Screening Québec Scott MacKenzie, 2004 Publisher Description      Cinema of Pain Liz Czach, André

Loiselle, 2020-07-29 Since the defeat of the pro sovereigntists in the 1995 Quebec referendum the loss of a cohesive nationalistic vision in the province has led many Quebecois to use their ancestral origins to inject meaning into their everyday lives A Cinema of Pain argues that this phenomenon is observable in a pervasive sense of nostalgia in Quebec culture and is especially present in the province's vibrant but deeply wistful cinema In Quebecois cinema nostalgia not only denotes a sentimental longing for the bucolic pleasures of bygone French Canadian traditions but as this edited collection suggests it evokes the etymological sense of the term which underscores the element of pain always associated with the longing for a return home nostos Whether it is in grandiloquent historical melodramas such as Saphin un homme et son pch Binam 2002 intimate realist dramas like Tout ce que tu possèdes Mond 2012 charming art films like C R A Z Y Vallée 2005 or even gory horror movies like Sur le Seuil Tessier 2003 the contemporary Quebecois screen projects an image of shared suffering that unites the nation through a melancholy search for home      Challenge for Change Thomas Waugh, Michael Brendan

Baker, Ezra Winton, 2010-02-01 Pioneering participatory social change oriented media the program had a national and international impact on documentary film making yet this is the first comprehensive history and analysis of its work The volume's contributors study dozens of films produced by the program their themes aesthetics and politics and evaluate their legacy and the program's place in Canadian Quebecois and world cinema An informative and nuanced look at a cinematic movement Challenge for Change reemphasizes not just the importance of the NFB and its programs but also the role documentaries can play in improving the world      From Old Quebec to La Belle Province Nicole Neatby, 2018-11-30

Tourism promoters strive to brand their destinations in anticipation of what they think travellers hope to experience In turn travel writers react in part to destinations in line with their expectations While several scholars have documented such patterns elsewhere these have remained understudied in the case of Quebec despite the frequency with which the province was branded and rebranded and its status as a major North American travel destination in the decades leading up to Expo 67 The first comprehensive history of Quebec tourism promotion and travel writing From Old Quebec to La Belle Province details changing marketing strategies and shows how these efforts consistently mirrored and strengthened French Quebec's evolving national identity Nicole Neatby also takes into account the contentious role of English speaking promoters in Montreal belying the view that Quebec was unvaryingly represented and appreciated for being old Taking a comparative approach Neatby draws on books and a wide array of newspapers popular and specialized magazines and written and visual sources from outside the tourist genre to reveal how the distinct national and cultural identities of English Canadians Americans and French Quebecers profoundly shaped their expectations and reactions to the province From Old Quebec to La Belle Province traces and explains shifting promotional priorities for tourism and travel writers varying reactions over the course of four decades and how these attitudes harmonized with evolving national identities

Projecting Canada Zoë Druick, 2007-02-22 Based on newly uncovered archival information and a close reading of numerous NFB films Projecting Canada explores the NFB's involvement with British Empire communication theory and American social science Using a critical cultural policy studies framework Druick develops the concept of government realism to describe films featuring ordinary people as representative of segments of the population She demonstrates the close connection between NFB production policies and shifting techniques developed in relation to the evolution of social science from the 1940s to the present and argues that government policy has been the overriding factor in determining the ideology of NFB films Projecting Canada offers a compelling new perspective on both the development of the documentary form and the role of cultural policy in creating essential spaces for aesthetic production

Sustainable Resilience in Women's Film and Video Organizations Rosanna Maule, 2023-07-14 This book illustrates a distinctive lineage of critical interventions in moving image culture and in the public sphere through the trajectories of a small number of film and video organizations established between the 1970s and the early 1980s in Western Europe and North America mainly by women and still operative today The six case studies examined Drac M gic Women Make Movies Groupe Intervention Vid o Leeds Animation Workshop bildwechsel Centre Audiovisuel Simone de Beauvoir have maintained a discrete yet continuing presence within an audiovisual industry and a cultural system dominated by institutionalized and corporate forms of production and distribution Their longevity quite a rarity in the independent circuit makes a strong case for the sustainability of feminist LGBTQ media activism in the public sphere in spite of its low key profile This volume will be of interest to academicians of history and communication studies feminist and LGBTQ topics and gender related cinematic culture

