; viewers can know what kind of behaviour is expected and what the space means. Furnishings and dress, textile panels and clay pots, stained glass and gesso panels, all defined as craft or decorative art, give architectural space defined as high art its character; without craft, architecture is empty and devoid of meaning. This engaging collection of essays presents the first sustained exploration of the relationship of craft to architectural spaces. The book unravels the complex ways in which craft controls, manipulates, organises and defines space to highlight how the relationship between craft and space can be understood as a form of communication between related parts that combine to form a unified whole. With appendix. Revised and brought down to 1895 by F.G. Dougall Robert Douie, 1895 The Cutting Edge Catriona Baird, Rose Watban, 2007. This book reveals how the time-honoured tradition of Scottish craftwork has been carried forward. Historically, Scottish crafts held a unique position because of their design, use of materials and their connections to ancestral roots.
