John Osborne Peter Whitebrook, 2015-10-21 This book has been nominated for both the Sheridan Morley Prize for biography and the Theatre Book Prize A story of a man whose star rose very quickly and very early and fell slowly and inexorably A story of a man who knew himself perhaps too well but not particularly wisely It is exhilarating perplexing and tragic This new biography offers the most rounded portrait of Osborne yet seen By embedding him in a social and cultural as well as a biographical context Whitebrook presents Osborne in a way that has not been attempted before It is the first book to properly explore the importance of his early collaborative work with Anthony Creighton his lasting friendship with Pamela Lane and his deep spiritual beliefs It reveals the autobiographical background to Look Back in Anger and Watch It Come Down and places his literary achievement within a quintessentially English tradition Seldom has a dramatist so compulsively revealed so much of himself his flaws his anxieties his passion and his hatred as John Osborne His was a dazzlingly high octane performance and in a succession of increasingly ambitious plays written during the 50s and 60s he was able to unite a profound intuitive intelligence with a caustically honest depth of feeling By refusing to submit to caution he laid bare in some of the most poetic and incendiary language heard in the 20th century theatre not only his own struggles and contradictions but those of the era Almost single handedly he made the theatre important again Catapulted from obscurity to being the icon of his age when he was only twenty five Osborne was at the height of his fame equally celebrated and derided as the Angry Young Man John Osborne Anger is not about examines his fractious often chaotic personal life against the social and political background of his times It provides an invigorating insight into his complex often anguished personality and a fresh critical assessment of his writing A vivid account not only of what it was like to be John Osborne loyal and generous scathing and brutal but what it was like to be so restlessly a creative artist in the latter 20th century Click here to read an exclusive extract in The Independent Shouting in the Evening Thomas F. expanded its holdings at a phenomenal rate so that it now houses 36 million leaves of manuscripts 1 million rare books 5 million photographs and one hundred thousand works of art Among its most famous holdings are a Gutenberg Bible the Helmut Gernsheim Collection a major photohistorical archive that contains the world's first photograph ca 1826 the Carl H Pforzheimer Library of Early English Literature the Watergate papers of Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein the archive and costume collection of Robert De Niro and the personal literary archives of hundreds of major twentieth century writers from Samuel Beckett and James Joyce to Tom Stoppard and Norman Mailer This volume celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of the Harry Ransom Center Staff members describe the Center's founding the remarkable growth of its collections as part of a thoughtful and deliberate acquisition plan and its extensive outreach to scholars students and the general public They pay tribute to the leadership of Harry Ransom who conceived the idea of a research center in the humanities that would be for the state of Texas what the Bibliothèque Nationale is for France The authors also tell fascinating stories of how individual collections and archives were acquired as well as some of the controversies and myths that have arisen as a result of the Ransom Center's liberal spending and rapid growth Photographs of treasures from the Ransom Center and key figures in its history round out this lovely and authoritative volume The Contemporary British History Play Richard H.

Palmer, 1998-06-18 British drama since 1956 has been particularly innovative This volume investigates how recent British history plays reflect the methods and values of New History in contrast to traditional biographical dramas that depict the lives of great men of the past More than 50 British playwrights are discussed including John Osborne John Arden Edward Bond Robert Bolt Pam Gems Howard Brenton Caryl Churchill Howard Barker and Peter Shaffer Historical drama consistently displays the sense of history prevalent when it was written a 17th century quest for precedent and analogy the affirmation of cosmic order in the 18th century the Romantic search for manifestations of spiritual purpose in Victorian times a demonstration that humans control events and the early 20th century promise emulating science to present the facts objectively Contemporary British history plays however demonstrate different agendas for history itself Marxist plays illustrate a historical dialect leading to the emergence of Communism Oppositional history takes the point of view of the disenfranchised the defeated or the oppressed Social histories refocus attention away from movers and shakers onto groups of small players Feminist historians expose the biases of a male dominated hegemony and confront the role of gender in history Deconstructionists debunk our confidence in historical metanarratives Postmodernism uses anachronism and stylistic eclecticism to emphasize parallels in different historical periods or to relate historically defined metaphors and rituals to modern experience Both playwrights and critics confront the implications of the idea that history is constructed and not simply found and new approaches to history demand innovations in the staging and structuring of plays Shouting in the Evening Dave Oliphant, 1996 The Book Collector, 1996 The Alcalde, 1997-01 As the magazine of the Texas Exes The Alcalde has united alumni and friends of The University of Texas at Austin for nearly 100 years The Alcalde serves as an intellectual crossroads where UT's luminaries artists engineers executives musicians attorneys journalists lawmakers and professors among them meet bimonthly to exchange ideas Its pages also offer a place for Texas Exes to swap stories and share memories of Austin and their alma mater The magazine's unique name is Spanish for mayor or chief magistrate the nickname of the governor who signed UT into existence was The Old Alcalde      Opening Civic, Feminist and Theatrical Spaces Maya Esther Roth,2001      Double Act Ira Bruce Nadel,2004 The story of Stoppard's life is a compelling one and it is laid out with extraordinary detail in this first major biography Evening Standard Double Act is the first major biography of one of the world's celebrated most writers From his early theatrical success as the youngest playwright ever produced at the National Theatre to his Academy Award for Shakespeare in Love Tom Stoppard's work is renowned for its dazzling wit invention and box office appeal But his real life is a more complicated affair still and this acclaimed and authoritative book reveals the remarkable private story of a man who from childhood had to invent his own personality and whose multi layered dramas reflect the enduring contradictions of his life An impressive biography it makes a good story out of that most unpromising subject an unqualified and extended triumph Spectator Appealingly embellished with Stoppard's shrewd witticisms about his work and full of keen perceptions of its own Double Act offers an exhaustive and enlightening overview of a singular talent that is happiest when expressing itself in dual ways Sunday Times Nadel is excellent at providing an exposition of Stoppard's ideas and the wider social context in which he lives Independent on Sunday A searching biography of this mercurial writer Nadel builds an engrossing picture of someone in continual self reinvention Jewish Chronicle Stoppard's playwriting career unsurprisingly constitutes the largest component of the biography and the production details gossip and contractual facts make for fascinating reading Irish Times If the genius of Nadel's subject lies in paradox it also needs genius to turn that paradox into an event This book is one and a palpable hit Good Book Guide Essential reading for all students of theatre Hampstead Highgate
