America's New Racial Battle Lines Rogers M. Smith,Desmond King,2024-05-02 A sobering portrait of the United States divided racial politics For nearly two decades Rogers M Smith and Desmond King have charted

the shifting racial policy alliances that have shaped American politics across different eras In America's New Racial Battle Lines they show that US racial policy debates are undergoing fundamental change Disputes over colorblind versus race conscious policies have given way to new lines of conflict Today's conservatives promise to protect traditionalist predominantly white Christian Americans against what they call the radical Left Meanwhile today's progressives seek not just to integrate American institutions but to more fully transform and repair pervasive systemic racism Drawing on interviews with activists surveys social network analyses and comprehensive reviews of federal state and local policies and advocacy groups Smith and King map the memberships and goals of two rival racial policy alliances and delineate the contrasting stories each side tells They also show that these increasingly polarized racial policy alliances are substantially funded on both the Left and Right Placing today's conflicts in theoretical and historical perspectives Smith and King analyze where these intensifying clashes may take the nation in the years ahead They highlight the great potential for mounting violence as well as the remaining possibilities for finding common ground
