Si Le Grain Ne Meurt:

Si Le Grain Ne Meurt ... André Gide, 1925 The Themes of Awareness and Perspective in André Gide's "Si Le Grain Ne Meurt." Neil Walter Carlson, 1972 Andre Gide's Politics NA NA, 2016-04-30 At the peak of his career after having established himself as an accomplished writer astute moraliste and the foremost spokesperson of his generation for personal freedom and self realization Gide became aware first that his particular brand of bourgeois individualism was becoming increasingly irrelevant in the contemporary world and second that social commitment and even revolution could serve as a powerful source of inspiration and self renewal Over a ten year period that began in the 1920s and ended with his public break with the Soviet Union in 1936 Gide the committed intellectual interacted with society in ways that were for him unprecedented These essays examine the outcomes of Gide s evolving commitment to a host of controversial issues ranging from the sexual to the political from the literary to the social French Autobiographical Writing 1900-1950 Susan M. Dolamore, 1997 Never Say I Michael Lucey, 2006-11-17 Rereads the works of Colette Gide and Proust to show how central representations of sexuality were to the evolution of literary prose forms in twentieth century France Gide's Bent Michael Lucey, 1995 This study investigates the place of sexuality in the writings of Andre Gide Focusing on his work in the 1920s and 1930s the years in which Gide wrote most openly about his homosexuality the text shows how Gide s sexuality reflected his political interests André Gide and Curiosity Victoria Reid, 2009-01-01 This comprehensive exploration of curiosity in the fiction and life writing of Andr Gide 1869 1951 is an important modernist contribution to the field of curiosity in literature and cultural studies more broadly Curiosity was a credo for Gide By observing the world and then manifesting in writing these observations he stimulates the curiosity of readers conceived as virtual conduits of a curiosity once his own Using a thematic structure of sexual scientific and writerly curiosity this volume identifies processes of curiosity in the life writing including the travel writing which illuminate processes in the fiction and vice versa Theories of fetishism gender and sexuality are applied to Gide s corpus to illustrate his championing of a masculine curiosity of enlightenment and adventure over a feminised curiosit d faillance of disobedience and harm and to explore objects eliciting his incuriosity Gide s creativity is nourished by his curiosity as close readings of his work informed by Melanie Klein s psychoanalytic writing on epistemophilia reveal Curiosity is a rewarding non reductionist perspective from which the exceptional variety of Gide s subject matter style and genre can be more coherently understood Research draws principally on the six Pl iade volumes of Gide s uvre published 1996 2009 Le roman symboliste Valérie Michelet Jacquod, 2008 Valerie Michelet Jacquod analyzes the paradoxical nature of the Symbolist novels that appeared between 1887 and 1895 These works were often criticized or rejected because of their contradictory place between the fictional realism of novels and Symbolism s rejection of narrative in favor of language Artists such as Dujardin Gide Gourmont and Schwob chose to transform these contradictions into a literary subject illustrating the extreme consciousness of Symbolism and discussing the idealism autonomy of language and other foundations of symbolic poetry The novel of extreme consciousness was in fact a major link in the renewal of a genre that paradoxically never ceased to think about its limits French text Conrad and Gide Russell

West-Pavlov,2023-04-17 This study examines the relations between the work of the Polish English novelist Joseph Conrad and the French Nobel Prize winner Andr Gide Gide s translation of Conrad s Typhoon is read as a work belonging paradoxically to the oeuvres of both writers where their respective preoccupations meet with illuminating results Focusing also on other major works by Conrad and Gide the study suggests that the intertextual and personal interaction between these two masters of 20th Century fiction was governed by processes of identification and projection conflict between master and disciple and a consequent resistant reading of texts and confrontation with linguistic and cultural heterogeneity Issues of translation theory psychoanalysis and intertextuality are brought together to offer a glimpse of a possible dialogue between literature and ethics This study will be of interest to students and researchers in English French and Comparative Literature Sartre Christina Howells,1988 This book is a comprehensive study of the writings of Jean Paul Sartre As well as examining the drama and the fiction the book analyses the evolution of his philosophy explores his concern with ethics psychoanalysis literary theory biography and autobiography and includes a lengthy section on the still much neglected study of Flaubert L Idiot de la famille One important aim of the book is to rebut the charges made by many theorists and philosophers by revealing that Sartre is in fact a major source for concepts such as the decentred subject and detotalised truth and for the revolt against individualistic humanism Dr Howells also takes into account much posthumously published material in particular the Chaiers pour une morale but also the Lettres au Castor and the Cranets de la drole de guerre The work is a substantial contribution to Sartre studies but has been written with the non specialist in mind to that end all quotations are translated into English and gathered in an appendix
