Just For Fun Lorin Hildreth Atkins, John Hildreth Atkins, 2014-06-17 This is a book of a collection of short stories written by my now deceased father He called them humorous I call them a great example of the inner workings of a sociopath and sexual deviant Though he went out of his way not to use a swear word he did write a lot about sexual things My father was abusive and considered himself the center of the universe Everybody else was stupid and did not deserve to share the same air as him The idea that he was special was something he was taught by his mother Because of that he believed that he was above the law and absolutely above the rules those were for lesser mortals There are some funny stories in here For that reason I recommend that everybody should read it You get the best of both worlds One you get to be entertained Second you get schooled on how these degenerates think That is a huge advantage in a world gone amuck Oh and did I say that it was also entertaining Sometimes even funny