The Education of the Filmmaker in Africa, the Middle East, and the Americas M. Hjort, 2013-07-31 Using case studies from Nigeria Qatar the United States the West Indies and others the contributors to this volume examine aspects such as audience response film education for children and the impact on crime in the various studios clubs film festivals NGOs peripatetic workshops and alternative film schools where filmmaking is taught

Canadian Television Marian Bredin, Scott Henderson, Sarah A. Matheson, 2012-06-01 Canadian Television Text and Context explores the creation and circulation of entertainment television in Canada from the interdisciplinary perspective of television studies Each chapter connects arguments about particular texts of Canadian television to critical analysis of the wider cultural social and economic contexts in which they are created The book surveys the commercial and technological imperatives of the Canadian television industry the shifting role of the CBC as Canada's public broadcaster the dynamics of Canada's multicultural and multiracial audiences and the function of television's star system Foreword by The Globe and Mail's television critic John Doyle

The Cinema of Hockey Iri Cermak, 2017-02-13 Ice hockey has featured in North American films since the early days Hockey's sizable cinematic repertoire explores different views of the sport including the role of aggression the business of sports race and gender and the role of women in the game This critical study focuses on hockey themes in more than 50 films and television movies from the U S and Canada spanning several decades Depictions of historical games are discussed including the 1980 Miracle on Ice and the 1972 Summit Series National myths that inform ideas of the hockey player are examined Production techniques that enhance hockey as on screen spectacle are covered

Northern Getaway Dominique Brégent-Heald,2022-10-15 For more than a century posters advertisements and brochures have characterized Canada as a desirable tourist destination offering spectacular scenery wild animals outdoor recreation and state of the art accommodations However these explicitly commercial displays are not the only marketing tools at the country s disposal beginning in the 1890s film also played a role in selling Canada In Northern Getaway Dominique Br gent Heald investigates the connections between film and tourism during the first half of the twentieth century exploring the economic pedagogical geopolitical and socio cultural contexts and aspirations of tourism films From the first moving images of the 1890s through the end of the 1950s a complex web of public and private stakeholders in Canadian tourism experimented sometimes in collaboration with Hollywood with a variety of film forms 16 mm or 35 mm feature or short films fiction or nonfiction professional or amateur filmmakers to promote Canada Spectators particularly Americans saw Canada as a tourist destination on screens in motion picture theatres schools and fairgrounds Rooted in settler colonial representations that celebrate the nation s unspoiled but welcoming wilderness landscapes these films also characterize Canada as a technologically and industrially advanced settler country Using evidence from a wide range of archival sources and drawing from current scholarship in film history and tourism studies Northern Getaway demonstrates how Canada was an innovator in using film to shape and project a recognizable destination brand

Canadian Cinema Since the 1980s David L. Pike,2012-12-06 Award winning author David L Pike offers a unique focus on the crucial quarter century in Canadian filmmaking when the industry became a viable force on the international stage Pike provides a lively personal and accessible history of the most influential filmmakers and movements of both Anglo Canadian and Quebecois cinema from popular movies to art film and everything in between Along with in depth studies of key directors including David Cronenberg Patricia Rozema and Denys Arcand Jean Claude Lauzon Robert Lepage L a Pool Atom Egoyan and Guy Maddin Canadian Cinema since the 1980s reflects on major themes and genres and explores the regional and cultural diversity of the period Pike positions Canadian filmmaking at the frontlines of a profound cinematic transformation in the age of global media and presents fresh perspectives on both its local and international contexts Making a significant advance in the study of the film industry of the period Canadian Cinema since the 1980s is also an ideal text for students researchers and Canadian film enthusiasts

The Everyday Justin Derry,Martin Parrot,2014-10-17 The Everyday Experiences Concepts and Narratives is an inter disciplinary book problematizing the slippery notion of Everyday Life Contributing to a tradition of 20th century scholarly work focusing on Everyday Life this book specifically attends to the multiple ways that the quotidian aspects of our day to day existence become knotted into situated narratives and concepts In their depth and breadth the chapters compiled here all work with an understanding of everyday life that is i Chronicle of a Camera Norris Pope, 2013-02-15 This volume provides a history of the most consequential 35mm motion picture camera introduced in North America in the quarter century following the Second World War the Arriflex 35 It traces the North American history of this camera from 1945 through 1972 when the first lightweight self blimped 35mm cameras became available Chronicle of a Camera emphasizes theatrical film production documenting the Arriflex s increasingly important role in expanding the range of production choices styles and even content of American motion pictures in this period The book s exploration culminates most strikingly in examples found in feature films dating from the 1960s and early 1970s including a number of films associated with what came to be known as the Hollywood New Wave The author shows that the Arriflex prompted important innovation in three key areas it greatly facilitated and encouraged location shooting it gave cinematographers new options for intensifying visual style and content and it stimulated low budget and independent production Films in which the Arriflex played an absolutely central role include Bullitt The French Connection and most significantly Easy Rider Using an Arriflex for car mounted shots hand held shots and zoom lens shots led to greater cinematic realism and personal expression

