Scrapbooking Your Life Through Poetry:

Scrapbooking Your Life Through Poetry Adam Eddie Albrecht, 2005 Scrapbooking Your Life Through Poetry is written by a storyteller someone that tells stories through the eyes of others around the world Our different lives around the world are like a scrapbook Some have happy memories and others may have had sad memories Anyone that scrapbooks their own life onto the pages of a scrapbook would then see life a little bit differently That is why I wrote these poems and put them into a book for you to read to have people around the world see and understand what others might see through the lives of their own I hope my poems will make you think twice on what others may do in their own everyday lives which are little bit different from your own Whenever I have people read my poems they always get very emotional because of the storyteller behind the story
