Politics and Rhetoric of Italian State Steel Privatisation Edoardo Mollona, Luca Pareschi, 2022-05-17 The globally spreading privatisation wave that occurred in the 1990s deeply changed the structure of economic institutions worldwide This turmoil overturned not only economic institutions but shared cultural and societal institutions as well This book is the result of an investigation into the history of the privatisation of the steel industry in Italy completed between 1994 and 1995 It explores the history of the Italian steel industry by looking at the interplay of local intertwined interests political relations and ideological formations that characterised an idiosyncratic hegemonic historical bloc Rather than stigmatising this pattern as the legacy of a dysfunctional provincialism the authors mobilise Gramsci's theory of hegemony to explain how the Italian privatisation process unfolded to accommodate economic pressures political interests and ideological constraints of a hegemonic social group or aggregation of social groups Thus in reconstructing the privatisation of Italian steel this book proposes a hegemony theory of privatisation and more generally describes a model that explains how political and cultural dynamics give rise to idiosyncratic local variations in globally spreading policies It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of business history economics sociology and political science

Transforming Mozambique M. Anne Pitcher, 2002-11-14 Many of the economic transformations in Africa have been as dramatic as those in Eastern Europe Yet much of the comparative literature on transitions has overlooked African countries This 2002 study of Mozambique's shift from a command to a market economy draws on a wealth of empirical material including archival sources interviews political posters and corporate advertisements to reveal that the state is a central actor in the reform process despite the claims of neo liberals and their critics Alongside the state social forces from World Bank officials to rural smallholders have also accelerated thwarted or shaped change in Mozambique M Anne Pitcher offers an intriguing analysis of the dynamic interaction between previous and emerging agents ideas and institutions to explain the erosion of socialism and the politics of privatization in a developing country She demonstrates that Mozambique's political economy is a heterogeneous blend of ideological and institutional continuities and ruptures