Film and the City George Melnyk, 2014-05-01 Most Canadians are city dwellers a fact often unacknowledged by twentieth century Canadian films with their preference for themes of wilderness survival or rural life Modernist Canadian films tend to support what film scholar Jim Leach calls the nationalist realist project a documentary style that emphasizes the exoticism and mythos of the land Over the past several decades however the hegemony of Anglo centrism has been challenged by francophone and First Nations perspectives and the character of cities altered by a continued influx of immigrants and the development of cities as economic and technological centers No longer primarily defined through the lens of rural nostalgia Canadian urban identity is instead polyphonic diverse constructed through multiple discourses and mediums an exchange rather than a strict orientation Taking on the urban as setting and subject filmmakers are ideally poised to create and reflect multiple versions of a single city Examining fourteen Canadian films produced from 1989 to 2007 including Denys Arcand s J sus de Montr al 1989 Jean Claude Lauzon s L olo 1992 Mina Shum s Double Happiness 1994 Cl ment Virgo s Rude 1995 and Guy Maddin s My Winnipeg 2007 Film and the City is the first comprehensive study of Canadian film and urbanity the totality of urban culture and life Drawing on film and urban studies and building upon issues of identity formation in Canadian studies Melnyk considers how filmmakers films and urban audiences experience represent and interpret urban spatiality visuality and orality In this way Film and the City argues that Canadian narrative film of the postmodern period has aided in articulating a new national identity

The Films of Denys Arcand Jim Leach, 2020-07-17 Denys Arcand has been making films in Quebec for nearly sixty years The Films of Denys Arcand illuminates his films in the context of the massive changes in Quebec society during that period It explores the work of a major director who has achieved international success and some key issues in film studies and Canadian studies

French North America in the Shadows of Conquest Ryan André Brasseaux, 2020-12-29 French North America in the Shadows of Conquest is an interdisciplinary postcolonial and continental history of Francophone North America across the long twentieth century revealing hidden histories that so deeply shaped the course of North America Modern French North America was born from the process of coming to terms with the idea of conquest after the fall of New France The memory of conquest still haunts those 20 million Francophones who call North America home The book re examines the contours of North American history by emphasizing alliances between Acadians Cajuns and Qu b cois and French Canadians in their attempt to present a unified challenge against the threat of assimilation linguistic extinction and Anglophone hegemony It explores cultural trauma narratives and the social networks Francophones constructed and shows how North American history looks radically different from their perspective This book presents a missing chapter in the annals of linguistic and ethnic differences on a continent defined in part by its histories of dispossession It will be of interest to scholars and students of American and Canadian history particularly those interested in French North America as well as ethnic and cultural studies comparative history the American South and migration

Locating Migrating Media Greg Elmer, Charles H. Davis, Janine Marchessault, John McCullough, 2012-07-10 Locating Migrating Media details the extent to which media productions both televisual and cinematic have sought out new and cheaper shot locations creative staff and financing around the world The book contributes to debates about media globalization focusing on the local impact of new sites of media production The book s chapters also question the role that film and television industries and local and regional governments play in broader economic develop and tax incentive schemes While metaphors of transportation mobility fluidity and change continue to serve as key concepts and frames for understanding contemporary media industries products and processes the essays in this book look to local spaces neighborhoods cultural workers and stories to ground the global that is to interrogate the effect of media globalization before during and after film and television shooting and onsite production By locating migrating media these chapters seek to determine the political economic and cultural conditions that produce contemporary forms of televisual and cinematic storytelling and how these processes affect the inhabitants the look and the very geopolitical future of local communities neighborhoods cities and regions The focus on relocated screen production highlights the act of film and television making both aesthetically and economically To locate migrating media is therefore to determine the political and cultural economies of globalized sets and stages be they in new studios or on city streets or perhaps most importantly in our imaginations
