

A basketball hoop and net are visible in the background, slightly out of focus. The hoop is a reddish-brown color, and the net is white. The background is a dark, solid color.

You can practice shooting eight hours a day, but if your technique is wrong, then all you become is very good at shooting the wrong way. Get the fundamentals down and the level of everything you do will rise.

Shooting In 8 Days:

Shooting and Fishing, 1901 Urban and Regional Planning and Development Rajiv R. Thakur, Ashok K. Dutt, Sudhir K. Thakur, George M. Pomeroy, 2020-02-10 This book discusses urban planning and regional development practices in the twentieth century and ways in which they are currently being transformed. It addresses questions such as: What are the factors affecting planning dynamics at local, regional, national, and global scales? With the push to adopt a market paradigm in land development and infrastructure, the relationship between resource management, sustainable development, and the role of governance has been transformed. Centralized planning is giving way to privatization, not only in the traditional regions but also in newly emerging regions of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. Further attempts are being made to bring planning-related decision making closer to the people who are most affected by it. Presenting a collection of studies from scholars around the world and highlighting recent advances in the field, the book is a valuable reference guide for those engaged in urban transformations, whether as graduate students, researchers, practitioners, or policymakers. Short Films 101 Frederick Levy, 2004-05-04 Where does a young filmmaker begin? With the right short film concept and this book. The right short can be a filmmaker's business card in Hollywood. Here's the authoritative handbook by one of Hollywood's most connected insiders that offers a step-by-step guide through the entire creative process of shooting a short film, as well as expert advice from established filmmakers and a final game plan for promoting and selling the film once it's in the can. Topics covered include: Concept, Budget, Finding equipment, Assembling a crew, Casting, Arranging for location, Locating festivals and ancillary markets, Working with the unions, Film vs. digital video. Plus: A list of film schools, Oscar-winning shorts and nominees, A selection of short film festivals, Actual short film budgets, Sample scripts and shooting schedules. A helpful short film glossary. Guide to Postproduction for TV and Film Barbara Clark, Susan Spohr, 2013-08-22 Are you an associate producer who needs to juggle projects and vendors while keeping on top of the latest trends and formats? Or an independent filmmaker who can't afford a misstep in the crucial postproduction phase? Take a step back and get a clear overview of the process. This guide will show you how to navigate each step in taking a TV or film project from production to final delivery. Start by getting a handle on the critical issues of budgets and schedules. From there, you'll learn the smoothest way to manage dailies, sound editing, and completion. Detailed instructions and checklists for film, video, and High Definition procedures will teach you new ways of doing things and help you avoid costly errors. The second edition is fully updated and information-packed. There is extensive new material on high definition as it affects dailies, editing, and delivery. The chapter on the film laboratory has been expanded further to include discussions on troubleshooting, film damage, and YCMs, which are so important in maintaining film assets. The latest information on film restoration, digital technologies, acquisitions, and a chapter on what's on the horizon round out the update. School Shootings Glenn W.
