"Craft, Space and Interior Design, 1855-2005" Sandra Alföldy, 2017-07-05 Constructed space is defined by its shape by the materials with which it is enclosed and by the objects that are placed within or decorate its exterior or interior The interaction of these crafted objects or decorated surfaces with space provides viewers or inhabitants with visual clues about the environment as well as visual cues about decorum viewers can know what kind of behaviour is expected and what the space means Furnishings and dress textile panels and clay pots stained glass and gesso panels all defined as craft or decorative art give architectural space defined as high art its character without craft architecture is empty and devoid of meaning This engaging collection of essays presents the first sustained exploration of the relationship of craft to architectural spaces The book unravels the complex ways in which craft controls manipulates organises and defines space to highlight how the relationship between craft and space can be understood as a form of communication between related parts that combine to form a unified whole

Persistent Ruskin Keith Hanley, 2016-05-13 Examining the wide ranging implications of Ruskin's engagement with his contemporaries and followers this collection is organized around three related themes Ruskin's intellectual legacy and the extent to which its address to working men and women and children was realised in practice Ruskin's followers and their sites of influence especially those related to the formation of collections museums archives and galleries representing values and ideas associated with Ruskin and the extent to which Ruskin's work constructed a world wide network of followers movements and social gestures that acknowledge his authority and influence As the introduction shows Ruskin's continuing digital presence is striking and makes a case for Ruskin's persistent presence The collection begins with essays on Ruskin's intellectual presence in nineteenth century thought with some emphasis on his interest in the education of women This section is followed by one on Ruskin's followers from the mid nineteenth century into twentieth century modernism that looks at a broad range of cultural activities that sought to further repudiate or exemplify Ruskin's work and teaching Working class education the Ruskinian periodical plays and science fiction are all considered along with the Bloomsbury Group's engagement with Ruskin's thought and writing Essays on Ruskin abroad in America Australia and India round out the collection
