Christianity and Teetotalism. A voice from the Army. [A collection of letters from soldiers and others.] Compiled by Miss S. Robinson ... With an introduction by ... J. Guthrie Miss Sarah ROBINSON,1876 Alcohol, Addiction and Christian Ethics Christopher C. H. Cook,2006-05-04 Addictive disorders are characterised by a division of the will in which the addict is attracted both by a desire to continue the addictive behaviour and also by a desire to stop it Academic perspectives on this predicament usually come from clinical and scientific standpoints with the moral model rejected as outmoded But Christian theology has a long history of thinking and writing on such problems and offers insights which are helpful to scientific and ethical reflection upon the nature of addiction Chris Cook reviews Christian theological and ethical reflection upon the problems of alcohol use and misuse from biblical times until the present day Drawing particularly upon the writings of St Paul the Apostle and Augustine of Hippo a critical theological model of addiction is developed Alcohol dependence is also viewed in the broader ethical perspective of the use and misuse of alcohol within communities Christianity and Teetotalism. A Voice from the Army ,1876
