Bret L. Rothstein

Showing Status Representation Of Social Positions In The Late Middle Ages:

Showing Status Wim Blockmans, A. Janse, 1999 This publication brings together multi disciplinary perspectives on representations of social difference in the Low Countries during a time of dynamic social change Symbolic Communication in Late Medieval Towns Jacoba van Leeuwen, 2006 Mediaevalia Lovaniensia 37 In the context of late medieval state centralization the political autonomy of the towns of the Low Countries Northern France and the Swiss confederation was threatened by central governments Within this conflict both rulers and towns employed symbolic means of communication to legitimate their power The authors of Symbolic Communication in Late Medieval Towns explore how new layers of meaning were attached to well known traditions and how these new rituals were perceived They study the public encounters between rulers and towns as well as among various social groups within the towns Heraldry, Pageantry and Social Display in Medieval England Peter R. Coss, Maurice Keen, 2003 Discussion of display through a range of artefacts and in a variety of contexts family and lineage social distinction and aspiration ceremony and social bonding and the expression of power and authority Medieval culture was intensely visual Although this has long been recognised by art historians and by enthusiasts for particular media there has been little attempt to study social display as a subject in its own right And yet display takes us directly into the values aspirations and indeed anxieties of past societies In this illustrated volume a group of experts address a series of interrelated themes around the issue of display and do so in a way which avoids jargon and overly technical language Among the themes are family and lineage social distinction and aspiration ceremony and social bonding and the expression of power and authority The media include monumental effigies brasses stained glass rolls of arms manuscripts jewels plate seals and coins Contributors MAURICE KEEN DAVID CROUCH PETER COSS CAROLINE SHENTON ADRIAN AILES FR D RIQUE LACHAUD MARIAN CAMPBELL BRIAN and MOIRA GITTOS NIGEL SAUL FIONN PILBROW CAROLINE BARRON and JOHN WATTS Representing Difference in the Medieval and Modern Orientalist Romance Amy Burge, 2017-02-14 This book the first full length cross period comparison of medieval and modern literature offers cutting edge research into the textual and cultural legacy of the Middle Ages a significant and growing area of scholarship At the juncture of literary cultural and gender studies and capitalizing on a renewed interest in popular western representations of the Islamic east this book proffers innovative case studies on representations of cross religious and cross cultural romantic relationships in a selection of late medieval and twenty first century Orientalist popular romances Comparing the tropes characterization and settings of these literary phenomena and focusing on gender religion and ethnicity the study exposes the historical roots of current romance representations of the east advancing research in Orientalism neo medievalism and medieval cultural studies Fundamentally Representing Difference invites a closer look at medieval and modern popular attitudes towards the east as represented in romance and the kinds of solutions proposed for its apparent problems Lordship and the Decentralized State in Late Medieval Europe Erika Graham-Goering, Jim

van der Meulen, Frederik Buylaert, 2025-01-23 Lordship and the Decentralized State in Late Medieval Europe rethinks the rise of modern European states as a process of decentralization The idea that states made lordships obsolete is challenged by showing how the distribution of authority among local lords reinforced the development of new political systems Images and Objects in Ritual Practices in Medieval and Early Modern Northern and Central Europe Krista Kodres, Anu Mänd, 2014-07-18 This multidisciplinary collection of essays explores the functions meanings and use of images and objects in various late Medieval and Early Modern social practices which were linked by their ritual character The book approaches ritual as an action which is discussed under the general umbrella term performative practice and is characterised by a synthesis between the repetitive and the extraordinary that carries an intense symbolic meaning and is emotionally charged Images spaces and rituals were closely interconnected in both the religious and the secular spheres and played a relevant role in the symbolic communication of the time The essays in this volume are devoted to a complex study of these phenomena in Northern and Central Europe including regions which due to linguistic or cultural barriers have thus far received comparatively little attention in Anglo American scholarship including Scandinavia Poland and the Baltic states The Right to Dress Giorgio Riello, Ulinka Rublack, 2019-01-17 Presents a global history of dress regulation and debates around how human life and societies should be visualised and materialised Europe's Rich Fabric Bart Lambert, Katherine Anne Wilson, 2016-12-05 Throughout human history luxury textiles have been used as a marker of importance power and distinction Yet as the essays in this collection make clear the term luxury is one that can be fraught with difficulties for historians Focusing upon the consumption commercialisation and production of luxury textiles in Italy and the Low Countries during the late medieval and early modern period this volume offers a fascinating exploration of the varied and subtle ways that luxury could be interpreted and understood in the past Beginning with the consumption of luxury textiles it takes the reader on a journey back from the market place to the commercialisation of rich fabrics by an international network of traders before arriving at the workshop to explore the Italian and Burgundian world of production of damasks silks and tapestries The first part of the volume deals with the consumption of luxury textiles through an investigation of courtly purchases as well as urban and clerical markets before the chapters in part two move on to explore the commercialisation of luxury textiles by merchants who facilitated their trade from the cities of Lucca Florence and Venice The third part then focusses upon manufacture encouraging consideration of the concept of luxury during this period through the Italian silk industry and the production of high quality woollens in the Low Countries Graeme Small draws the various themes of the volume together in a conclusion that suggests profitable future avenues of research into this important subject Networks, Regions and Nations Robert Stein, Judith Pollmann, 2010 This volume offers a fascinating insight into the continuities and discontinuities in the formation of identities in the Low Countries and its neighbouring countries It is an important contribution to the ongoing debates about national and other identities Sight and Spirituality in Early
