Short Stories of Life and Its Consequences Jay Hip, Jerome Hipscher, 2002-08 Mindreadings Femi Oyeboade, 2009

The authors explore the description and representation of mental states lived distress character of psychology and psychological institutional practices Blind Narrations and Artistic Subjectivities Aravinda Bhat, 2023-07-11 Blind Narrations and Artistic Subjectivities Corporeal Refractions makes an important contribution to the field of blindness studies by highlighting the centrality of blindness in literary compositions It presents a critical interpretation of selected prose writings by three blind authors Argentine poet short story writer and essayist Jorge Luis Borges Australian religious educator and diarist John M Hull and the American memoirist and poet Stephen Kuusisto The volume discusses themes like theorising the corporeality of writing aesthetic turn to the experience of blindness altered sensation and self understanding lived experience of growing blind self knowledge through interaction with the world artistic subjectivity narrative choices and the implied author This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of blindness studies disability studies arts and aesthetics literature cultural studies and philosophy Representative American Short Stories Robert William Chambers, 1923

Secret Histories David Wyatt, 2010-11-01 Secret Histories claims that the history of the nation is hidden in plain sight within the pages of twentieth century American literature David Wyatt argues that the nation's fiction and nonfiction expose a secret history that cuts beneath the straight histories of our official accounts And it does so by revealing personal stories of love work family war and interracial romance as they were lived out across the decades of the twentieth century Wyatt reads authors both familiar and neglected examining double consciousness in the post Civil War era through works by Charles W Chesnutt W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington He reveals aspects of the Depression in the fiction of F Scott Fitzgerald Anzia Yezierska and John Steinbeck Period by period Wyatt's nuanced readings recover the felt sense of life as it was lived opening surprising dimensions of the critical issues of a given time The rise of the women's movement for example is revived in new appraisals of works by Eudora Welty Ann Petry and Mary McCarthy Running through the examination of individual works and times is Wyatt's argument about reading itself Reading is not a passive activity but an empathetic act of cocreation what Faulkner calls overpassing to love Empathetic reading recognizes and relives the emotional cultural and political dimensions of an individual and collective past And discovering a usable American past as Wyatt shows enables us to confront the urgencies of our present moment Readers and Writers in Ovid's Heroides Efrossini Spentzou, 2003-03-13

This is the first book length study to reconstruct the experiences of the abandoned heroines of the Heroides which have been largely ignored by past criticism Dr Spentzou seeks ways to isolate characterize and release the female voice and experience within Ovid's male authored text Building on a wide range of ancient as well as modern images and reflections on gender and writing the book attempts to map the relationship between gendered sensitivities and experience and generic expression and choices Dr Spentzou uses the insight gained by the boom of intertextual studies in recent Latin scholarship to go a step further and address explicitly the ideologies of intertextual studies This is a book about readers and reading just as much as about women and gender and it is also an in depth study of the intricate and heated negotiations behind the interpretative act

The Literary News Frederick Leypoldt, 1899

Moral Imagination Mark Johnson, 1993 The Enlightenment idea that reason creates fixed moral rules that specify the right thing to do is mistaken according to Johnson because it misses the ways in which human conceptual systems are grounded in bodily experience and it ignores the expansive and constructive nature of our best moral thinking Since new findings in cognitive science explain reasoning in terms of prototypes frame semantics metaphor and basic level experience Johnson contends that we must revise our views of ethics and adopt an alternative conception of moral reflection one that is thoroughly imaginative
